

Gen. Basil Drake is now engaged in writing a history of the life and military services of Gen. Morgan.

The State Prison convicts at Charlestown, Mass., have contributed $200 for the benefit of the Portland sufferers.

Mr. P. T. Barnum has been appointed one of the Commissioners to the World's Fair at Paris.

Robert Donner, since his last purchase, possesses the six finest horses in this country. They cost him $120,000.

The once famous Ellsworth Zouaves of Chicago, are fast running down. The organization now numbers only fifty active members.

A vein of lead ore, six feet thick, estimated to yield ninety per cent, metal, has been opened at Newbury, Green county, Ind.

Five prisoners escaped from the Nashville jail a few nights ago by sawing through two bars in a window fronting the river.

A young Sebectady lady has become insane in consequence of the opposition of her friends to a match upon which she had set her heart.

The authorities of Greenville, Ala., have passed an ordinance appropriating ten per cent of all taxes toward the support of free schools.

A Southern correspondent of the New York Times figures up the probable cotton product for this season at 2,700,000 bales—more than half the crop of 1860.

The Washington National Monument Association are making another effort to secure contributions to finish the monument. It is estimated that it will take $2,000,000 to complete the work.

The military prisoners confined in Castle Pinckney, Charleston, S. C., under sentence of death, have had their sentences commuted to imprisonment for life at the Dry Tortugas, by President Johnson.

Dean Richmond, President of the New York Central Railroad Company, and a leading Democratic politician, reports his income for the last year at $108,721. In early life he was a poor boy and a canal driver.

Fighting between the Indians and soldiers at Idaho is reported. There had been several casualties on both sides. A company of forty soldiers was, at last accounts, surrounded by Indians, awaiting reinforcements.

Hard rubber collars are to be the next novelty. A process of bleaching rubber has been discovered, and after hardening, it can be made into collars, wristbands, etc., and the enthusiastic think they see the end of the paper collar business.

The military prisoners confined in the Ohio Penitentiary are being discharged under the recent order of the President. Among others is Dr. Paine, who was captured two years ago, and was at one time under sentence of death as a rebel spy.

The St. Louis, Mo., Democrat says that "while other cities are supplying themselves with pure water, the people of St. Louis are gulping down such quantities of mud that half of them are corpulent with sandbars."

There are now in jail at Des Moines, a young girl, aged seventeen, charged with bigamy, and her mother, charged with perjury, in swearing falsely before the County Judge when the marriage license was granted.

An Indiana school teacher attempted to chastise a female scholar, when a young fellow threatened to shoot him, whereupon the master drew his own pistol and shot the boy, who returned the fire, hitting his mark. Both were badly wounded.

It is thought to be something remarkable that whereas previous cholera seasons were noted for the entire absence of thunder and lightning, this summer we have had more of these than was ever known before. This fact would seem to demolish the theory that the pestilence is caused by a lack of electricity in the atmosphere.

The associate press of this country propose to spend $125,000 a year for European news by the Atlantic cable. They will have two dispatches a day, made up in London at three o'clock in the morning, and three o'clock in the afternoon, which will be the same as 10 p. m. and 10 a. m. New York time, and reach here in season for morning and evening papers.

The French Academy have very wisely selected as the subject for the prize poem of next year: "The Death of President Lincoln." It must be admitted that the forty have been most judicious. Few themes are more suggestive or more suited to inspire a poetic mind with noble and striking thoughts. While exalting the memory of the man who abolished slavery, it is evident that it will not be possible to avoid the glorious theme of liberty.

When the United States Senate proposed to make an exception to the taking of the Test Oath by Mr. Patterson, one of the new Senators from Tennessee, it expressed in the strongest possible manner, the belief that he could not take the oath without committing perjury. After the House of Representatives refused to concur in making the exception, the Senate, by allowing Mr. Patterson to take the oath, was guilty, if not of the subornation of perjury, of something very near akin thereto. That Mr. Patterson, in taking the oath, was guilty of perjury, does not seem to admit of question.

