One more hour of negligence on the part of those in whose hands repose the destinies of the nation and we are lost: 'Yet a little while and ye shall not see me.' and emolument it confers. Ever since the door was thrown open, by competitive examination, for places under the India Board, in the army and in the civil service, our Colleges and Academies have entered on a career of rivalry with those of England and Scotland, in preparing their students: and in the two latest examinations, one for India appointments, the other for provisional commissions in the Royal Artillery, and for admission to the Royal Military Academy, Woolwich, Ireland has distanced all competitors. In the India appointments the triumph was great, but in the latter it was still more signal. Out of eleven successful candidates for commissions, six were from the University of Dublin; and of thirty for admission into the Woolwich Academy, seven are from Ireland. In the Commissions, has not only carried off the majority of the prizes, but one of her men was at the top of the list. Of the admissions into the Academy, the first was a student of Queen's College, Belfast, then came five from Old Trinity, and then one from the Catholic University.

Oxford used to beat the world for classics, and Cambridge for mathematics; but, in these examinations, Dublin has been superior to each on her own field. In the late, as in every war, Irishmen, when there as commanders or as soldiers, ave been among the foremost and best. As Statesmen, they have not been behind the natives of Britain, and in the paths of literature and elonence they have been unsurpassed. Now that here is a fair field opened, our educational insti utions will make themselves to be felt. While the National schools educate the masses, and the mod-el and training schools of the National Board, now ocated in the centre of all the provincial disricts, give a higher education and prepare teachers for the common schools, the Queen's Colleges at the extremities, North, South and West, afford opportunity for the highest education to those who aspire to it.

THE MAGEE COLLEGE LONDONDERRY.—Mrs. Magee was the widow of the Rev. William Magee, Presbyterian Minister of Lurgan. On the de-cease of her brothers, who resided in India, she became possessed of very large property, and not having any very near relatives, she devoted the greater portion of it to the promotion of religion, at home and abroad, in connection with the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church. She bequeathed £20.000 for the establishment of a College, which, while it should be under the Assembly and should provide a course of theological nstruction for its students, should be open to all its under-graduate course.

Obituary.

DIED—In the vicinity of Water Valley, Miss., on the 26th of August, Mr. Robert Barber, of bilious fever. The deceased was, for the last twenty years, an elder of the Presbyterian Church. In life, he was uniform and consistent, and his end was peace. He died in his 68th year.

DIED-In Carlisle. Pa., on the 3d ult., Mrs. MARGARET FLEMING, widow of James Fleming, deceased, and daughter of William Clark, deceased, having nearly completed her The life of this aged mother in Israel, had long been a quiet and unobtrusive testimony to the truth of Christian xperience, and the value of Christian consistency; and its close was calm and peaceful as a Summer's eve. She was waiting for her change. The force of a vigorous constitution was spent, and she is not, for God took her. She will long be remembered with affection, by surviving friends.

Dign:—In Baldwin Township, Allegheny County, Pa., July 25th, Mr. WM. WILLOT, in the 83d year of his age. The deceased was born in the State of Maryland, but re moved from it to the above named place, about the 30th year of his life—hence he lived about half a century in the community among whom his decease took place. In this comunity, he was favorably known, and highly respected expectations, and induced them to hope that it as an honest and upright citizen. He lived to a good old

> DIED On Sabbath, the 14th ult. at the house of Mr Henry Chalfant, in Wilkins Township, Allegheay County Pa., Miss Sinner Weekly, in the 74th year of her age. In youth, this excellent Christian lady consecrated herse to God, and made a public profession of her faith in the Gos pel of his Son, from which times to the close of life, she ex emplified the religion of Jesus in her daily walk and conver sation. She loved the house and people of God, and was ardently attached to the doctrines and policy of the Presby terian Church, which she well understood, and was forward in every good and benevolent work. She was gentle in her lisposition, sincere and ardent in her friendship. She was loved and highly respected by all who could appreciate real worth Her whole life was such as to warrant the confident hope, that she now dwells with her Saviour, at God's right hand in heaven, where are pleasures for evermore.

Dieb—At her residence, in Henderson Township. Huntingdon County, Pa., on the 7th of September, in the 59th year of her age, Mrs. Sarah, wife of Maj. James Porter. The deceased was a native of the county in which she lived and died. She was the eldest daughter of Robert and Jane Wray, born December 1st, 1796. In 1817 she connected herself with the Presbyterian church of Huntingdon, then under the pastoral care of the Rev. Mr. Johnston. In her were blended the brightest traits of Christian charactercharity, faithfulness, and resignation to the Divine will. Her pathway through life was oft hedged in by the thorns of affliction. By misfortunes and bereavements, she was called upon to add her testimony to the truth of the Scripture which saith, "For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of giory." Her amiable disposition won for her the affection and esteem of all around her. She loved the cause of her Redeemer, and adorned its doctrines by manifesting that she had a heart to sympathize in the sorrows of others, and a liberal hand to relieve distress to her utmost ability. Many will bless her memory, for her affectionate counsel and date their hopes for heaven from her words fitly spoker Her life was consistent, and her last said peace. We deplore her loss on earth; but our lamentations creak not in upon the songs of seraphs, which enwrap her hearing in ecstacy,

