The Arabia, from Liverpool, March 6th, has arrived at New York. The members of Parliament who accepted seat n the Cabinet, have been re-elected, with but little opposition.

Mr. Disraeli has issued a circular to conserva tive members of the House of Commons, urging Dr. Livingston and party, were to sail, on their African expedition, on the day the Arabia sailed. The great matters of interest, just now, in foreign affairs, are the course to be adopted by the new Ministry in England, and the influence upon rement measures, in England, are likely to undergo but little change. Lord Derby seems to dergo but little change and policy of Lord Palmerston, though he has not pledged himself very strongly nor very definitely to the measures in dicated.

Parliament was in session on the 1st inst. The House of Commons, after the transaction f some formalities, adjourned to the 12th inst. In the House of Lords, the Earl of Derby read his inaugural ministerial speech, giving an in-sight into his intended policy. After stating the grounds upon which he had undertaken office, and the difficulties which beset him, he glanced at the state of the army with reference to the Indian war, and said there was yet a most respect-able numerical force remaining within the United Kingdom. He had no doubt that the exertions f Sir Colin Campbell, and of the troops under is command, would lead to a successful result, and when the mutiny was fully suppressed, would be the duty of the government to under-take the task of pacifying and tranquilizing the empire. He then referred to the Chinese war, nd expressed his satisfaction, notwithstanding he condemned the cause of the war, at the suc ess which had attended the British arms. He added, now that Canton had fallen, it would e the duty of the government to make, with the east possible delay, a safe and honorable peace, o that the commerce between the country and hina might be re-established. He then adverted to the relations of the government with France, and urged the necessity of remaining on friendly erms. He insisted on the importance to Franc and Europe of the Emperor's life, and indignant ly denounced the atrocious attempt to assassi

He made great allowance for the indignation isplayed by the French people; nevertheless e did not believe that the addresses from the French colonels gave a true representation of the feeling of the French army. With regard to the policy of the government, t was impossible, having been called to office uddenly, and not at the commencement of the ession, to bring forward any programme. On the subject of the government of India, he thought the time not opportune for any change, but in deference to the vote of the House of Com-

DIED-January 6th, 1858, Mr. WILLIAM WILson, aged 42 years, 11 months, and 26 days. This is the first time the writer has been called upon to record so many deaths in one family, in so short a time. Three times, within eight months, has death visited this afflicted household. Mr. Wilson has been called to mourn, first the loss of his wife, then his infant child, and lastly his brother, to whom he was greatly attached. But he "sorrows not, even as others, which have no hope." His loss was doubtless their gain. When death came, they sweetly fell asleep, as we trust, to wake up to a blessed immortality. Mrs. Wilson came with her husband and brother-in-law to Illinois, in September 1856. from Clifton, Green County, Ohio. It was there she first gave her heart to God, and herself to his service by profession, under the ministerial care of Rev. Moses Russell. She lived to adorn the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ, by a meek The PRESBYTERY OF STEUBENVILLE will meet at and holy life, and died in the triumphs of its

DIED-On Saturday morning, December 19th. 1857, JESSE KIRKPATRICK, aged 66 years, 5 months, and 28 days.

The deceased was born in Cumberland, now Perry County, Pa., June 21st, 1791. He connected himself with the Presbyterian Church at an early age. When the separation in that Church took place, he was found with the Old School . He was elected and ordained a Ruling Elder in that Church, which office he held, with much satisfaction to the Church, for about twenty seven years in the same congregation. He emigrated to the State of Illinois, in March, 1855, and settled in De Kalb County, where he connected himself with the Reformed Presbyterian church of Somonauk, in said county, in which congregation he was a consistent and beloved member, until he was called upon to join the Church triumphant,

It was the writer's privilege to be with him in close his eyes after death; and truly may we say, "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord, from henceforth; yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them."

L. CATON, ESQ., Turtic Creek, Pa.—Dear Fir:—You ask me to express my opinion of your School. If I could not conscientiously express a favorable one, I would frankly tell you so, and decline saying anything about it; for I am chary of compliments, and cannot violate truth in order to extend them. The man who commends an inferior school, at which the time of the pupils would be wasted, or spent to little profit, commits a social wrong; whilst he who calls descreat attention to a meritorious school, confers a social benefit. descried attention to a meritorious school, confers a social benefit.

I am, therefore, free to say, that with the locality, appointments and arrangements of your Academy, I was well satisfied. Your location is beautiful, healthful, and convenient; your buildings spacious, comfortable, and well adapted; your neighborhood intelligent, moral, and exempt from temptations for youth. I deemed your assistants capable, faithful, and dligent; the recitations I witnessed were highly creditable. And what impressed imes as peculiarly desirable, in a school for young gentlemen, was the delightful family organization, at once cheerful and orderly, which seemed to prevail. Any one could see that the pupils felt that they were in a pleasant, Christian Hoak, where both their education and their personal comfort were cared for, with parental kindness and wistom. Mrs. Caton has, in my opinion, rare, qualifications for the responsible position she occupies.

As my visits were wholly unexpected, I must have seen Cottage Hill Academy in its every day character.

Hoping that you may always enjoy the patronage which such a school ought to command, and that you may be very successful in training the youths committed to your care, for usefulness and happiness in earth and heaven, I remain, very respectfully yours,

Pastor First Presbyterian Caurch, Hollidaysburg.

MR. L. GATON, Cottage Hill Academy, Turtle Creek, Pa.:—

Dear Sir:—Having had my son at your Academy for some months past, I have been much gratified with the progress he has made in his studies, moral and intellectual culture, and in his general deportment.

I consider your School, in point of locality, management and instruction, as admirably adapted to the improvement of our youth, physically, morally, and intellectually.

From Hon. J. W. GEARY. Ex Governor of Kansas:
Mr. L. Caron:—Dear Sir:—It is nearly two years since my two sons have been uniter your tuition at "Cottage Hill Academy," and it now affords me much pleasure to offer you this testimental of my unqualified approbation for the faithful manner in which you have discharged the important duties devolving upon you—the moral and intellectual development of youthful minds.

The constant progress and visible improvement of my children, and all under your charge, is truly gratifying. Indeed, it seems a necessary consequence of your explanatory and demonstrative method of instruction.

The attention you and your very excellent Lady constantly give to the health, exercise, cleanliness, and general behaviour of the students under your care, is deserving of the highest commendation.

Your two assistants are gentlemen of excellent attainments, and in their vocation, the encomium is not too much when I say, they are "apt to teach."

I will continue my children with you, and influence my friends to send you as many students as possible, as I believe your Academy is the best Proparatory School in the country.

DOPULAR CHURCH MUSIC. OPULAR OHURCH MUSIC.

OVER 100,000 COPIES SOLD.

THE SACRED MELODIAN, containing a great variety of approved Church Music, selected chiefly from the old standard authors, with many original compositions on a NEW SYSTEM OF NOTATION—(alken's System)—designed for the use of Churches, Singing Schools, and Academies. By A. S. HAYDEN.

Two reasons will chiefly account for the great success of this volume:

First The Character of the Work. It presents a new and greatly impurped system of notation. In it much The Character of the work. It presents a more and greatly improved system of notation. In it much a select family board scene is so simplified, the month are made equal to years in the THE EIGHTEENTH SESSION of this Institution will commence MAY 3d, affording unsurpassed advantages for the moral, mental, and physical education of Boys, in an another than the street of the system and given the moral mental, and physical education of Boys, in an another transfer or the work.
