Pike's Peak Gold.

The accounts from Pike's Peak are so contra dictory, that there is no knowing what the truth is. At one time it is reported as all a humbug, and that people are starving, having neither bread nor gold. Again the account comes of wondrous discoveries. Probably the following embraces some truth:

Sr. Louis, July 7.—Mr. McCoy, who left Denver City on the 24th ult., informs a St. Joseph's paper, that there are only eight of the ten claims yet discovered that pay like those on the Gregory lead. All the rest are deserted. The reports of found apparent relief, of a severe headache, from the richness of the other claims are absolutely which I had long suffered, and I believe they false. Miners were leaving in large numbers, and some three thousand wagons are now on the return trip. Mr. McCoy estimates that there are and head.

The Great Balloon Voyage.

The great Balloon excursion from St. Louis for the Atlantic coast, came off on the first of July, almost according to the programme. The party did not quite succeed in reaching the Atlantic coast, but landed on the shores of Lake Ontario. in Jefferson County, N. Y. A dispatch dated St. Louis, July 1st, says: "The first grand experimental air voyage to the seaboard took place from Washington Square, this evening, Professors Wise, Lamountain and Gager having made a successful ascension in the mammoth balloon "Atlantic." At 6:40 P. M., the inflation of the Balloon was finished, and the voyage was commenced. William Hyde, reporter of the Republican, accom-

The supply of gas was, small, consequently the balloon did not reach an altitude above the storm. The vessel was immediately headed for shore. When the storm was highest, the vessel was only about thirty feet above the level of the Lake. We reached land in a few seconds, in the town of Henderson, Jefferson County, with all hands on board. The Eleventh Session of this Institution, which is located in the pleasant village of Withinsburg, seven miles distant from the city of Pittsburgh, via Fennsylvania Radiroad, will commence on MUNDAY, August 1st.

It is the design of the Trustees and Principal to make this Academy, in all respects, a first-cless Institution, for the thorough instruction of those entreated to their care; preparing boung synthemen for the Junior Class of our Colleges, and Indies for the capior Class of our best Seminaries. SPFCIAL ATTENTION is given to those preparing to teach. Connected with the Academy are two Literary Foctities, under the immediate core of the Principal, sflording ever lient opportunities to the students for declaration and discussion. The beauty of the introduction of the 10th abit and the Mikiusburg a very desirable location.

RAUNS HIGH SCHOOL, March 1, 1858.

"We have used Loomis' Physiology in our school, and cheorfully recommend it as a work of real merit. Its arrangement is superior, and the author, has anticipated the wants of the school room. He has done much to draw the attention of teachers to the importance of the study, and the general adoption of his treatise, as a text-book in our schools, would be an advance in the work of Education.

Jacobus, D.D., Professor of Orienta and Biblical Literature and Exessis in the Western Theological Seminary, Allegheny, Pa., (Preshyterian, author of "Notes on the Gospels," &c. Author of Notes on the Gospels, "at language a valuable id in Biblical study, discussing important points with horoughness and clearness, opening difficult terms and assayes, and esting forth in the true light certain great rinciples of interpretation about which many are in the ark. I shall be glad to direct the attention of our students t as a reliable and excellent Manual in this department.

from the Rev. T. V. Moore, D.D., Richmond, Va., author of the sole Commentary on "The Prophets of the Restors tion." I have for a number of years been familiar with the critical writings of Professor Rairbairn, and I regard him as one of the finest exceptical writers now living. He combines Sectiah good sense and German erudition to a very remarkable degree Hence he has precisely the training that would enable him to give a fresh and suggestive work on Hermoneutics. Such a work I consider his Manual to be. Without going into any todions detail, it presents the points that are important to a student. There is a breadth of view, a clearness and manliness of thought, and a ripeness of elarning, that make the work one of pseuliar freshness and interest. I consider it a very valuable addition to every student's library.
