The relaxing power of Johnson's Anodyne is truly wonderful. Cases are already being cured by its use. It is a powerful sedative, and its use is recommended by the best medical authorities. When used for this purpose, the part should be washed and rubbed thoroughly. Apply the liniment cold, and rub it in with the hand.

Good Pictures.—Mr. D. H. Naramoro is now taking splendid pictures of all sizes. By the excellent reputation gained and looking through specimens will readily come to the conclusion that he thoroughly understands his business. He took a couple of large photographs for the other day which really flattened the competition. Personal and no charge of Wellboro to procure pictures, when they can be had here just as good and cheap as can be done by persons sending agents here from abroad. Drop in and see for yourself.

THE CAMPAIGN OPENED. Wellboro Wide Awake!

FIRST MEETING OF THE GRANT AND WILSON CLUB.—THE COURT HOUSE FILLED—GOOD SPEAKING, GOOD MUSIC, AND A GOOD TIME.

The meeting held by the Republicans of Wellboro at the Court House last Saturday evening to organize a Grant and Wilson Club for the campaign was a gratifying success to the friends of the cause.

The meeting was called to order by electing Dr. Nelson Parker, Chairman, Joseph Atkinson and C. L. Wilcox, Vice Presidents, and A. G. Sturrock and C. B. Kelley, Secretaries.

The Chairman said the object of the meeting in a few well-timed remarks, heartily endorsing the nominations made at Philadelphia, and exhorting Republicans to support the ticket.

Dr. Mitchell said this was the first time he had ever addressed a political meeting. He had taken an interest in politics ever since the late Henry Clay was elected President, and had during all that time been opposed to the party calling itself Democratic.

Four years ago Mr. Greeley labored with all his might to elect General Grant, and to-day he is arrayed against him simply because Grant is the nominee of the Democratic party.

do know, considerable of local political sentiment. After Mr. Greeley's nomination at Cincinnati, there were a few Republicans in the larger villages who "talked Greeley."

There were some here in Wellboro, a few in Toga, a few more at Mansfield, and a few in the "Blue Hills." We think this was the whole strength of the "Greeley movement" in the county.

We made diligent inquiry as to all sections, and so far as we could learn there was absolutely no defection at all in the county districts.

The universal reply was "there are no Greeley men in our region." Of course, the more noisy Democrats were inclined to make all they could of the affair; but the "movement" was so ridiculously small that even they soon grew ashamed of their game of brag, and urged us to wait until after Greeley was nominated at Baltimore; then, they said, the timid Republicans who were secretly in favor of the Sage would pluck up heart to declare themselves openly.

So we waited; and Greeley finally became the regular Democratic nominee. But if the Democratic prophets believed in themselves, we imagine they must be sorely disappointed by this time. The thing didn't work at all as they said it would.

In fact, it worked just the other way. The Democratic nominee didn't gain any Republican support; but he got a good deal of "Liberal" candidate might have justly claimed. And it is working just so to-day.

If the Democratic papers and talkers will only keep on bragging and blowing, no doubt they will have at the original "Greeley men" a very good time to vote against modern Democracy however disguised, always excepting a few sore-heads and disappointed office-seekers. The enemy are heartily welcome to them; and much good may they do.

But there is another side of the subject.—The nomination at Baltimore not only did not hurt the Republicans here, but it did hurt the Democrats. We have now on our subscription books the names of Democrats who have since the Baltimore Convention been men who express, with true Democratic emphasis, their disgust with leaders who have tried to sell them out.

They are forced to vote for a Republican, they prefer to vote for their own candidate, and not be traded like sheep in the shambles. Some of these men may, perhaps, be whipped back into the party traces by the political hacks; but we believe the ballot-box will disclose a silent but most effective protest against the high and dicker at Baltimore on the 10th inst.
