"She Loved Me." "The love of me," said Tom, "is the love of me."

"What, the tonic?" said Tom. "Too bad, I missed her." "But for your choice being already made," said mother, with a covert scrutiny of his face.

"I'm sure she would not have been so kind as to let me go," said Tom, with a twinkle in his eye. "After that mother's belief in Letty's guiltiness wavered, her suspicion was transferred from one to another of our acquaintances."

ing, or shall he not be allowed to have all? Shall his vocal exercises, like the ball in some States, be limited to the hours between sunrise and sunset? Shall there be a distinction between barking for the sake of barking in the way of business, as in the case of a watchdog? Then it may be questioned, in the application of this rule, should be limited to dogs, and not to men.

Useful and Suggestive. Sunshine. Secularism from sunshine is one of the fortresses of our civilized life. The same cause which makes the potato white and sickly when grown in dark cellars operated to produce the pale, sickly girls that are found in our nurseries. Exposure either to direct rays of the sun, and they begin to show color, health and strength.
