For the Presbyterian Banner and Advocate. Presbytery, of Blairsville.

The Presbytery of Blairsville had a very pleasant meeting at Johnstown. The reports from the different congregations on the state of religion were very encouraging. They all speak of an means of grace. Prayer meetings are multiplied of the volumes of Waverly, issued so cheaply by and well attended, and in some of the congregations the elders have been exceedingly active and faithful, visiting and conversing personally on the subject of religion with every member of the congregation. The number received into the communion of the Church was not as great as last year, but largely excelling the average of many years part. In a word, all our churches are enjoying a large measure of peace and prosperity.

The action of Presbytery on the Overture from the General Assembly, with regard to the Demis sion of the Ministerial Office, is embodied in the following paper, which was adopted with entire unnnimity, and which I was directed to send to you for publication. "The Presbytery in answering this Overture in the negative, would hereby express their deep conviction, that no Church Court has any right or some startling developments. power to release a minister of the Gospel from his ordination vows, or to receive his Demission of the sacred office; that were their convictions otherwise, they would greatly doubt the wisdom of facilitating the retirement of men from the min istry at this time, when it is apprehended that in mineral coal and timber, having water powers young men are often unduly urged to enter our Theological Seminaries, without sufficient care to set before them the solemn nature of the vows $5 to $15 an acre. Persons desirous to emigrate, and life consecration involved in the ministerial office, for which they are urged and expected to prepare; and that there exists ample provision in our Book of Discipline for disposing of those who disregard their ordination vows." After the adjournment of Presbytery, a number of the members went up to the new village of Conemaugh, where the congregation of Johnstown, have just completed a very neat and commedious church edifice for the accommodation of the people residing in that neighborhood, and which was to be dedicated to the worship of God. The services were interesting, and were attended upon by a large and attentive audience. This is a new and promising enterprise, and shows what can and should be done by many of our congre-gations in the way of Church Extension. JAMES DAVIS, Stated Clerk.

A NEW EDITION, With an Introduction by the REV. HENRY A. BOARD-MAN, D.D. [From the Presbyterian Banner and Advocate.]
It is encouraging to see such a work make its appearance in a new edition. Earnest inquirers; youthful Christians, and aged believers, may read and study it with like profit. It has already lived a century, and it will live for centuries been forgotten.

[From the Presbyterian Witness, Cincinnati.]

This is one of those books, rich in practical and experimental Gospel truth, that wherever there are Christians, will be popular. It meets the cases of conscience, which trouble upright and humble Christians everywhere, and answers them in an "evangelical manner." It is fall of [From the Southern Presbyterian, Charleston.]

We know of no work in which the doubting discouraged, or wavering Ohris ian, would be likely to find so much that is adapted to his case, or so well suited to give peace and calmness to his mind. We would cordfully commend it to all professing Christians, believing that however firm their faith, or joyful their hope may be, there will be times when they feel the need of just such instructions as those contained in this volume.

HAVE JUST PUBLISHED: THE LIFE AND TIMES OF CAREY, MARSUMAN, & WARD. Including the HISTORY OF THE EBRAN-PORE MISSION. By John Clark Marshman. 2 vols. 8vo. Price $5.00.

[From the New York Observer.] "Sheldon & Co. have just published a book of great interest to all the friends of Missione It is the Life and Times of Carey, Marchman & Ward, embracing the History of the Seram fore Mission, by John Clark Marchman, in two volumes, octavo. This book carries the reader over the most important and trying times of the great moral movement in the Bast; reviews the lives and labors of most eminent men who have contributed to its progress; and thus draws the picture of one of the great dramas in the world's history. It is to be studied with profound attention by the Christian philosoper, and the philanthropist, while every Christian will peruss it with gratitude and joy. Infidelity may ignore or despise the work of missions, but here we have the proof of what has been done, and may be done, to elevate mankind by the simple power of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. These volumes ought to be added to every religious library, and made familiar to the whole community"

THE FAMILY DOCTOR: CONTAINING IN PLAIN LANGUAGE, FREE FROM MEDICAL TERMS,

THE PROPER TREATMENT OF THE SIOK. ILLUSTRATED.

The book is written in a plain, easy, and familiar style, adapted expressly to family and individual use. It advocates no particular theory of medicine, but draws alike from the Flowers of the Field, the Plants of the Garden, or the Minerals of Earth, for such Remedies as have proved the most simple, safe, and effectual, belleving that wherever disease has found a foothold, there the Giver of all Good has, in some form, mercifully placed a Specific. Neither does it profess to supersode the physician, but only to avoid the necessity and expense of calling him in except in dangerous cases. It is in fact a ph. sician itself, always at hand and ready to serve you. Its simple receipts may save you many times its cost in a few mouths, while at some critical moment, when your regular practitioner is not at hand, it may preserve your own life or that of some member of your family, or others equally near and dear. 12mo.
