

THE PRESBYTERIAN BANNER AND ADVOCATE.

Poetry.

Not thine! not thine! in the glittering crest
And the glance of the snow-white plume—
Nor the badge that gleams from the warrior's breast.

Recent observations of the heavenly bodies, conducted step by step from the base to the summit of this sublime science, explaining as far as practicable, by figures and diagrams, all the celestial phenomena, and the laws to which they are subject, without entering into the mathematical details which properly belong only to those designed for those who study astronomy as their chief study.

Low, wet ground is unfavorable for the growth of roses, and if planted in such soils, without the aid of artificial draining, they soon become mossy and die away.