DIED—At his residence, in Pursley, near Sist raville, Tyler County, Va., on the evening of the 31st of August Mr. John Cornert, in the 74th year of his age. The deceased was a native of Ireland, and had been for a period of nearly fifty years a member in good standing of the Presbyterian Church, constant in his attendance till pr nesday in November, at 11 c'clock A. C-lumbians County, Ohio, in the 71st year of her ago, Mrs. Sarah Hamiron, consort of Mr Thomas Hamilton, Ruling Elder in the church of East Palestine. Sister Hamilton was born in Cecil County, Maryland June 3d. 1786. In the fourth or fifth year of her age, her parents removed to the vicinity of Pittsburgh, soon after which time, by death, she was bereft of both her parents and thrown, an orphan, upon the world. At an early period of her life, she became a hopeful subject of grace, and united herself with the Presbyterian church of Lebanon, under the mained a worthy member for upward of twenty years. In 1807, she was united in the bonds of matrimony to Mr. Thomas Hamilton, and in 1828, they moved to Ohio, and connecte themselves with the church of Pleasant Valley, under the pastoral care of Rev. Dr. Dilworth. When that church was divided, she was placed with the newly organized church of East Palestine, where she remained an ornament to the Christian Church and character, until the angel of death, released her from a life of toil and suffering; bid her enter that land where the weary are attrest

Sister Hamilton was unlike many of the present day. She loved the public as well as the private means of grace. Her seat in the sanctuary was selden vacant; and whenever duty called, she seemed ready to respond, either in person, The PRESRYTERY OF COSHOCTON stands adjourned, to meet in the church of East Hopewell, on the First Tuesday of October, at 20 clock P. Diep.—On the 23d of August, in the 46th year of her age. Mrs. Emzabeth Edmunson, wife of Levi Edmunson, of Elizabeth Township. The deceased had been, for more than twenty years, an emplary member of the Presbyterian Church; and as she suffered much from ill health and a feeble constitution, was a striking example of the power of the Christian religion to sustain and comfort the afflicted. Naturally nervous and timid, she could atways repose with confidence on the promises of her Redeemer; and those sufferings and dangers which filled her with alarm and fear, when viewed in the distance, she could always meet with composure, and bear with a meek resignation, at once astonishing and edifying to her friends. In her case, the premise was beautifully illus-trated, "As thy day is, so shall thy strength be." All the relations of life, as daughter, sister, wife, and mother, she filled with a faithfulness and affection which endeared her greatly to a large circle of friends, who now mourn her loss She has done her work, and entered into her rest, leaving the example of an upright and useful life, together with the seed planted, with a mother's care, in the minds of her children, already showing its influence in their opening characters, to exert their influence in the world, while she sleep in the grave; an influence which will never cease, and ca never be estimated until the end of time. Well may it be said of the righteous, "They cease from their labors, and their works do follow them."

Disp—At his residence, in Salem Township, Westmoreland County, Pa., on Sabbath, the 21st of September, Mr Davir Shayook, aged 65 years, and 3½ months: Mr. Shryock was born in Hagerstown, Md., in 1701, whence at the age of five years, he removed, with his father, to the farm on which he resided till his death. He was the youngest but one of ten brothers and sisters, six of whom still rvive. While spending the Summer of 1814, in the place of his nativity, news arrived there that the British army and burned the Capitol at Washington; and in less than thirty hours thereafter, he was one of a company of eighty men who had volunteered their services, and were on their march to the defence of Baltimore, where he was actively ouguged till after the enemy lett that point. In November 1815, he was married at Hagerstown, to Miss Sarah A. Wilson who still survives. In 1823, Mr. Shryock and wife connec hemselves with the Presbyterian church of Congruity, the under the pastoral care of the late Rev. Samuel Porter; in which connexion they continued until 1849, when they united with the newly organized church at New Salem. Though retired in his manners, and unostentations in his Christian profession, the influence of his Christian character was much felt: and at the altar of prayer, to which in faith and hope he led his family, and sought for them the blessings of the well-ordered Covenant, he seemed to be in earnes and had the satisfaction of seeing his children all member of the Presbyterian Church, and his youngest son in her ministry. Although the disease which prostrated him eight weeks before his death, deprived him almost entirely o the power of intelligible speech, and caused, at times creat suffering, yet his mind was tranquil, and he bore all with out a murmur, till finally he fell asleep, as we humbly trust, in the arms of that Saviour, in whom he had so long trusted.

