

Poetry.

Work. "Work while it is called to-day for the night cometh when no man can work." - SCOTTS. There is work to be done in this world of ours. This world of sorrow and sin; This work for the hands, with their wonderful powers, And work for the spirit within.

with God. It starts in the gracious and unchangeable purpose of the infinite Jehovah, choosing some to life, and constituting Jesus Christ the legal head of his people; it progresses onward in the mediatorial work of Jesus Christ, executing what he undertook in the behalf of those who were given him; it shines forth in the application of redemption by the ever blessed Spirit, in the successive steps of which Jesus Christ is of God made wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption, and life.

THE NEW ROCHELLE BLACKBERRY.

For the Presbyterian Banner and Advocate. The New Rochelle Blackberry. DEAR DOCTOR:—With your permission we wish to call the attention of your readers to a new fruit which by pomologists is justly regarded as the most valuable acquisition made to the list of fruits for many years.

Literary Notices.

BOOKS sent to us for Notice, will be duly attended to. These from publishers in Philadelphia, New York, &c., may be left at our office, or sent to the publishers. Chestnut, in care of Joseph M. Wilson, Esq.

Having occasion to travel in the North-Western part of this State, (Pennsylvania,) about the middle of February, while stopping at a town where the Lord had graciously revived his work, I overheard the following conversation between a landlord, a farmer, and a pleasure seeker.

DEAR DOCTOR:—With your permission we wish to call the attention of your readers to a new fruit which by pomologists is justly regarded as the most valuable acquisition made to the list of fruits for many years.

DEAR DOCTOR:—With your permission we wish to call the attention of your readers to a new fruit which by pomologists is justly regarded as the most valuable acquisition made to the list of fruits for many years.

DEAR DOCTOR:—With your permission we wish to call the attention of your readers to a new fruit which by pomologists is justly regarded as the most valuable acquisition made to the list of fruits for many years.

Justification.

But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption, and life, and peace, and glory, and honor, and immortality, and life everlasting. — 1 Cor. 1: 30, 31.

Justification.

But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption, and life, and peace, and glory, and honor, and immortality, and life everlasting. — 1 Cor. 1: 30, 31.

Justification.

But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption, and life, and peace, and glory, and honor, and immortality, and life everlasting. — 1 Cor. 1: 30, 31.

Justification.

But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption, and life, and peace, and glory, and honor, and immortality, and life everlasting. — 1 Cor. 1: 30, 31.

Justification.

But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption, and life, and peace, and glory, and honor, and immortality, and life everlasting. — 1 Cor. 1: 30, 31.

God told it, and it is silent about every thing else. "Now I see why the Bible should be what my teacher calls 'a book in little'; it is so important, that it is made little, to carry about, and easy to remember. Oh how hard to carry about, either in your head or your hand, thirty volumes of the Encyclopedia!"

DEAR DOCTOR:—With your permission we wish to call the attention of your readers to a new fruit which by pomologists is justly regarded as the most valuable acquisition made to the list of fruits for many years.

Justification.

But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption, and life, and peace, and glory, and honor, and immortality, and life everlasting. — 1 Cor. 1: 30, 31.

FROM CITY COMMERCIAL COLLEGE, PITTSBURGH, PENN. CHARTERED 1856. BOARD OF 12 TRUSTEES, 14 TEACHERS. EMPHATICALLY THE BUSINESS COLLEGE. LARGEST AND MOST COMPLETE COMMERCIAL COLLEGE IN THE WEST. In Daily Attendance upwards of 200 Students.

DEAR DOCTOR:—With your permission we wish to call the attention of your readers to a new fruit which by pomologists is justly regarded as the most valuable acquisition made to the list of fruits for many years.

Justification.

But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption, and life, and peace, and glory, and honor, and immortality, and life everlasting. — 1 Cor. 1: 30, 31.

For the Ladies.

Something Wrong in the Boot. "I am sure she means to slight me; six days has she been in town, and yet has never come to see us!" exclaimed Sophia, bursting into the room with a flushed face.

For the Young.

Why the Bible Don't Tell More. "Why don't the Bible tell more things, mother? It might, God knows so much." "What books are those on the lower shelves of the library?" asked Henry.

For the Young.

Why the Bible Don't Tell More. "Why don't the Bible tell more things, mother? It might, God knows so much." "What books are those on the lower shelves of the library?" asked Henry.

DEAR DOCTOR:—With your permission we wish to call the attention of your readers to a new fruit which by pomologists is justly regarded as the most valuable acquisition made to the list of fruits for many years.

DEAR DOCTOR:—With your permission we wish to call the attention of your readers to a new fruit which by pomologists is justly regarded as the most valuable acquisition made to the list of fruits for many years.

Justification.

But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption, and life, and peace, and glory, and honor, and immortality, and life everlasting. — 1 Cor. 1: 30, 31.

DEAR DOCTOR:—With your permission we wish to call the attention of your readers to a new fruit which by pomologists is justly regarded as the most valuable acquisition made to the list of fruits for many years.

DEAR DOCTOR:—With your permission we wish to call the attention of your readers to a new fruit which by pomologists is justly regarded as the most valuable acquisition made to the list of fruits for many years.

Justification.

But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption, and life, and peace, and glory, and honor, and immortality, and life everlasting. — 1 Cor. 1: 30, 31.