We should so readily have come to blows! I'll follow thee, my nose, in blind reliance;
As dauntless seamen track an unknown ms
Bid the wild winds and angry waves definance
With thee for compass, dial, index, vane;
I'll mock when dire vicissitudes arise,
With they my note the seamen to any ili thee, my pole star, aye before mine eyes. Thy ruby light beams forth like beacon-blaze,

Thy ruby light beams forth like beacon-blaze,
Or heat of inward crater all aglow;
Thou art a censor of the public ways,
In whatsoever path thou chance to go.
Thus Sheridan, the chief of wits and beaux,
Did make a nosegay grat of his gay hose:
He filched the arbifle hue from reddest wine,
And robbed the mellow punch-bowl of its bloom.
Until at length his nose grow aquiline.
Through being bent for ick of beaker-room.
A masal bridge of such portentous size
Might well sustain a punch between the eyes. And yet indeed, thon art a goodly nose.

No common such or overgrown proboscis,
But such a nose as everybody knows
Is fitted for the functions of its oilice,
Here, then, I pause; I've wasted words enough
On one that seems acutely up to smuff.

Oh, most sagacious nose! most potent nose! When friends desert, and bright pressives fall; When life's best hours are fraught with bitter wee, That fain would make the stoutest hearted quaif; When hought turns up to succor or befriend. Thou'rt sure, my nose, to turn up in the end!

These words are vain to trumpet forth thy praise;
One brazen note from that strange lute of thine,
One of thy deep sternutatory brays
Would do thee justice more than pen of mine;
Yet, if my inuse doth failingualit to please,
He fain will make my devoirs with his knees.

—Charles Hallock.

THROAT, LUNGS, LIVER & BLOOD.

In the wonderful medicine to which the officed are above pointed for relief; the discoverer believes he has combined in harmony more of Nature's most sovereign curative properties, which God has instilled into the vegetable kingdom for healing the slok, than were ever before combined in one medicine. The evidence of this fact is found in the great variety of most obstinate diseases which it has been found to conquer. In the cure of Bronchitis, Severe woughs, and the early stages of Consumption, it has astonished the medical faculty, and eminent physicians pronounce it the greatest medical discovery of the age. While it cares the severest Coughs, it strengthens the system and purifics the blood. By its great and thorough blood purifying properties, it cures all Humors from the worst Serofain to a common Blotch. Plemple or Eruption. Mercurial disease, Mineral Poisons, and their effects are eradicated, and vigorous health and a sound constitution established. Erystpelas, Salt Rheum, Eyer Sures, Scaly or Rough Skin, in short, all the numerous diseases caused by bad blood, are conquered by this powerful, purifying and invigorating medicine.

If you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have sallow color of skin, or yellowish brown spots alternated with hot finshes, low spirits and gloomy forebodings, irregular appetite, and tongue conted, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or complaint? only part of these symptoms are experienced. As a feenedy for all such cases Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has no equal, as it effects perfect cures, leaving the liver strengthened and healthy. For the cure of H. blumal Constipation of the Bowels it is a never falling remedy, and those who have used it for this purpose are loud in its praise.

The proprietor offers $1,000 reward for a medicine that will equal it for the cure of all the diseases for which it is recommended.
