rowed, if she shows symptoms of uneasiness, or any indications of inflammation about her teats, a dose of the above medicine will give We have seen this simple medicine administered with great success even in what might be called critical cases. After the sow is farrowed attention will have to be paid to her feeding. Strong food should not be given; light mashes, chiefly of milk and meal, will be the best for her, and they should be given milk warm. But as milk has a binding tendency, care should be taken to see that her bowels are in good condition. Comparatively little food will be required by the sow for the first seven or eight days, and this as just said should be of a light character. Many valuable sows are lost through want of attention to feeding after the sow has farrowed.— Her ordinary food, when it is returned to, hould be given moderately at first, gradually increasing the quantity. The straw supplied to the sow for bedding when she is farrowing, and after the litter is out, should not be long, as the young pigs are apt to get under the straw and get smothered or over-laid by the sow. Chaff is recommended by some, but we prefer straw cut by the straw cutter into three-quarter inch length. The young pigs are apt to eat the chaff, and this again to act prejudically on their health.—
We had an instance lately of the caution necessary to be taken in all details. Our man used a quantity of flax or hemp refuse.

The guest is domestic to you as your good cat or household bird; the visitant is your fly, that flaps in at your window, and out again, leaving nothing but a sense of disturbance, and victuals spoiled. Visitants always show their genius, in knocking the moment you have just sat down to a book. They have a peculiar own. Herein is the distinction between the and into the street. spoiled. Visitants always show their genius, in knocking the moment you have just sat down to a book. They have a peculiar compassionate sneer, with which they "hope that they do not interupt your studies." Though they flutter off the next moment, to carry their impertinences to the nearest student that they can call their friend, the tone of the book is spoiled; we shut the leaves, and with Dante's lovers, read no more that day. Words for the Young.—Young friends, education is to you what polish and refinement is to the rude diamond. In its rude state, the diamond resembles a stone, or piece of charcoal; but when cut and manufactured, it comes out a bright and beautiful diamond, and is sold at a great price. So it is with you. Education calls forth the hidden treasures and latent brilliancies of your minds, which previously lie dormant and inactive, or, in other words, asleep. It cultivates and develops your understandings, and fits and prepares you for the duties and responsibilities of coming years, which, we trust, will be years of usefulness—useful to yourselves, to your associates, and society use; and every family should have them on hand for their protection and relief, when required. Long experience has proved them to be the safect, surest, and best of all the Ptils with which the market abounds. By their occasional use, the blood is purified, the corruptions of the system expelled, obstructions removed, and the whole machinery of life restored to its healthy activity. Internal organs which become clogged and sluggish are cleansed by Aper's Pills, and astimulated into action. Thus incipient disease is changed into health, the value of which change, when reckoned on the vast multitudes who enjoy it, can hardly be computed. Their sugar coating makes them pleasant to take, and preserves their virtues unimpaired for any length of time, so that they are ever fresh, and perfectly reliable. Although searching, they are mild, and operate without disturbance to the constitution, or diet, or occupation.

As a Dinner Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

C. C. Mathers's Cheap Cash Store. All hail! creation far and near; Of Mathers's Store you soon shall hear; Let pealing Drums and Cannons' roar

Proclaim the news from shore to shore: Mathers's stock is now complete; He has good goods and sells them cheap. He trusts no one, but sells for cash,

And sell so cheap some think him rash. Some said he would break in a short time, But if he does then this don't rhyme; For he sells heaps and sells them right, And has his cash for all at night.

I'll take a moments time to speak; Delighted too you can't but be, With prices and the quality. He does his business on the square; That is, he does it right and fair. He says at once just what he'll do, And what he says is right and true.

Of Boots and Shoes so very cheap,

I cannot stop to enumerate— I have bargains both good and great My stock is plentiful, cheap and fine, Especially in the Dry Goods line.

Mathers's Boot & Shoe, Hat & Cap, Dry Goods & Grocery Store is the cheapest place in Tioga county to buy cods. Give it a trial and you will be convinced.

"Charley" has just returned from New York with a large stock of Spring Goods, which he will, on account this immense trade, sell at less profit than before, and which he has bought much cheaper than ever. Wellsboro, April 10, 1872.

Every year increases the popularity of this valuable Hair Preparation; which is due to merit alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard; and it is the only reliable and perfected preparation for restoring GRAY OR FADED HAIR to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous, and silken. The scalp, by its use, becomes white and clean. It removes all eruptions and dandruff, and, by its tonic properties, prevents the hair from falling out, as it stimulates and nourishes the hair-glands. If you want Ladies & Gents' under ware call at BALDWIN'S Shanty By its use, the hair grows thicker and stronger. In baldness, it restores the grow want capillary glands to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth, except in extreme old age. It is the most economical HAIR DRESSING ever used, as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair a splendid, glossy appearance. A. A. Hayes, M.D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The Massachusetts, says, constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I if you want Hats and Caps, consider it the BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes." Sold by all Druggists, and Dealers in Medicines. Price One Dollar.
