LICENSE OR NO LICENSE ?- The Court last week granted license to sell liquor to all those applicants in the county to whom there was no objection by the temperance people; but all the cases where remonstrances were to be presented were adjourned until last Monday afternoon. As we go to press early Tuesday morning, it is impossible to give the result of the contest this week; but we shall print a full report of the proceedings in our next issue.

MEETING OF THE COUNTY COMMITTEE; The Republican County Committee met last week on Tuesday evening in this village. All the members were present. Hon. John W. Guernsey occupied the chair. Hon. J. B. Niles was appointed delegate from this Representative district to the State Convention, and for Senatorial delegate the nomination of J. C. Johnson, Esq., who had been named by Cameron county, was concurred

Both delegates were instructed to support Hon. H. W. Williams for Judge of the Supreme Court. They were not instructed at all as to whom they should support for Governor. We understand the counties of Cameron and M'Kean gave their respective delegates the same instructions.

THE MARKRAM CASES.—In August, 1870, a building situated at Knoxville in this county, and belonging to Mr. Wm. MarkStewar; village lot in Lawrenceville, for am, of that place, was burned, it was believed by incendiaries. Afterwards Mr. S. Markram, a brother of William, was indicted for the offense, William appearing as prosecutor. Samuel's trial upon that indictment took place in this village last week, and excited great interest. A strong array of counsel were engaged in the case, District Attorney Strang, and Messrs. Seymour, Niles, and Beach appearing for the Commonwealth, and Messrs. Sherwood, Elliott, Leach, and Streeter for the defendant.

The principal witness for the prosecution was another brother of the accused, Thomas Markram, who swore that he himself set fire to the building at the instigation of his brother Samuel. He swore to his own guilt with a stolid unconcern and indifference showing little appreciation of his own position or its consequences. This witness being an accomplice of the accused, of course it was impossible to convict upon his unsupported testimony, and two brothers named Styles were called to corroborate him. Que of them swore, on the direct examination, that just before the fire he saw Samuel Markram holding his horses not far from the doomed building; but on the cross-examination the witness broke down entirely, and admitted that he didn't think it was the accused whom he saw there.

This so weakened the case that the ouestion whether a verdict should be ordered was submitted to the Court, and a verdict of acquittal was at once entered without the examination of a single witness on the part of the defense.

The next day Thomas Markram pleaded guilty to the charge of burning his brother's building, and threw himself upon the mercy of the Court. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs and to be imprisoned eighteen months in the penitentiary. The whole case was certainly one of the most remarkably fraternal affairs that we have heard of lately.

THE "WILD TEA"/HUMBUG.-We have to acknowledge the receipt of a letter from Mr. Charles Yardley, of Pittsburg, telling how he cured his cancer by drinking "wild tea" which grows on "high land." We feel a little slighted that Charles didn't write to us before, for we see he has been sending the same letter to a great number of our exchanges. We don't like to print original letters that have been already published all over the country, and so Charles must excuse us this time. We are surprised to find Charles's epistle so poorly written and badly punctuated; but the poor man probably writes so many that he really hasn't time to put in the stops.

We thought at first that we wouldn't notice Charles at all; but when we came to consider how much he must expend for stationery and postage, to say nothing of his valuable time, we thought it only fair that he should have some return for his unselfish labor, and we determined to print this first rate notice of him which we find in one of our exchanges: "We have no doubt that Charles is sixty-two years old. His writing indicates it. Of course the person with a cancer gets permission of the man who owns "high land" in his vicinity to cut two or three tons of "wild tea" on it; and he fails to find anybody who ever saw the herb. So the afflicted writes to Charles Yardley, and Charles sends him the name of his partner in Pittsburg, who can furnish any quantity of "wild tea" at three dollars per ounce.— For "wild tea" substitute "dry dock leaves," and the advertising dodge is exposed."

NAUVOO HILLS AND THE ZIMMERMAN CREEK ROAD. -Editor Agitator :- Here are ome facts about those hills and that road ---First the hills: Going south from Nauvoo, the road leads up one, which, to say the best, is long and tedious. This is followed by four smaller ones with their intervening hollows. Not much farther is the top of one from which there is a pitch down, down, down, into a hole (I mean place) called Texas.

