THE HARVEST CALL.

Abide not in the Realm of Dreams Oh man, however fair it seems, Where drowsy airs thy powers repress, In languor of sweet idleness.

Nor linger in the misty Past, Entranced in visions vague and vast; But with clear eye the Present scan, And hear the call of God and man.

That call, though many voiced, is one With mighty meanings in each tone; Through sob and läughter, shriek and praye Its summons meets thee everywhere.

Think not in sleep to fold thy hands; Forgetful of thy Lord's commands; From Duty's claims no life is free-Behold, To-day hath need of thee! Look up!-the wide extended plain Is billowy with its ripened grain, And on the Summer winds are rolled

Its waves of emerald and gold. Thrust in thy sickle!-nor delay The work that calls for thee To-day; To-morrow, if it come, will bear Its own demands of toil and care.

The present hour allots thy task ! For present strength and patience ask, And trust his love whose sure supplies Meet all thy needs as they arise.

Lo! the broad fields with harvest whites Thy bands to stremous toil invite; And he who labors and believes, Shall reap reward of ample sheaves.

Up, for the time is short!--and soon The morning sun will climb to noon; Up!-ere the herds, with trampling feet, Outruning thine, shall spoil the wheat.

While the day lingers do thy best! Full soon the night will bring its rest; And, duty done, that rest shall be Full of beatitudes to thee.
