

The Truth about the County Buildings.

A CARD.—A report having been put in circulation that the County Commissioners intend to erect a new Court House, the undersigned cannot but be gratified in securing the people of Tioga county that there is not one particle of truth in any such rumor.

On the contrary, we are now engaged in repairing the old Court House, and find that it can be put in good condition at an expense of not more than three or four hundred dollars. When those repairs are effected, which will be in a few days, the building will be good for the next generation.

Other county buildings are in good repair, and are ample to accommodate the public business of the county.

JON REXFORD, T. O. HOLDS, E. HART, Esqs. Counrs. January 10, 1873.

RELIEFS.

—How many times have you written 1872 by mistake this year? —Last Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights were glorious days for you.

—We are under obligations to Gov. Geary for an early copy of his message. —Mr. L. B. Reynolds has opened a new store on the corner of Main and Crofton streets.

—Rev. Robert Collyer, of Chicago, lectures at Tioga next Monday evening, the 20th inst. —The "mighty hunters" of Potter county were to start for Pine Creek on a bear hunt last week.

—It is given out that Lucy Stone will not lecture this winter. Her little boy is only four weeks old.

—The insurance claims to the amount of $31,000 have been paid in Lock Haven in the last two months.

—The taxes of Hornellsville are the heaviest that ever have been levied there, with the exception of the war tax.

—Mr. B. F. Roberts has sold his stock of groceries to Mr. Charles Yahn, who succeeds him in the business at the same stand.

—The Williamsport Gazette and Bulletin print twenty-three solid columns of matter, consisting of a review of the business interests of that city.

—Sticklin has opened a new furniture room in the new Opera House block. He has got into good quarters and no doubt will do a good trade.

—Mrs. Livermore's lecture at Tioga last Tuesday evening was the same one she delivered here last year—"What shall we do with our daughters?"

—The Democrat has got a new head, and now spells its own name correctly. It is still a fine paper, however, with its twelve inside and fourteen outside columns.

—L. F. Truman is now "at home" in the middle store of the Opera House block. If you want to see a handsome store well filled, just drop in there and look around.

—The price of season tickets to the Hermaio Lectures Course has been reduced to two dollars. They will be found at E. B. Young & Co's Bookstore.

—W. C. Kress & Co. have got aboutsettled in their new store in the Opera House block, and their stock of hardware and the new quarters set each other off to the best advantage.

—The "Alhambra" is the name of a new establishment in the Cone House block. It is a very excellent man, Schenck knows how to get it up in the best style and on short notice.

—Hugh Young has removed his insurance office to the room over Horton Brothers' store, right in front of the Opera House. He has good neighbors, to say the least.

—There was a stabbing affray at Montgomery Station, Lycoming county, last evening, which resulted in the dangerous wounding of Mr. Robert Tilton in the left breast.

—William J. Hayes, of the firm of Hurley & Hayes, of Bloomingburg, died on the 6th inst., after a long illness. He was a prominent business man, and his loss is deeply regretted.

—The Mesdville Republican thinks that a great deal is said about Credit Mobilier Stock by Democratic editors who have their doubts whether it is a brand of French eters or a new brand of married alms.

—Mr. A. M. Ingram, of this village, has invented an arrangement for coupling or uncoupling cars. The brakesman has only to turn a wheel, and the work is done without danger to life or limb.

—There is nothing like going away from home for news. The Evans, N. T. Journal of last week says that the inauguration of Gov. Hartman, of Pennsylvania, took place on Monday the 6th inst.

—The Elmira Advertiser of last Saturday announces that P. C. W. Geary has been elected a trustee of the Advertiser Association and Treasurer and Superintendent, in place of Col. F. A. De Voe, resigned.

—We have received from the proprietor of the Public Ledger, of Philadelphia, a copy of the Ledger Almanac for 1873. It is a valuable and interesting little tract, which is presented to each subscriber to the Ledger.

—The Blossburg and Corning, Fall Brook, Wellboro and Lawrenceville, and Cowanesque Valley Railroads have been consolidated, and are hereafter to be known as the Corning and Wellboro Railway.

—The Corning and Wellboro Railway is owned and operated by the Fall Brook Coal Co. The length of these roads foot up the respectable figure of 72 miles, besides the switches and double track at the principal stations.

—Mrs. Livermore opened the Hermaio Course last week Monday evening by a lecture over two hours long on Queen Elizabeth. It consisted mainly of an elaborate outline of the "Maiden Queen" and was highly interesting, although rather opposed to receiving historical ideas. The course was a treat, subject for criticism; but space forbids any lengthy discussion of it this week.

—The next lecture of the course is by Josh Billings, on Friday, the 24th inst. A characteristic note from him will be found among the local notices.

—The papers are calling the attention of soldiers to the fact that the time for filing claims for the additional bounty under the act of July 22nd, 1865, giving $100 to every soldier who enlisted in the army of the United States prior to the 15th day of April, 1861, for a period of not less than three years, and received his honorable discharge, or $50 for two years enlistment, after April 14th, 1861, expires on the 15th of the present month, Congress having, on the 22d of April last, passed an act prolonging the time for filing such claims until January 31st, 1873.

—There were two or three mistakes in our article of last week on Mr. Donaldson's official life, which were of minor importance, but which will be well enough corrected. The third hotel mentioned in Wellboro, in 1827, stood on the lot on the south-east corner of Main and Crofton streets, where Corner's hardware store now stands. The hotel stood thirty or forty feet back from Main street, and was kept at that time by B. F. Alford. Mr. Donaldson's Democratic competitor in 1850 was Ephraim B. Gerould, not Gould, as misprinted. The Whig candidate for Prothonotary in 1851 was Samuel R. Smith.

REPAIRING THE COURT HOUSE.—Everybody who has attended the courts here-heretofore knows that the court room has been in a condition which, to say the least, did not credit to the county. It was dirty, dingy and very shabby. But by the time the next term of Court assembles, on the 27th inst., a great change will have been wrought in the room. The work of repair and decoration is already well advanced, and the completed we venture to say that no better looking or pleasanter public room will be found in the county.

The plaster has been knocked off the ceiling, and new and smooth putty put on. The walls and ceiling have been kalsomined or "decorated," as the workmen call it, in handsome and harmonious tints and panels, with a very fine center-piece. The wood work is to be thoroughly cleaned and given in imitation of chestnut. The old tables and desks are to be re-covered and made as good as new. The unsightly old stoves and pipes are to be removed rather more presentable. When all this is done, and the door again carpeted, the court room will be one into which no citizen of the county need feel ashamed to take a stranger.

Besides this inside renovation, it is the intention of the Commissioners, as soon as the weather moderates sufficiently, to put new shingles on the entire roof of the Court House, and as soon as this is done the building will be in good repair. The walls are to be solid and strong, and are evidently sound today as they were in 1825—the year they were put up. We see no good reason why it should not stand for the next hundred years; and with the slight interior repairs needed from time to time it will far outlast the present Court House of this county. It entirely devoted to the purposes for which it was erected, it is ample in size and conveniently arranged for the transaction of the public business of the courts.

There will be temporary meetings at the place, and times, and by the speaker named below.
