Beware of Politics.

BY FRANK CLIVE.

Thomas Pott was a modest man, and sensitive and shy;
As harmless and as blameless as lived beneath the sky,
At h-m no shelf of slander had ever yet been shot,
And if o'er a tranquil life was led, 'twas led by Thomas Pott.

Until some of the people, looking for a patriot
To serve the state as constable, selected Thomas Pott,
Who timidly thought to win with ease a glorious victory,
For in himself he recognized a spotless nominee.

Next day he placidly took up an opposition sheet,
To see how it accepted the assurance of defeat,
And he more than half suspected that his rival candidate
Would be advised to struggle, no longer, against fate,

Just Heaven! What wretched stuff was that which scared Pott's glaring eyes?
"Pott a fit man for constable? That wolf in sheep's disguise!
Is this the Pott whose mother died? Was Pott her only heir?
Her stomach—was it analyzed to find the poison there?

These questions are suggestive of a serious inference,
Though we sincerely hope that Pott may prove its innocence.
Meanwhile we trust our readers will withhold their votes from Pott,
Until he clears his record from this deep, this damnable blot!"

Pott published a denial and got witnesses to swear
That neither was his mother dead, nor was I. Pott her heir.
Nor was there any poison found. And T. Pott's only brother
Declared on oath that this T. Pott had never had a mother.

But Pott's denial failed to stop that paper's wide abuse
And the same swarm of calumnies rose morning we and noon;
And people looked askance at Pott, as if they wished to shun
His company, which interfered somewhat with T. Pott's fun.

And other sheets took up the cry and published far and wide,
The details of Pott's villainy, horribly amplified,
Until to Pott's bewildered sense, the very air seemed hot
With curse of "Pott, the poisoner!" "The bloody villain, Pott!"

And shadowy fingers seemed to point at him, wherever he went,
Without arousing the poor man to any great extent.
He could not eat, he could not sleep. Pott was upset, in fact,
And some wise individuals said that T. Pott was cracked!

But the tempest in that T. Pott waxed wilder and more wild,
To say that T. Pott boiled with rage, would be to draw it mild.
He interviewed an editor, with a punitive cowhide,
But came down stairs promiscuously, and far from satisfied.

For T. Pott was but fragile, while the editor was stout
And championed the freedom of the press on T. Pott's snout.
In that effective style sometimes denominated "brown"
Which obtained T. Pott, in vulgar parase, to "quickly shimmer down."

Next morning's paper thus remarked upon the interview:
"T. Pott proclaims his innocence, but who believes him now?
If Pott was not his mother's poisoner, will some one give
A reason why exposure makes Pott so sensitive?

Our mild allusions to the means by which his mother died,
Afforded Pott a pretext for attempting homicide!
Shall bloody ruffians thus disgrace our glorious polities?
Are marauders and homicides fit guardians of the peace?"

The jurors, who were cognizant of newspaper abuse
Found that T. Pott was shattered, and not without excuse
For slaughtering that editor, by blowing out his brains,
And dancing wild fandangoes on that editor's remains.

The Wit of Josh Billings.

The following chunks of wit and wisdom are from Josh Billings' Alminax for 1873, published by G. W. Carleton & Co.:

DOCTOR PIERCE'S
ALTERATIVE

Golden Medical Discovery

FOR DISEASES OF THE THROAT, LUNGS, LIVER & BLOOD.

In the wonderful medicine to which the afflicted are above pointed for relief, the discoverer believes he has combined to harmony more of Nature's most sovereign curative properties, which God has instilled into the vegetable kingdom for healing the sick, than were ever before combined in one medicine. The evidence of this fact is found in the great variety of most obstinate diseases which it has been found to conquer. In the cure of Bronchitis, severe coughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cures the sick to-day, it strengthens the system and purifies the blood. By its great and thorough blood purifying properties, it cures all humors, from the worst Scrofula to a common Blotch, Pimple or Eruption. Mercurial diseases, Mineral Poisons, and their effects are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Ulcerous Sores, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short all the numerous diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying and invigorating medicine.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish brown spots on face or body, frequent headache, dizziness, bad taste in mouth, internal heat or chills alternated with hot flushes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from "Torpid Liver" or "Biliousness." In many cases of "Liver Complaint" only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a remedy for all such cases Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy. For this cure of "Liver Complaint" or Biliousness, or Disease of the Bowels it is a never failing remedy, and those who have used it for this purpose are loud in its praise. The proprietor offers $1,000 reward for a medicine that will equal it for the cure of all the diseases for which it is recommended.

Sold by druggists at $1 per bottle. Prepared by R. V. Pierce, M. D., Sole Proprietor, at his Chemical Laboratory, 133 Seneca Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Invalids Don't Despair.

Thousands have found relief, and thousands will turn to this medicine, after exhausting their purses and patience in search of health.

Giddiness of the head, dullness of the mind, fœtid breath, coated tongue, loss of appetite, pains and weakness in the stomach, enlargement of the liver, yellowness of the skin, constant fever and thirst, with a total disrelish for business, pleasure, or any kind of employment. FAHRNEY'S PANACEA, if taken and persevered in for a few days, will remove this whole class of symptoms. The fluids of the body become pure, the mind clear, the stomach strengthened, the tongue clean, the appetite improved, and the whole system so benefitted that disease, in bad weather, is less liable to afflict you.

Celebrated Blood Cleanser or Panacea.

As a medicine for children, the panacea is, in every way, calculated to take the place of the endless variety of cordials, &c., sold for that purpose, and which are often very injurious. A medicine which possesses the qualities of a cathartic as well as a mild alterative, and which is capable of arresting disease without the least injury to the child, is of incalculable value to every mother. As a cathartic it is very effective, yet it does not, if given in proper quantities, cause nausea or distress in the stomach or bowels.—It is very pleasant to the taste, which is a very important feature as a medicine for children. As a preventive of disease it is unprecedented, as it acts directly upon the digestive organs and the blood. In all scrofulous diseases it is the most effective medicine ever offered to the public, and if given regularly and perseveringly those scrofulous diseases so common to children may be entirely eradicated.

Prepared by P. Fahrney's Bros. & Co., Waynesboro, Pennsylvania, and Dr. P. FAHRNEY, North-western Medical Institute, Chicago. Price $1.25 per bottle. For sale by wholesale and retail dealers and by Hastings & Co., Wellsboro, Pa.
