A Lesson for Lovers.

O youth it is thoughtless and love it is blind,
Regardless of mundane surroundings,
And people that spoon are but half in their mind,
They reck not or weither—or water or wind—
And drift from all sensible surroundings.

It was April the month, and the hour it was night,
And starlight [illegible]
[illegible]
Not alone was the lady that saintly eye,
[illegible]
But both sat wrapped in a trance of delight,
As heedless of time as of reason.

Not alone was the lady that saintly eye,
[illegible]
[illegible]
Mrs. Partington—billing and cooing.

[illegible]
[illegible]
But next morn it was hot for the day, and instead
Of "sweet spirits of night" she'd a cold in the head,
And a dose of sweet spirits of nitre!

ALL SORTS.

Ralph Waldo Emerson and his daughter Ellen have decided to sail for Europe, to spend the winter there.

The importation of American books into France, Germany, and Russia is increasing at a very rapid rate.

Pure Spring: To all her other afflictions is shortly to be added a boot about her, by Mr. Hepworth Dixon.

Dr. Lieber's version "Civil Liberty" was used as a text book in Yale College, under the presidency of Dr. Woolsey.

Poets are not always poor. Henry W. Longfellow pays a tax of $2,000, and Jas. Russell Lowell pays one of $750.

A Chinese newspaper has just begun its publication in Potomac. Its publisher probably thinks it a very pretty well-stocked journal of this kind.

Chief among the Atlantic's attractions for [illegible] will be a romance from the pen of the editor, Wm. D. Howells. The story will begin in the January number.

The King of Saxony has published eleven [illegible] mostly from Italian and the Spanish. None of them have any originality.

Elliott Cones, a first-rate naturalist, will publish through the Naturalists' Agency in Salem, Massachusetts, a "Key to North American Birds," illustrated by six steel [illegible] and nearly 300 woodcuts.

The London Spectator says that Mr. Stanley's book is not likely to be out this month. It will be well produced, without the appearance of haste, although it is to contain nearly seven hundred pages, with fifty splendid wood cuts and maps. The American copyright necessitates delay for publishing in America simultaneously, otherwise the book would be out sooner.

Among new poems published in London are "Memories of Life's Dialogue," "The Bride, and other poems," by the author of "Angel Visits," "Poems from Turkey," "Peril Proves who Truly Loves," by Robt. [illegible] "Nuova Italia; or, Tours and Retours through France, Switzerland, Italy and Sicily," by Nomentino.

Nature may be called the amanuensis of God. Then art is the amanuensis of nature. Machine and mule are eternal twins, and humanity is what they have ground out of the mill of being.

Mohammedans are proverbially fond of contemplating a state of future bliss. Probably they reflect that "marriages are not made in heaven."

Pleasant dreams are pretty pebbles in the [illegible] of sleep, and the dim reminiscences we have of them are the ripples made on the surface of consciousness.

Many characters have two sides, a large side and a small side—like the houses in so many parts of Edinburgh, which are 12 stories high one way and only three the other.

We perceive that Mr. Foster, the test-medium, has the candor to insert his advertisement among the amusements. This shows a sense of the eternal fitness of things that we were not prepared for.

Crude youth is to ripe maturity what the obsolete almanac is to the modern weather probabilities—In the one, every sentence is a promise with little corresponding fulfillment; in the other, little is undertaken, but it is all done.

Don Piatt, writing from the White Sulphur Spring, tells this little story: "The paternal editor of the Belle here the other day, shortly after his return to the springs, was approached by a youth who requested a few minutes' conversation in private, and began, 'I was requested to see you, sir, by your lovely daughter. Our attachment—' 'Young man,' interrupted the parent, briskly, 'I don't know what that girl of mine is about. You are the fourth gentleman who has approached me this morning on the subject. I have given my consent to the others, and I give it to you; God bless you.'"

Mme Adeler says that Mrs. Smith was thus addressed by her new Chinese servant when he wanted to know if he should bring up a pail of water: "Would the beauteous dove who broods like an angel of peace over this fair heaven of domestic felicity, cooing soft notes to her affectionate mate, desire me to conduct the wooden vessel from the sublime subterranean apartment where it is excluded from the glance of her soft eyes?" Mrs. Smith thinks the Chinese much excel even the French in politeness.

A young lady who is studying French hastily wrote to her parents that she was "invited out to a dejeuner the day before," and was going to "fete champetre the next day." The professor of the college was surprised to receive a telegram from the "old man" a day or two after, saying, "if you can't keep my daughter away from those blasted menageries and side-shows, I will come down and see what ails her."

This is the way a Leavenworth paper goes off: The blled chestnut will soon supersede biled owl and the sweet-scented and muchly-roasted peanut in our refreshment marts. Farewell, thou fast-rotting grape; adieu, thou decaying melon; hence, thou blushing crab; swount, thou greasy and well handled apple; away, and give place to the gentle and immaculate worm of the chesnut.

A druggist recently received the following prescription, with a request to put it up: "Fur Kramps.—Tinct kamfire, won ounce; tinct lodenum, a little; tinct kyan pepper, two pen'orth; klourform, a little, but not much, as it is dangerous medicine. Dose, half teaspoonful when the kramps comes on."

A very genteel and amiable young man is now insane. He splits his hair in the middle. The other day in combing it he chanced to get two more hairs on one side than on the other. This destroyed the balance of the head, and overturned his brain. He makes a very gentle lunatic, however.

There is difficulty in finding a jury when an Indian comes before an Omaha court. One of the panel being asked if he had any prejudice, replied: "No; only I have been chased by an Indian in several battles with 'em, and would hang every devil of 'em at sight."

