

Washington Correspondence.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17, 1866. A member of the Cabinet has written a letter to a "friend of the Administration" in New England respecting the President's views and opinions, and has kindly furnished a copy of a part of the letter to another "friend of the Administration."

We learn from this letter that the President is not going to abandon his views because the elections have gone against him—that he will fearlessly veto every bill sent to him, if he does not like it, or has constitutional scruples about it.

But if it is true that the President will content himself with making indecent speeches and vetoing the most important measures of Congress—if he will honestly execute the laws—I am safe in the assertion that he will not be impeached by the present Congress.

Everybody who knew the President expected him to cling obstinately to his "policy;" and Congress will care little for his vetoes, so long as it has the power to pass bills over them.

It is rumored that an investigation into the difficulties at Baltimore will be ordered at an early day after the session begins. No one can object to this, and one of its results will be to show just what the President did in connection with them.

The papers to-day are filled with rumors of an interview between Chief Justice Chase and the President, and some of them go so far as to intimate that the subject of impartial suffrage was under discussion.

The colored people of the District of Columbia are making a determined effort for impartial suffrage, and there is a fair prospect that they will triumph this time.

Evidently Radical!

To the Editors of the Franklin Repository: I see an article in your paper stating that Plumfield township, Hendricks county, Indiana, is the Banner Republican township of the Union, as it gave 621 Republican to none Democratic.

Gov. Fletcher, Charles D. Drake, and Henry T. Blow are competitors for the United States Senatorship in Missouri.

Schuyler Colfax has been added to the already long list of nominees for the Presidency in 1868.

The Chicago Republican says it has assurance from private sources which it considers authoritative, that Lieutenant General Sherman has steadfastly refused to signify his approval of that line of action known as Mr. Johnson's "policy."

The Legislature of Georgia has rejected the Constitutional amendment relative to reconstruction. In the Senate the vote against it was unanimous, and in the lower House there were two votes in its favor to one hundred and thirty-one opposed to it.

One of Life's Contrasts.

Our readers will remember that John Morrissey, the pugilist and gambler, was among the members of Congress elected by the Democracy of the city of New York.

We clip the following from the New York Daily Times of last Wednesday: STARVATION IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, Nov. 21.—Considerable excitement has been caused here to-day by the discovery of a family actually suffering from starvation.

Now read the other side of the picture! On Wednesday, the same day, a fashionable wedding occurred in Troy, New York, about which a local correspondent writes as follows:

Mrs. John Morrissey was present and was certainly attired far in advance of any of her sex who were present, and it has been said that the value of the precious stones which adorned her person would purchase not all the dresses worn in the church, but the edifice and its entire furniture.

They talk of sending Horace Greeley to the U. S. Senate from New York State. The Newburg Journal has called out Mr. G. on the subject, who gives his views thus, in a letter dated on the 14th inst.:

I shall certainly accept the Senatorship and endeavor to discharge its duties should I be elected. And I shall be gratified to learn that our newly chosen Legislature shall judge me the man for the place.

There is no room for misjudging Mr. G. in this matter, if plain Saxon can prevent it.

"CAST THY BREAD UPON THE WATERS."—The Williamsport Bulletin says: "Gen. Cameron was the first Cabinet Minister who insisted upon employing the negroes to aid in putting down the rebellion."

"In January, 1861, Gen. Cameron, then Secretary of War, put in his report the assertion that the slaves ought to be employed as soldiers against their masters, and immediately the cry was raised all over the country. 'Why, this is a white man's war; no negroes should be employed in this way; it ought to be fought out by white men. It is a white man's quarrel solely. The negroes don't know enough to be soldiers; they do not know enough to kill men. Mr. Cameron had to leave Mr. Lincoln's Cabinet because of that report and on to Russia.'"

SOLON ROBINSON'S NOVEL.—Solon Robinson, the veteran Agricultural Editor, has written a novel for The New York Tribune. The publication will commence on the fifth of December.

J. C. Fremont proposes to himself the United States Senatorship from Missouri.

FOR THE JOURNAL.

Reply to "L. S. R."

DEAR JOURNAL: The issue of Nov. 20, contains under the title of "Practical Observations, No. 1," the comments of a correspondent on the editorial notice of a cheese factory soon to be built at Wellsborough.

Now I am unwilling to let this subject rest here because I don't believe all the statements of that article. As to the products per cow as there stated are too much by at least one-fifth.

The population has decreased within the past six years we have touching mementoes in the sombre habiliments of mourning all around us.

In all bilious disorders these Pills may be used with confidence, as they promote the discharge of vitiated bile, and remove those obstructions from the liver and biliary ducts which are the cause of bilious affections in general.

A farmer in the northern part of the county stated that his cows had produced in calves, butter and pork, enough to pay for themselves, this season.

ALL persons interested will please to take notice that the following accountants have settled their accounts in the Register's Office of Potter county, and that the same will be presented to the Orphan's Court for confirmation, on Monday, the 17th day of Dec'r 1866, at the Court House in Condorsport:

Register's Notices. Account of Elizabeth Yobe Schiller, administratrix of Adan Yobe, dec'd. Account of Chas. H. Armstrong, administrator of David Crowl, dec'd.

TRIAL LIST FOR DEC. TERM 1866. Russell et al use of Ennis vs. Luke Stevens et al John Krouse vs. Martin, Mallory, et al Lewis Yentzer vs. Yates Anson.

"Are we growing poor?" Our Practical Observer asserts that we are. This must be a mere matter of opinion, as there is no census to instruct us.

That there has been much unprofitable farming in our county, every one acquainted with the subject will readily admit. One of the most unprofitable of all farming operations is to still raise the soil-exhausting oats and sell them off the farm, instead of, by dairying and wool-growing, selling the most refined and valuable products, and enriching the soil by the excrement and manure of all the animals.

I am acquainted with every neighborhood in Potter county, yet do not know of scarcely an acre of cleared land that would not, with fair cultivation and without manure, raise a tolerable crop of white beans.