Dieb—On Friday evening, Sept. 19th, at the residence of her grand-father, John Armstrong, Esq., Greensburg, Pa., Sarah Virginia, aged 3 years. 11 months, and 2 days, daugh-ter of John T. Shryock, of Pittsburgh.

DIED—In Baldwin Township. Allegheny County, Pa., Aug. 23d, Mr. Wh. Willson, in the 30th year of his age.

The deceased was a son of the late John Willson, who was eminent as a Ruling Elder in the church of Concord; the son possessing a membership in the same church. The subject of this brief notice was greatly esteemed by all who knew him. He made a profession of the religion of Christ in early life—a profession which he highly adorned. He has left a ife and two small children to mourn their loss. Their heavenly Father also took an infant from the embrace of the parents, a few weeks before the decease of the husband and father. The latter, we doubt not, has thus soon rejoined his dear child, in the mansions of heavenly classes a text book, which is sure to give sausinction, should use the New Carmina Sacra.

LEADERS OF CHOIRS, if they would always have on hand a supply of such music as is sure to satisfy the congregation, should obtain the New Carmina Sacra.

CLERGYMEN, who wish the choir to use a part of the time at Jeast, tunes in which the congregation can and will unite, should see that they are supplied with the New Carmina Sacia.

The Tail Session of this Institution will open on Wednesturer on Anatomy and Hygiene. Samuel Campbell, Assistant John McGausland. Teacher in Preparatory Department. The Fall Session of this Institution will open on Wednesday, the 29th of October. This Institution holds out peculiar inducements to young men seeking an education. The Board of Instructors is composed of gentlemen of high literary attainments, and skilled in their professions. The locat on is very healthy, having the pure mountain air, and free from all noxious vapors arising from stagaant water and marshy ground. Those subject to sque could not find a more desirable place. The temptations to vice, idleness, and dissipation are few. It is quiet and retired, and there is nothing to draw the mind of the student from his books. It is just such a situation that a young man desirous of improvement would seek. For those desiring to become teachers, a Normal Class will be formed, in which practical lessons will be given in the theory and practice of teaching. To this class, lectures will be given on the subject of teaching. The Societies are in a flourishing condition, and each has a fine library of choice works. The buildings are large and commodious, capable of accommodating some fifty students. An additional building is in the sums of creetion, and will be finished this fall. Shade Gap is situated on the mail route between Chambersburg and the Mount Union Station of the Penn ylvania Railroad

THE GOSPEL BY JOHN.—This is the third volume of a series on the Eyangell-tx. The following are a part of the many testimonies borne in favor of the former portions of the work:

"These volumes display in a very eminent degree the excellences which should appear in a condensed commentary on any portion of the Word of God. They embrace the marrow of all the best writers and Commentators on the Gospels. The labor which they must have cost is immense, and could only have been devoted by one whose heart was in the work. The Harmony of the Gospels, which is interwoven in the Notes, and the wonderful condensation of facts and expeditions, render both volumes extremely valuable."—Presb. Banner:

"For valuable condensation, and accuracy and safety of interpretation, we think it superior to Barnes, and would advice its use in our Bible Classes."—Christian Intelligencer.

"Admirably adapted to the Sabbath School, Bible Class, and Family, with this advantage of preceding works, that it has appropriated the results of the latest inquiries on various subjects connected with Biblical Literature."—Partian Recorder.

ous subjects connected with littleat Interature."—Puritan Recorder.

"The author, by his learning, taste, and skill, is eminently qualified for the responsible work of an aunotator on the Holy Scriptures. In his Notes, he combines the marrow and fatness of many commentators with his own ideas, and associates his comments with a Harmony of the Gospels, in a very impressive manner."—Zion's Herald.

"The Notes are evidently prepared with great care, and fally illustrate the text to the comprehension, we had almost said, of the least attentive reader. We regard these volumes as an important auxiliary to the study of the Gospels, and a valuable addition to our fiblical Literature designed for the masses."—Albany Argus.

From James Hamilton, D. D., London.—"I am especially delighted to find that you persevere with your Commentary From James Hamilton, D. D., London.—"I am especially delighted to find that you persevere with your Commentary on the New Testament; and from its admirable execution, I am not surprised, although very happy to learn, that the former volumes have gone through so many editions."

From N. L. Rice, D. D., St. Louis, Mo.—In my opinion, you are doing for the Church and the cause of truth, a very valuable service, in the preparation and publication of your Commentaries on the New Testament. They fill a place which it is most important to have filled. They are read by the members of Rible Classes, and by teachers, and by pupils in Sabbath Schools, because in them they find, in a few words, the exposition and information they are seeking; and for the same reason they will find a general circulation." tion."
