He was but two hours in removing enough brick from his cell in the new "pasteboard" jail to let himself into free air; and so con siderate was he of the interests of the county that he did not break a brick. It occurred on Saturday night last, and on Monday morning the authorities put back the brick and papered the cell throughout." POPULAR MUSICAL INSTRUCTION .- Ed itor of the Agitator: Some years since an article appeared in the AGITATOR over my signature making the following proposal regarding the teaching of instrumental music in the county, viz: That five or six families hire the same instructor who should devote one day per week to each, and be conveyed from place to place by those last served. Though this plan met the approfation of a large number of competent judges and from many quarters I received compliments as to its good sense and feasibility, nevertheless an article appeared in a subsequent is suc ridiculing the project. It seemed to have been written by a lady, hough she had not the courage or, at least

A CORRECTION. - Editor of the Agitator . I noticed a statement in a late number of our paper relative to an accident happening to a Mr. Short while at work in the saw mill belonging to N. Beach & Son.

Perry Short, Jr., on the 22d day of March, while under the mill regulating the saw-dust elevators, was struck by a piece of board eight feet long, I inch thick and three inches very dangerous wound and fracturing the skull. When the wound was dressed next day by Surgeons Humphrey and Blatchley, they found a piece of the wood inside the skull 1 and $ of an inch long, ? of an inch wide and I of an inch thick, actual measure ment. Seven pieces of skull bones were taken out. At the time of writing he is feeling very much better and hopes are entertained of his recovery. Simeon P. Beach. Little Marsh, April 17, 1873.

AFFAIRS AT LAWRENCEVILLE. - Editor of the Agitator: Your Correspondent "On Dit" strikes bravely at the causes which impede the progress of things in our town; but he is very careful not to allude to the floods which prevent us from having any plank walks, and which in wet weather make our streets look like the highways for hog drivers. Our Photographic Artist I hope will take a peture of the bridge before its beauty passes away. The poor housekeepers who have been waiting an opportune moment to nove will pass a vote of thanks to the Commissioners upon its completion. Several families have been patiently sitting with uptorn carpets and piles of bedding, singing the inspiring old song, "There's a good time coming when we cross over Jordan."
