THERE are now between twenty and thirty different patents for Sewing Machines, all clam-erous for popularity and patronage, but all using them agree in one point, viz. : that every machine yet made has some glaring defect. These defects being well exposed by the rival agents, it was not difficult for the maker of the "Finkle Ma-chine" (one recently introduced,) to profit by the mistakes of others, and give the public a simple, strong and effective article. This machine is an admitted improvement, adapted to a wider range of work than any other now made, being used for cloth, leather, and the lightest fabrics. J. L. Carnaghan & Co., Allegheny City, have entire

Many who have attempted to economise by buying an inferior article of merchandise, find themselves penny wise and pound foolish. In no thing, perhaps, is this more evident than in the article of clothing. The firm of J. L. Carnaghan & Co, Federal Street, Allegheny City, have been quite successful in the introduction of First-Class Clothing for Men and Boys, and those who are tired of poorly made garments may find it to their interest to try a well cut, well made, and truly tasteful article, such as is sold by this firm.

Another Case of Fever and Ague Cured A few days ago we recorded an astonishing oure of Fever and Ague by the use of Dr. M'-Lane's Liver Pills, prepared by Fleming Bros., Pittsburgh, Pa. We have now another to mention, viz. : that of Mr. James Sharpe, of Madisonburgh, who states that he had labored under a very severe attack of Ague and Fever, and was soon restored by the use of these Pills. Mr. Sharpe also expresses an opinion, founded on observation, that the Liver Pills are the best for bilious complaints ever offered in his section of Although long known as a sovereign remedy for chronic cases of Hepatic derangement, or diseases of the Liver, the proprietors, Fleming Bros., of Dr. M'Lane's Pills, were not prepared for the frequent, but gratifying evidences of its general utility and curative capacity. In this respect, this invaluable medicine has exceeded their most sanguine expectations, and induced them to hope that it will be introduced into every family in the United States.

Purchasers will be careful to ask for DR. M'-LANE'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS, manuactured by FLEMING BROS. of PITTSBURGH, PA. There are other Pills purporting to be Liver Pills, now before the public. Dr. M'Lane's genuine Liver Pills, also his celebrated Vermifuge, can now be had at all respectable drug stores. None genuine without the signature of FLEMING BROS. [87]

DIRD-In McVeytown, on the 10th inst., Miss CATHARINE McCox. DIED-On the 8th of March, at the residence of his mother, Mrs. E. Brokaw. in Belmont County, O., Samuel Brokaw, in the 20th year of his age.

He was mild and amiable in his life, and in the valley of death he went leaning on the arm of Jesus. His end was

DIED—At Johnstown, Cambria County, Pa., March 5th, Mrs. McMillen, aged 58 years. This aged mother united with the Presbyterian Church in very early life, and walked humbly and uprightly before God, giving forth a sweet and happy Christian influence wherever she dwelt; and her last days were full of peace. When it became apparent that God wanted her in the upper sanctuary, she expressed her entire willingness to go, and delighted much in the thought that God was with her. She calmly bid a last farewell to her friends, and joyfully fell asteep in Jesus.

DIED—Near Beallsville, Monroe County, O., March 25th, of typhold fever, WILLIAM, son of Joshua Amos, in the 24th year of his age.

The deceased was for three years past a member of the Prechyterian church of Beallsville. During that time, and long previous, he had endeared himself to all who knew him, by the amiability of his disposition, and his fidelity in every relation he sustained. In his death, this bereaved family has lost a son and brother who was kind, affectionate, and dutiful, and the Church a bright example of living plety. He was calm at the approach of death, assuring his friends that they need not sorrow for one whose hope i in Jesus. Though dead, his example still speaks to us. For a series of years he had found sweet comfort in the exercise of serret prayer. His service in the Church militant was short, but the Master hath called him to higher service in the Church triumphant.

DIED—At Johnstown, Pa., March 27th, Mrs. Howard J. Rossers, in the 28th year of her age. This young mother went to her home in heaven through a very severe and protracted illness, but through it all she gave us evidence of the sustaining and comforting power f the religion of Christ Jesus: She murmured not, but was patiently and cheerfully submissive to her Father's will, knowing that he does all things wisely righteously, and tenderly. Her life was in imitation of that Friend who has gone before, leaving the message, "Follow me." Her large circle of friends are therefore encouraged to say. 'Thy will be done."

Digp.—On March 6th, 1859, at the old homestead, in Clarion County, Pa., now the residence of her son, Culbertson Orr, Mrs. Margarer Orr, widow of the late Samuel C. Orr, Esq., in the 74th year of her age.

till her death. In the Spring of 1855, and the same Summer, she and her husband connected themselves with the Presbyterian church of New Rehoboth, then under the nastoral cars of Rev. R. McGarrah, and now under the pastoral care of Rev. J. Montgomery. Her plety was not obtrusive, nor forward, but retiring and diffident. She was most exemplary in her own life and conversation, and most successful in training up her children in the way they should go; and she had more comfort in her family an falls to the lot of most pious parents. She had the leasure of seeing all her children, ten in number, members of the Presbyterian church, and all married to pious persons, who are also members of this same church. Two of her sons entered the ministry, Rev. Prof. R. W. Orr, deceased, who was one of our first missionaries to China, and Rev. Franklin Orr, of the Presbytery of Saltsburg. Three Presbyterian Church; and nearly all her grand children, of suitable age, are members of this Church, and one of them is in the ministry of this Church. She realized, in her own experience, the truth of the promise, "Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old, he will not depart from it." She often expressed to the writer, the great comfort and satisfaction she had in the hope of meeting her whole family in heaven. She expressed to the writer, in the last interview he had with her, her comfortable hope the Cabinet were considering what course to adopt. He had an interview with the Queen, but nothing definite was resolved on an account. bors, and their works do follow them."

