Sabbath observance is deeply interwoven with the whole history not only of Philadelphis, but also of the State. Ite sanctity was recognized by Wm. Penn in the body of laws passed at Cnester in 1682; and ever since, the saored character of the day has been protec ted by statute law Frequent have been the at tempts made to evade the penalties attached to a violation of this law, and various are the pretences that have been put forth. The great ples, in the present instance, is a desire to give the poor, conflaed to the city and their employments during the week, an opportunity of visiting the coun try, and lubaling the pure and healthful breezes. But the shallowness of this pretext is evident from of a pleasant and well written address, delivered the fact, that these very companies, so anxious for the enjoyment and health of the poor, are now working their drivers and conductors from seventeen to eighteen hours every day, during six days of the week, and will do so on the other day, if their present aims can be accomplished.

On Sabbath week the cars were stopped on custody, the Company consenting to cease running their cars on Sabbath, until this particular case was settled. Previous to this, the Mayor had given notice that he would en orce the ordinance, if any of the cars should be run. The driver arrested, declined to give bail. On Friday its rich pages. Markets.

PITTSBURGH, Tuesday, July 26. .We have but little change to note. The flour market has stiffened somewhat since our last. It has declined everywhere else except in Cincinnati, where it is held more firmly. The Pittsburgh Gazette, one of the most reliable commercial papers in the city states that the Pearl Mill, ih Allegheay City, is just now actively employed in making flour from new wheat, obtained in the South and West. Its receipts are now averaging 2500 bushels wheat a day, and it is turning out from 500 to 600 bbls. of flour a day, for which it finds a very ready market, and could sell mu h more than it has the present capacity to make. In addition to the sales made at this mill, and the other local mills, our dealers are selling from 600 to 1200 bbls, a day, the average being about 1000; We cite these facts to show the activity of the flour market at this usually dull sesson. At this time last year, the sales did not average more than 400 bbis a day. The present activity shows that we are supplying a lorge district of country which heretofore has been elling to instead of buying of us There is one feature of the wheat market, this season, which is worthy of being kept in steady remembrance. and that is, that the wheat is the best we have had for many years. Its weight runs from 64 to 64 lbs. to the measured bushel, which is, of itself, an addition of at least one tenth to the bulk of the crop. The Money Market is gradually becoming more stringent.

COMMENTS OF THE LONDON PRESS.

The Daily News affirms that the just hope and she was hever head to utter a murmuring word. She expectations of Italy are deceived. It adds: viewed her affiction as sent by her Heavenly Father. and History will call the Emperor to a strict account | designed for her spiritual benefit. Her patience was truly for having made war on false pretensions and signed a mock and selfish peace — a peace that leaves Austria impregnably fortified in Northern departant be with Christ, bore testimout to the blessed Italy ; that connects Central Italy to the patron-age of the Pope and to the constant menace of ing the Christian "joyful in tribulation" and of amosthing patrons and protectors; that takes no account of care about the things of time, and was enabled by faith to ie welfare of the people, and substitutes for Na look through every thing that intervened between her tional Independence a Confederation under lock. waiting spirit and her happy home. "She longed to be and key of Austrian garrisons. The Emperor there's Her swiable disposition, and her unobtrusive and of France has sown the seeds of future wars, and the closer we examine the pretended pacifi-cation, the more futile and iniquitous it sppears." The Morning Post contends that the soul of the Freaty agreed upon is the Nationality guaranteed under every variety of local Government in a Confederation of the Italian States. The Em peror of Austria is to be King of Venetia, solely as an internal member of the Confederation; he will rule less than three millions Italians, and will be controlled by a Confederation ruling not less than twenty six millions. The Pope is shorn vir tually of his temporal supremacy ; he is deprived of the substance, but keeps the shadow.

The Times says that Venice must hope that her ndependence will not be a mere name, and that the influence of France and Austria united will not he more unbearable than that of Austria singly. The Romans must hope that the Italian Confederacy under the honorary Presidency of the Pope, will be nothing like any Government they have hitherto known. The Papal States are left as they were, but with a master somewhat greater than before ; he is the honorary Presi dent of the Italian Confederation, and General Guyon holds the sword at his side. The King of Naples is made a member of the Confederation and has to learn the worth of that honor and its import. Europe has to welcome a new power-