Gen. Fremont will be a candidate for U. S. Senator in Missouri provided the next Legislature is radical.

The President and Cabinet will be at Chicago, September 5th, and remain two nights and one day.

The western people are welcoming the radical members of Congress home with unbounded demonstrations of confidence and respect.

What did Andrew Johnson mean when he promised to be the Moses of the black men of the South, and lead through the Red Sea?

He meant Memphis and New Orleans!

James E. Brown, of Mercer county, was nominated as the Republican candidate for State Senator on the eighty-second ballot. This district is composed of Venango, Mercer and Warren counties.

Governor Morton, of Indiana, says the Philadelphia convention is a direct confession that the democratic party, indelibly stained with treason as it is, is a name too greivous to be borne.

The Union State Convention for New York will be held at Syracuse on the 5th day of September next. Candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Canal Commissioner, and Inspector of State Prisons will be nominated.

The theory of the recently deceased aged German physician, that his life was greatly prolonged by sleeping with his head to the North, finds an accompanying confirmation in the fact that most American politicians, who have for scores of years laid their heads to the South, are very dead.

The public have seen how the Conservatives managed what they called the "Rump" Convention in New Orleans. It is not uncharitable to infer that the Conservatives design to administer the same discipline to the assembly they call the "Rump Congress" at Washington. In the New Orleans massacre the President was on the side of the cut-throats. There are indications that he intends to be on the same side at the National Capital.

President Johnson, in his dispatch to the Attorney General of Louisiana, says: "The people must first be consulted in changing the organic law of the State. Usurpation will not be tolerated."

If we recollect aright, this same President, without the slightest authority of law, dictated most important changes in the Constitution of ten different States, in not one of which did he allow the demanded changes to be submitted to the people. Does he mean to plead guilty to the charge of usurpation?

A party of New Orleans youths just bursting into manhood, went up town a few nights ago to compliment a lady friend of one of the young gentlemen by a serenade. They had barely time to execute one plaintive air, when a window opened and a masculine voice good naturedly inquired, "How many of you are there?" "Four," returned the serenaders, thinking the inquiry had probably reference to refreshments. "Divide that among you, then," returned the individual at the window, as he emptied the contents of a water pail over the heads just then massed together.

The devotion of the infamous Mayor of New Orleans to the rebel cause during the war is well illustrated by the following incident recently related by Gen. Butler at a social gathering:

Mayor Monroe, after being imprisoned as a traitor, was about to be released, upon taking the oath of allegiance, and had actually the pen in his hand, to affix his signature, when word was brought in that McClellan had been defeated by the rebels with the loss of forty thousand men. Believing this canon, Monroe refused to sign, threw down his pen, and was taken back to prison, from which he was afterwards released by the action of the authorities at Washington.

Mr. King, of the New Orleans Times, who, before the riots, telegraphed that the Convention was only a "debating club," and afterwards spoke of its members as revolutionists, wrote recently at the President's dictation, as follows:

"The officers and people of New Orleans must, in every respect, deport themselves in such a way that the stain of the recent occurrence may, as much as possible, be wiped out. The President demands this."

The President, then, comprehends that the blood of his victims in New Orleans has left a "stain." Ay, and all the waters of the ocean will not wash it out. He now "demands" that the assassins who were his tools, shall so behave as hereafter to pass for gentlemen. And this from a President of the United States!

The Richmond Examiner, in commenting upon the hisses and groans given by the reconstructed rebels of Kentucky for Grant and Sherman, says:

"Not only in Kentucky, but throughout the Union and the world, Grant and Sherman will decline in estimation, while President Johnson and General Lee will be recognized in all their purity, goodness, and greatness."

There is no mystery in the fact that the rebels now associate the name of President Johnson with that of General Lee. The President, by his conduct, shows he has repented of the part he took in putting down the rebellion, and is willing to do all he can, under the circumstances, to undo the best acts of his life.

THE QUAKER CITY BUSINESS COLLEGE

North-east Corner Tenth and Chestnut Streets, PHILADELPHIA.

