Sabbath School. This was not satisfactory to a minority in the M. E Sabbath School, and they resolved that they would hold an independent He nie, en the fith, not Sabbath School Celebration, and they set to work to get it up, and sought the influence of members of the Presbyterian church, and among the rest that of our pastor, who has no sympathy in worldly amusements, and in whose judgment we have every confidence; but as it was a matter connected with the inter ests of the church and Sabbath School, he was unwilling to give an answer until he had advised with the Session and Sabbath School Superin. tendent, that there might be the same perfect harmony among us on this point that there is on all other subjects. At that consultation it was unan imously resolved, that as a church and Sabhath School we could have nothing to do with this pio-nic; and that we could not, as conscientious men, and officers of the Church of God, encourage what are med to us to be a spirit of rebellion in an other church, (viz., what we supposed to be the minority endeavoring to circumvent the majority) Neither could we see the propriety of and eating, and giving the occasion the sanctity of a Sabbath School Celebration We believe in calling every thing by its right name. We were opposed to it because it was an effort to throw the garb of religion around what we considered a mere party of pleasure, over which we did not feel we could pray in our closets, and we could not see how the proposed method of spending the day could secure the glory of God, and the spiritual, intellectual, and physical good of those who might choose to go; and any one, without distinction of character, had the privilege to participate, under the general invitation.

We were opposed to this pic nic, because the conditions of participation were, that each should prepare for their own party or family according to their taste and means, (the rich in his abundance, and the poor in his poverty, ) and cat separately, remembering to prepare some more than they would need, lest some might be there with-out preparations. This we felt was cau-ing distinction and separation on the day when all should feel equality and union.

This is the bistory of that party who claim to have been the Sabbath School Celebration of Ta rentum, and who arrogate to themselves the title of "friends of the cause." You can easily judge of their disinterested friendship for the cane, by this brief history of their course, and their mis statement of the facts of the case.

These are some of the reasons why the Presbyterian Sabbath School, as such, was not represented there; neither Superintendent nor male teacher, nor a single class of our Sabbath School were among the party that spent the Fifth of July on the Camp Ground.

Some half dozen of our young people who went, went with the distinct understanding that it was not to be a Subbath School Celebration, but a regular pio nic. THE SESSION AND S. S SUPERINTENDENT

REV. D. M'KINNEY - Dear Sir :- I notice your last paper, some poetry, headed original; as the first line seemed familier, I read it through, and find it compares with some lines on page 286 of the "Shawm," as follows: The first two lines, in the first verse of each, are the same. The first and last three of the second verse, are the same The last three in the third verse of "A. E.," are the same, with the last three in the first warse in the "Shawm." The fourth verse of A. Locks, Safety, Philanthropy.

Our friend Woodbridge continues to jurnish us with BURGLAR PROOF LOCKS to sell at reduced prices, and apply the avails to Missionary purpuses, Sabbath Shaols, or the spread of a pure Gospel in any firm. All the commission we wish for selling them is the pleasure of thus promoting the cause we love. That the Locks cannot be picked, is a fact well established, the proprietor having, for several years, publicly offered $2,000 for picking. The present reduced prices ($3.50 to $5.00.) must make it an object for store-keepers and others to use them espe-cially those who love the cause of Missions. Call or send.

Church Furnishing.

The attention of our readers is requested to the card of Messrs. Doremus & Nixon, in our paper. They offer a large and well selected stock for spending the entire day in mere idle amusements | Church Furnishing, and from their long experience in their business, ample means, and high character as merchants, purchasers can rely upor being satisfactorily dealt with.

The United Railroad.

We, last week, noted the election of J. Edgar Thompson, E-q, President of the Pennsylvania Road, to the Presidency of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago, thereby uniting, practically, the two roads. Of this union, the New York Tribune savs :

Mr. Thompson will be at the head of the long-est existing railroad line in operation. The Penn-cylvania Railroad of which he is now President, and the Pitteburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Bailroad, of which he is President elect, which together constitute eight hundred and eighteen miles of railway, extending on the most direct practical route from Philadelphia to Chicago, and have together cost near $45,000,000. While the organization and financial affairs of the two Companies will, with the ex eption of the Presidency, be as beretofore distinct, the inducements for the selection of Mr. Thompson as head of both roads were ample, as well in his high character and experience as a railroad manager, as in the fact, that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company is the largest stockholder and bondholder in the Pitts-burgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, and as its natural ally, is most deeply interested in its success. The work of construction of the unfinished part of the Pittsburgh. Fort Wayne and Chicago Road west of Plymouth, is in rapid progress, and the grading and track laying so far advanced as to insure the opening of the road to Chicago by the 1st November next. At the same time that the line is opened from Chicago to Pittsburgh, it will also, by arrangement with the Cleveland, Columbus and Cincinnati Railroad Company, be opened as a through line, without change of cars. from Chicago to Cleveland, via Crestline, three hundred and fifty three miles, over a uniform gauge, of which two bundred and seventy eight les are part of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Road, and seventy five miles part of the Cleveland, Columbus and Cincinnati Road. When the revival of enterprise shall again set the etreams of commerce in motion, the Pitt burgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Road will be in condition to do its share of the traffic due to its position.

JULY 80 .- Official advices confirm the previously received intelligence that the Emperor of China has appointed an official, of satisfactory rank, to confer with the Peace Commissioners. This is regarded at Hong Kong as an important step toward an amicable arrangement of the difficulties between the contending parties. The railroad companies with whom the contract was made to carry the mails between Washington and New Orleans in four days, commencing with the present month, have not yet performed service within that time. This failue will doubtless en-gage the attention of the Postmaster General when he returns to Washington. It is caused partly by insufficiency of the means of transportation over about seventy miles of country beand Water Valley, on the Mississippi. The Falls City burst a cylinder head, thirty-five miles below Memphis, a few days since. The accident occurred near Austin, while the passen-gers were at dinner, who numbered about three nundred, and produced the greatest consternation. They all rushed out, and one person states that it required all his strength to prevent his being pushed overboard. One man did fall to the lower deck, but escaped with a sprained ankle. There were four of the crew blown overboard, or whom three were drowned, one, a little boy, who was employed in the cook house, was saved, but he died subsequently. Besides, seven of the crew were scalded, two of whom could not sur The little boy swam nearly half a mile,

DIED-In Hickory Township, Mercer County, Pa, on the morning of July 15th, Carrie Susis, twin daughter of E. T. and S. J. Fish, aged 3 years, 7 months, and 10 days.

"She is not dead, the child of our affection, But gone into that school Where she no longer needs our peor protection But Christ himself doth rule."

DIED-On the 22d ult., at West Newton, Pa., Mr. WILLIAM LINN, in the 66th year of his age. Mr. L. was among the oldest and most respectble citizens of the town in which he resided for about forty years. He was also for nearly the same period, a consistent and exemplary member of the Presbyterian Church. He died as he lived, cherishing an humble reliance upon the merits of Christ. He was a kind hushand, a tender father, a faithful friend, an obliging neighbor, and highly respected by all who knew him.

DIED-At Ottumwa, Iowa, July 17th, 1858, after a protracted illness, Miss Sarah Satter-FIELD DOUGLASS, daughter of Major Archibald A. Douglass, in the 19th year of her age. The deceased, with the family to which sh belonged, had left Mercer, Pa., only a little more than a year since, to seek a home in the West. Her tender age and amiable disposition afforded no security against disease and death. Though she had never publicly professed Christ, she gave pleasing evidence, in her last illness, of having become a new creature in Christ Jesus, to whom
