Agents Wanted for The Camp, the Battle Field and Hospital
Or Lights and Shadows of the Great Rebellion.

The Erest is a certain portion of the war that will never go into the regular histories, nor be embo died in romance or poetry, which is a very real part of it and will, if preserved, convey to succeeding gencrations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict than many dry peports or careful narratives of events, and this part may be called the gossip, the fun, the pathos of the war. This flustrates the character of the leaders, the humor of the soldiers, the devotion of women, the bravery of men, the pluck of our heroes, the romance and hardships of the service.
The rolume is profusely allustrated with over 100 congravings by the first artists, which are really beautiful; wortby, of examination as specimens of the artThe book's contents include reminiscences of camp, picket, spy, secont, bivouac, escige and battle-field adventures; thrilling feats of bravery, wit, drollery, comical and ludicrons adventures, etc., etc.

Anuseen ent as well as instruction may be found in every page, as graphic creatil, brilliant wit, and authenic history, are skillfully internoven in this work of literary art.

The people are tired of dry details and partisan works, and want something humorous remantic and
