It is the only form of intrumont yet invented with which fluid medicine can be carfied high up and perfectly applied to all parts of the nilocted meral pus-siges, and the chembers or cavities communicating therewith, in which socreased ulcers frequently exist, and from which the catarital discharge generally proceeds. The want of auccass in treating extarrh-leretofors has arisen largely from the impossibility of applying remedies to these quittes and chambers by any of the ordinary methods. This obstacle in the way of effecting ourses is entirely overcome by the invention of the Dones. In using this instru-ment, the Fluid is carried by its own weight no souffing, fording of pumping being required, up one nostril in a full gently flowing stream to the highest portion of the nass passages, passes into and thoroughly cleanase all the tubes and chambers conneged there-with, and flows out of the opposite nostril.