The most complete and thoroughly appointed Department of Commercial College in the country. The only one in the city possessing a Legislative Charter, and the only one in the United States authorized to confer Degrees of merit. Diplomas awarded to graduates in the Commercial Course under its corporate seal by authority of law.

Conducted by gentlemen of liberal education and extensive experience in business, and affording the qualified advantages for the thorough theoretical and practical education of young men for the various duties and employments of business life.

THEORY AND PRACTICE COMBINED

original and pre-eminently practical, giving the student in the shortest time a complete insight into the routine, details, customs and forms of business generally, as conducted in the best-regulated commercial and financial establishments.

THEORETICAL BOOK-KEEPING

Upon a new plan, with an original exposition of the science of accountancy, arranged and published by the proprietor of this Institution exclusively for his own use, saving one-half of the ordinary cost of the study, and giving him a complete knowledge of the science of the best accountants.

THE COMMERCIAL COURSE

EMBRACES

Book-keeping, Commercial Arithmetic, Penmanship, Business Correspondence, Commercial Law, Lectures on Business Affairs, Commercial Customs, Forms, and Actual Business Practice.

SPECIAL BRANCHES.

Algebra and the Higher Mathematics, Phonography, Ornamental Penmanship, the Art of Detecting Counterfeit Money, Engineering, Surveying, Navigation and Telegraphy.

TELEGRAPHING.

The arrangements for Telegraphing are for the purpose of anything of the kind ever offered to the public. A regular Telegraph Line is connected with the Institution with twenty branch offices in various parts of the city, where public business is transacted, and in which students of this Institution are permitted to practice. No regular office practice can be had in any other school of instruction in the country, without which no one can obtain a position as a practical operator. Young men are cautioned against the deceptive representations of those who, without any such facilities, pretend to teach Telegraphing.

PATRONAGE.

This Institution is now enjoying the largest patronage ever bestowed upon any commercial school in the State. Over five hundred students were in attendance the first year, and over seven hundred during the past year. The best class of students may invariably be found here, and all its associations are first class.

LOCATION AND ACCOMMODATIONS.

The Institution is located in the most central part of the city, and its accommodations, for extent, elegance and convenience, are unequalled. The rooms have been fitted up in the very best style with Business Offices or Consulting Rooms, Telegraph Offices, Stationery Store, and a regular supplied with finely-engraved lithographic notes used as a circulating medium in the Department of Actual Business.

BANK OF DEPOSIT AND ISSUE

TO YOUNG MEN

who desire the very best facilities for a Practical Education for Business, we guarantee a course of instruction no where else to be equalled, while the reputation and standing of this Institution among business men make its endorsement the best passport to success and advancement. All contemplating entering any Commercial College, are invited to send for an containing complete interior views of the College, and full particulars of its location, of its facilities, terms, &c.

FOUTZ'S

CELEBRATED

Horse and Cattle Powders.

This preparation, known and generally known, will thoroughly invigorate broken-down and low-spirited horses, by strengthening and clearing the stomach and intestines. It is a sure preventive of all diseases incident to this animal, such as LUNG FEVER, Glanders, Yellow Water, Heaves, Coughs, Discharges, and Fevers, and is a sure preventive of all diseases incident to this animal, such as LUNG FEVER, Glanders, Yellow Water, Heaves, Coughs, Discharges, and Fevers, and is a sure preventive of all diseases incident to this animal, such as LUNG FEVER, Glanders, Yellow Water, Heaves, Coughs, Discharges, and Fevers.

To keepers of Cows this preparation is invaluable. It increases the quantity and improves the quality of the milk. It has been proven by actual experiment to increase the quantity of milk and cream twenty per cent, and make the milk sweeter, richer and more nutritious. In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetible, luscious and tender hide, and makes them thrive much faster.

In all diseases of Swine, such as Coughs, Ulcers in the Lungs, Liver, &c. this article acts as a specific. By putting from one-half a paper to a paper in a barrel of swill the above diseases will be eradicated or entirely prevented. If given in time, a certain preventive and cure for the Hog Cholera.