Wm. Stoddard of Pine Creek, having passed through this place, and reached the top of this hill, looked down and remarked "That is the worst hole, in the ground, that I ever saw." This hill measures four hundred and fourteen feet in height, and two hundred and thirty-seven rods in length. In seventy nine rods there is a rise of two hun-

Texas is three miles from Nauvoo. The road from here is along the banks of Zimmerman Creek to English Centre, from whence two roads lead out into the open country far below. From Texas is another road up a hill, long, and in some parts very steep, a distance of three miles ere the top is fairly gained. Here are farms mostly new. This section is called Oregon, and has about fifty inhabitants. At Nauvoo is their near-

Josiah Newell and wife to Charles B. Ellis; about 109 acres in Union township, ing from Oregon and intersecting this has moved to the control of the con seen viewed and reported, thus affording the people there a road of easy grade and no greater distance; also opening the way for some four new settlers, who have at present no road. They are but little way back from the creek road. Some six families living near the upper end of the creek road have to go to Nauvoo if wishing to go South, about one mile farther for them. Who says this road is not a public necessity? It has its opposers. The farmers along the hill road have mustered all their forces against it, and have even asserted that it should not be opened. They got up a petition to have it vacated, under the plea of the town being in debt.

Many signed, those living on Babb's Creek having never traveled the road and not expecting to be benefited by it. Offers were made to build the road for three hundred dollars. Nearly if not quite this amount has been expended by lawing. Failing in the first attempt, a second paper for vacation has been sent to Court. A year ago about fifty men came together and made oaths that "Said road was a public necessity." It being Saturday there were only about forty registered and sent to Court .-These were by persons most of whom live in Pine Township, Lycoming county, and in Liberty.

Its opposers convened and made oaths: Ashael P. Shaw and wife to Xavier but why enumerate them? I have implicit Houser; 2 acres in Liberty township for faith that the Court will decide in favor of the public. If the Judge could walk up Texas hill, ride down it on horseback, and then make his decision, I am sure it, would be prompt and decisive for the wants of the people. What rejoicing among travelers! If poor horses could know, and shout, we should all be startled by their loud hurrahs at such an event. I shall then have great improvements to write about.

MATHERS.—At. Wellsboro. January 24th,
Marion H. Mathers aged 22 years, 3 months; and 7 days.
It is with feelings of the deepest regret that we and nounce the death of one of our most promising young men. Mr. Mathers was taken ack January 19th with cerebro-phinalit, and his decline was rapid and uninten rupted. He was a young business him of writinant prospects, and was much respected and beloved in our village. House and Lot for Sale. THE subscriber offers for sale his house and lot of Lincoln Street, opposite Jacob Sticklin, in Welle bire, on reasonable terms. Said house is in good condition, and a choice lot of fruit trees on the premises For particulars inquire of GEO F. BERWART, Jan. S1, 1872-3t. KEMP.—Garance A. Herap, the only child and son of Mrs. Mary Kemp, formerly of Jackson, this county, died of Jorahn average, in Elmira, Jan. 30, 1872.

Clarence was a young man of promise, possessed excellent habits, an unblemished reputation and was highly attacked by his relatives and acquaintances.—His mother survives the loss of a kind husband, and now, an only child, and is thus left to weep over dear ones passed away. He was 16 years of age. His fances has attacked from Tribity Church on the State has been attacked from Tribity Church on the State has attacked from The Independent Hose First Company, No. 8, of which he was a membet, attended the funeral in a body. Thus another young man is cut down in the morning of life.

HALES HALLS THE VEGETABLE SICILIAN Every year increases the popularity of this valuable Hair Preparation; which is due to merit alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard; and it is the only reliable and perfected preparation for restoring GRAY OR FADED HAR to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous, and silken. The scalp, by its use, becomes white and clean. It removes all eruptions and dandruff, and, by its tonic properties, prevents, the hair from falling out, as it stimulates and nourishes the hair-glands. By its use, the hair grows thicker and stronger. In baldness, it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth, except in extreme old age. It is the most economical HAIR DRESSING ever used, as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair a splendid, glossy appearance. A. A. Hayes, M.D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes." Sold by all Druggists, and Dealers in Medicines.

Price One Dollar. Buckingham's Dye As our Renewer in many cases requires too long a time, and too much care, to restore gray or faded Whiskers, we have prepared this dye, in one preparation; which will quickly and effectually accomplish this result. It is easily applied; and produces a color which will neither rub nor wash off.

Cents. Manufactured by R. P. HALL & CO., NASHUA, N.H. WONDERS WILL NEVER CEASE.
