WEDNESDAY, JUNE 19, 1872.

-We had a genuine old fashioned thun der torm last Wednesday. -Overcoats were in fair demand again last Saturday morning. -The County Treasurer's tax sales were in progress last week at his office in this village.

-We are under obligations to Hon Thyses Mercur for the latest edition of the Congressional Directory.

-Charles B. Sattorlee of Bradford county has been appointed to a cadetship at West Pourt.

-The lessee of the Watkins Glen charges hity cents a head for admission this year.-He probably thinks there were too many risitors last season.

-Tremaine'a Sun Pictures were exhibited to the school children last Friday morning at ten cents a head. The show is an excellent one of the kind.

-Last week Mr. C. A. Warren, lately of this place, started for Minnesota. He proposes to make that State his future residence. Good luck attend him wherever he goes!

-The Bath Adrocate says that a survey of the route from Bath to Pine Creek via Addison is to be made at once. State Engineer Herrick was to begin the work last week. -The Towanda Reporter says that it is Mr and not Mrs. E. O. Goodrich who is a hember of the State Central Committee for Biadford county. We thought so. -Mr William M. Ingstrum, recently of Elmira, has started a new grocery and provision store on the east side of Main reet in the block just below Converse & Williams s new block. Success to him !

-The telegraph was put in working order I-q : sturday evening, so that New York, ton and Philadelphia are now in unstan

-There was a case of small-pox at Antrim last week, resulting in the death of the patient Friday night. The disease was un-doubtedly brought from New York, as the man attacked had just arrived from that city to work on the Rallroad. Immediate precautions were taken to prevent the spread of the contagion if possible. The sick man was at once removed to an isolated cabin in the voods three miles from Antrim. Whether the means taken to arrest the disease will prove effectual a few days will determine; but, in any event, great credit is due the contractor, Mr. Ward, for the prompt and energetic measures taken to that end. Drs.

Webb and Packer were called in the case. -Bishop Coxe, of the Diocese of Western New York, officiated at St. Thomas's Church

Bath, Sunday evening of last week, confirming a class of twenty-one, three of whom were colored persons. Notwithstanding the heavy rains the beautiful church was well filled, and the large congregation was aniply repaid for any incidental sprinkling by one of the Bishop's most fervid and brilliant sermons on the text, "Acquaint now thyself with him, and be at peace." That last clause would furnish a fitting motto for the grand old parish to which it was so eloquently commended, for within its bounds "envy, hatred, malice and all uncharitableness seem to die out for want of material to feed upon. No doubt there are people there who don't love each other quite as christians.

should, but judging from their behavior they all love their Church more than they hate any man. Happy is the congregation that is in such a case!

THE TRUTH ABOUT THE WEST .-- Most correspondents at the West seem to be in a conspiracy to puff everything appertaining to that region, and to induce the rest of many and then we catch a fleeting glimpso of the other side of the story. The following letter written from Boone, Iowa, on the 7th in-stant, by a former resident of Brookfield, affords an instance of this :

Mr. Agitator .- The rapidly growing town of Boone is situated 220 miles west of the Mississippi by rail, and is the end of a division of the Chicago and Burlington R. R It contains 2,500 inhabitants, a large porgen tage of whom are active business men; five church edifices, a bank, and two printing offices. The Boon Democrat and the Republican Standard are published here; the latter has much the largest circulation. The town also boasts of a roundhouse, machine shop, and several manufacturing establishments, giving employment to a large number of operatives. The principal shotels are the Eagle House, owned by C. E. Phillips, formerly of Brookfield, the Walker, and the Eating House owned by the R. R. Company. The mercantile houses are large
