UNCLE JO.

BY ANNE CAROL.

I have in memory a little story, that few indeed have read about me...

With his little pickaxe swung over his shoulder, and down upon his head...

And when he was alone, he would sit down on the ground, and think...

And when he was alone, he would sit down on the ground, and think...

And when he was alone, he would sit down on the ground, and think...

And when he was alone, he would sit down on the ground, and think...

And when he was alone, he would sit down on the ground, and think...

And when he was alone, he would sit down on the ground, and think...

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7, 1873.

It is reported, with much show of probability, that the New York Emigration Commission have put forth heavy financial inducements to secure the defeat of Mr. Conger's bill for protection to emigrants.

The increased interest in early literature during late years has caused numerous editions of the works of the great English writers.

Percey's Reliques must nevertheless still hold an important place in literature as a work which gave birth to modern literary criticism.

USEFUL AND SUGGESTIVE.

Buying a Horse.

First, acquire a knowledge of horses, so as to know a good horse when you see one that is a model.

The prevailing blennies are blindness or weak eyesight, especially in dark-colored or thorough-bred, stiffer, etc., all of which an expert observer will detect in an instant.

It is proposed to erect a new printing office for the printing of all the Government issues of bonds, etc., including national bank notes.

The House Committee on Appropriations are now investigating preparatory to recommending an appropriation of $250,000 for the purpose.

No doubt New York will oppose the bill, because much of the business done in a great loss and delay, has been carried back and forth between Washington and New York.

The move is in the right direction, and this kind of manufactory or mechanical business should of right be accorded to the Capital, from which so much of general trade is cut off in consequence of Washington being the Capital city.

The Result of Prohibition.

On the 8th of May, 1872, there came up for debate in the British House of Commons the subject of the prohibition of liquor.

The debate ran on through two days, and the result was that the measure was rejected by a majority of 165.