Drep—At Leroy, Pa., on the morning of November 22d, 1855, after a long and painful illness, Miss Mary Ann Malvira Parkhurst, in the 35th year of her age.

At the age of seventeen she gave her heart to the Savjour, and made a public profession of her faith in him. About seven years afterwards, she left the Methodist church and of her own accord, joined the Presbyterian church of Canton, Penn, of which the writer of this sketch was then pastor. By her consistent and exemplary deportment to the last, she gave abundant evidence of the genuineness of her piety. She was an invalid, most of the time, for the last sixteen years, and suffered much. But during her last illness, which lasted for some six months, her sufferings were often very severe. And yet Divine grace enabled her o bear these sore afflictions patiently and without murmuring. From the first, she felt sure this sickness would be her last, and she talked as calmly of dying as she would of visiting her friends. As the Bible had been for years her companion and counselor, and the hope of the Gospel her olace and support in all her afflictions, she faltered not to enter the dark valley and shadow of death. Her dying nessage to an absent brother and sister was, "I die with a good hope in my Saviour. Tell them to prepare to meet me in heaven." She also said, "There is a large family of us, and what a dreadful thing it would be if any of us should DINO—At his residence in Armstrong County, Pa., JOHN 3. GIBSON, on the 28d of January, in the 89th year of his The subject of this obituary was religiously trained from his youth. He made a profession of religion in the church of Ebenezer, in which he subsequently filled the office of Ruling Elder. He loved the house of God. He was apprized of the truth of Inspiration where we are informed "Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors." He was loved by all who knew him, and delighted in every good work. The ause of his death was a stroke which he received when feeding a threshing machine. The cylinder bursted, and part of it struck him, and cut a hole in his windpipe. He lived about four weeks after receiving this fatal injury, during which time he suffered greatly, with patience and great resignation to the will of God. When drawing near to death, he exhorted those around to seek preparation for ternity. He longed "to depart and be with Christ, which is far better." He leaves many friends to mourn his loss. Their loss, doubtless, is his unspeakable gain. J.V.M.

A PUMP, noticed citorially in the "Presbyterian" of the 12th of March, is a new and most novel invention, being a DOUBLE-ACTING PUWP, with but one piston, one bore, no guide rods, no pecking, and no suction. Patented February, 1869. It raises water in all depths to 150 feet by hand, and works easier than any other pump made; is simple, durable, cheap, and can be put in without going into the well, and warranted to give satisfaction. Prices from $18 upwards. Drawings and particulars sent free.

ARTIFICIAL TEETH
WITH PLATES OF PORCELAIN AND CORAL. WITH PLATES OF PORCELAIN AND CORAL.

DR. N. STEBBINS having opened a Dental Office at 191
Penn Street, is prepared to manufacture and insert Teeth of the above descriptions, and solicits an examination of their claims to public favor.

In introducing these new and improved styles of Dentistry to the citizens of Pitteburgh, Dr. S. feels assured of the same favorable reception which has been accorded to them in New York and other localities where they have been practically tested; and he furthermore believes that they are destined to supersede, is they excel, all other styles, in lightness, strength, heauty, and purity, and in every quality which render artificial teeth desirable, and are at the same time much less expensive. are at the same time much less expensive.

Dr. Stebbins will insert Gold Plate work in the best style for any who prefer it, and thuse making a trial of the new method, if not perfectly satisfied, may exchange for Gold Plate, by paying the difference. A Life of Mrs. Virginia Hale Hoffman, late of the Protestant Episcopal Mission to Western Africa. By Rev. Joc. D. Cummins, D.D., Rector of St. Peter's Church, Baltinore, with a portrait. 16mo. Cloth 75 cents.

This is a work that has long been needed. Bunyan's other great allegory has been the basis of a number of populer and useful volumes of lectures, but this is the first successful attempt to unfold the wonderful teachings of the successful attempt to unfold the wonderful teachings of the Holy War.

It is finely illustrated with

and will be found a book of rare interest.
Bunyan's sublime allegories have done more, perhaps, than any other uninspired books, to guide aright sinners to the Saviour, and strengthen the latte of God's people.

Though many volumes of lectures have been written by distinguished authors on the Pilgrim's Progress, this is the first instance we now remember of an attempt to explain and enforce the lessons suggested by the 'Holy War' The antibar has certaidly accomplished his task in a manner worthy of his great theme. The book is got up in handsome style, and must meet with a rapid demand.—New York Edungatist.

Etangetist.

Bold, striking, and original in its handling of the subject. It is a book that cannot fail to arrest the attention, and make a deep impression on the reader. It brings out the great work of salvation by the various tapes of trial suffering; and joy, so that a whole body of pactical theology is here discussed, and important truth presented, so as to instruct while it deeply interests the religious mind. It is a book for saint and sinner—for all who have souls to be lost or sayed.—Acw Eark Observe. OOK DO SAND YORK Observer, SHELDON & CO., (LATE SHELDON, BLAKEMAN & CO.,) 115 Nassau Stroet New York.
