For the Presbyterian Banner and Advocate. The Ashmun Institute—Its Estimation by the Churches. OXFORD, Chester Co., Pa., June 18.

Mr. Editor:—The undersigned, having returned from a pleasant and profitable tour through Western Pennsylvania, and North Western Virginia, in behalf of the Ashmun Institute...

Subsequently, the subject was presented to nearly all our Presbyteries, and so far as heard from, they returned almost the same response, from every quarter of the Church...

After a residence of upward of five years in Northern Indiana, I can safely say, it has been the most delightful period of my life.

These are pleasing indications of the estimation in which the Institute is held, by those competent to judge of its value...

Very respectfully, JOHN P. CARTER, President Ashmun Institute.

Testimonial of Respect. From the Members of the Session of the First Presbyterian Church, of Piquette, Pa., on the occasion of the death of one of their members, Mr. Samuel Bowman.