A Managuk man's horror at the prospect of being crushed to death by a team of frightened horses, was terribly intensified by the reflection that "the grass standing on the very verge of eternity without a dollar in his pocket."

"I want to know," said a creditor fiercely, "when you are going to pay me what you owe me?" "When I'm going to pay you? Why, you're a pretty fellow! Do you take me for a prophet?"

Josh Billings says: "We read that Esaw sold out his birth rite for soup, and many wonder at hiz extravagance, but I saw discovered airly, what many a man haz discovered since, that it is hard work to live on pedigree."

A profane journalist is good enough to say that a somewhat illiterate gentleman up town has named his dog Michael Angelo on the supposition that M. A. was one of the old masters, as he had often heard so.

A lady about to marry was warned that her intended, although a good man, was very eccentric. "Well," she said, "if he is very unlike other men, he is more likely to be a good husband."

Michael Gorman, a Michigander, killed himself by eating too much o'gander, though the doctor had warned him fairly in these words: "If Gorman will gormandise, Gorman dies."

An Alabama journal announces that "a cow and calf can be bought by applying at this office." It probably calls that disposing of the "stock" of the paper.

In the foyer of the Academy of Music: "What a singular bass voice B. has!" "Do you call that a bass voice? it is simply a neglected cold."

An exchange says that the correct answer to the gentleman who wrote the song, "Why did I marry?" would be "Because you met a woman who was a first class fool."

Why shouldn't America be friendly to France, when so many of her families are sheltered by French roofs?

Forty boy choristers are employed at St. Paul's Cathedral, London. Rather boy-sterous.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets
SIZE OF PELLETS.
Or Sugar-Coated, Concentrated, Root and Herbal Juice, Anti-Bilious Granules. THE "LITTLE GIANT" CATHARTIC, or Multum in Parvo Physic.
The novelty of modern Medical, Chemical and Pharmaceutical Science. No use of any longer taking the large, repulsive and nauseous pills, compound of cheap, crude, and bulky ingredients, when we can by careful application of chemical science, extract all the cathartic and other medicinal properties from the most valuable roots and herbs, and concentrate them into a minute Granule, scarcely larger than a mustard seed, that can be readily swallowed by those of the most sensitive stomachs and fastidious tastes. Each little Purgative Pellet contains in a most concentrated form, as much cathartic power as is embodied in any of the large pills found for sale in the drug shops. From their wonderful cathartic power, in proportion to their size, people who have not tried them are apt to suppose that they are harsh or drastic in effect, but such is not at all the case, the different active medicinal principles of which they are composed being so harmonized and modified, as to be, as to produce a most thorough and searching yet gentle and kindly operating cathartic.
$500 Reward is hereby offered by the proprietor of these Pellets, to any chemist who, upon analysis, will find in them any Calomel or other mineral poison of mercury or any other mineral poison.
Being entirely vegetable, no particular care is required while using them. They operate without disturbance to the constitution, diet, or exposure. For Jaundice, Scrofula, Constipation, Impure Blood, Pain in the Shoulders, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in mouth, Bilious attacks, Pain in region of Kidneys, Internal Fever, Blotched Reddish about the Face, Rush of Blood to Head, High Colored Urine, Unsociability, and Gloomy Forebodings, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. In explanation of the remedial power of my Purgative Pellets over so great a variety of diseases, I wish to say that their action upon the animal economy is universal, not a gland or tissue escaping their sanative impress. Age cannot impair them; their sugar-coating and being enclosed in glass bottles preserve their virtues unimpaired for any length of time, in any climate, so that they are always fresh and reliable, which is not the case with the pills found in the drug stores, put up in cheap wood or paste-board boxes. Recollect that for all diseases where a Cathartic, Alterative or Purgative is indicated, these little Pellets will give the most perfect satisfaction to all who use them.
They are sold by all enterprising Druggists at 25 cents a bottle.
Do not allow any druggist to induce you to take anything else that he may say is just as good as my Pellets because he makes a larger profit on that which he recommends. If your druggist cannot supply them, enclose 25 cents and receive them by return mail from Invalids Don't Despair.

Thousands have found relief, and thousands will turn to this medicine, after exhausting their purses and patience in search of health.
Giddiness of the head, dullness of the mind, foetid breath, coated tongue, loss of appetite, pains and weakness in the stomach, enlargement of the liver yellowness of the skin, constant fever and thirst, with a total disgust for business, pleasure, or any kind of employment. FAHRNEY'S PANACEA, if taken and persevered in for a few days, will remove this whole class of symptoms. The fluids of the body become pure, the mind clear, the stomach strengthened, the tongue clean, the appetite improved, and the whole system so benefitted that disease, in bad weather, is less liable to afflict you.
Trade Mark.
DR. P. FAHRNEY'S
Celebrated Blood Cleanser or Panacea.
As a medicine for children, the panacea is, in every way, calculated to take the place of the endless variety of drugs which are annually sold for that purpose, and which are often very injurious. A medicine which possess the qualities of a cathartic as well as a mild alterative, and which is capable of arresting disease without the least injury to the child, is of incalculable value to every mother. As a cathartic it is very effective, yet it does not, if given in proper quantities, cause nausea or distress in the stomach or bowels.—It is very pleasant to the taste, which is a very important feature as a medicine for children. As a preventive of disease it is unprecedented, as it acts directly upon the digestive organs and the blood. In all scrofulous diseases it is the most effective medicine ever offered to the public, and if given regularly and perseveringly those eruptive diseases so common to children may be entirely eradicated.
Prepared by P. Fahrney's Bros. & Co., Waynesboro, Pennsylvania, and Dr. P. FAHRNEY, North Dearborn street, Chicago. Price $1.25 per bottle, for sale by wholesale and retail dealers, and by Hastings & Coles, Wellsboro, Pa.
