The Irish Appeal.

NEW YORK September, 1859. Dear Brethren: The undersigned ask ur attention to the following statement merica. The population of freland is now about millions, of which four millions are man Catholic. The Protestants of the and are mainly confined to Ulater, and Roman Catholics mainly to Leinster, inster, and Connaught

The missions to the Roman Catholics oc py many districts to the South and West, the whole province of Connaught d. to illustrate their success, we merely that, in a district where ten years ago ere were only six mission stations, there now forty two.

As one result of the present glorious re val now in progress in Ireland, wide and ectual doors are open to the Roman Cath e population, and from many Papal dists there is a cry for help to assist in ceting these daily increasing demands. e General Assembly appeals, through its putation, to the Churches of America aid. Protestants in America should be much interested in Protestant missions to man Catholics as Protestants in Ireland. d we respectfully, but urgently, solicit ir assistance to aid the Presbyterian nrch in its noble efforts to give the Gos to the entire Roman Catholic population frelund.

Ve hope, if you are not called upon by member of the Deputation for your tribution, you will send to the Treasurer, mes Stuart, Esq , 33 Nassau Street, New vk, or to George H Stuart, Esq, 13 n you to give.

> Insurrection at Harper's Ferry. The United States Armory at this place was taken possession of last Sabbath evening, by a number of white men and negroes, under the command of a Captain Brown, who claims to be the Captain Brown who figured so conspicuously in Kansas. The railroad trains were fired into and stopped, several prominent citizens were seized, and one or two shot in the streets.

> Troops were speedily sent from Baltimore and other places, who attacked the armory successfully and routed the rioters. Reports say that some sixteen, in all, have been slain. The negroes and others engaged with them, are said to have been encouraged by Brown to believe that a general rising of the slaves throughout Maryland, would take place. Brown is mortally wounded. and his son has been killed.

Camels. Some three or four years ago, the War Department imported a number of camels, for use in transporting supplies to the military stations, on our Southern border, between Texas and California. They are serving an admirable purpose. Superintendent Beale, writing to the Secretary

I have lately tried effectually the comparative value of mules and camels as pack animals. The experiment leaves the palm with the camels. MORAL PHILOSOPHY: Including Theoretical and Practical Bihics. By Joseph Haven. D. D., late Professor of Moral and Intellectual Philosophy in Amherat College; author of "Mental Philosophy." Royal 12mo. Cloth, $1.25. stier of mencal Philosophy." Royal 12mo. Cloth, $1.25.

The high reputation gained by Prof. Haven, in his "Mental Philosophy," will be increased and confirmed by the new work on "Moral Philosophy," It is eminently scientific in method, and thorough in discussion, and its views on unsettled questions in morals are discriminating and sound. It treats largely of Political Ethics, a department of morals of great importance to american youth, but generally overlooked in text books. In the history of ethical opinions it is unusually rich and elsborate. Instructors in Seminaries and folloges will find it an excellent text book, greatly superior to most of the manuals now in use.

MENTAL PHILOSOPHY: Including the Intellect, the Sensibilities, and the Will By Joseph Haven, D II., lat Professor of Intellectual and Moral Philosophy, Amhers College. Royal 12mo. $1.50. Cloth embossed. College. Moyal 12mo, $1.50. Cloth embossed.

This work has been commended by many of the best educators in our country, as superior to any other text book in use in our Colleges. It combines many advantages. It treats of the whole mind, instead of a single class of faculties, and gives a careful analysis of all its powers. It is strictly scientific in its method. It gives the latest results of the science, and the history and literature of each topic discussed. "It is distinguished by a complete and exhausting division, lucid arrangement, and a style at once concise and clear, simple and elegant." -N. A. Review. "This work of Prof. Haven is, on the whole, quite the most successful effort yet made in this department"—Princeton Review. "If others judge as favorably as we of Prof. Haven's work it will become the text book, in Mental Philosophy for colleges and higher seminaries of learning"—Christian Review.

The sale of two editions of this great work, in less than six months after its publication in this country, is a testimony to its high value, and to the American taste or detaphysical study. It is admitted by general consent to be the ablest and most taorough discussion of the problems of Mental Philosophy accessible to american students, and it has already been adopted as a text book in some of our bast colleges. THE PURITANE; or, The Court, Church and Parliament of England, during the reign of Edward Sixth and Elizabeth. By Samuel Hopkins. S v le., o-tavo. Vol. I.

It will be found the most interesting and reliable History of the Puritsus yet published, narrating in dramatic style many facts hitherto unknown. It will be welcomed by all who feel an interest in their Puritan ancestry. BRITISH NOVELISTS AND THEIR STYLES. Being a Critical Skatch of the History of British Proce Fiction. By David Masson, M. A., author of "Life and Times of Milton." 16mo. Cloth, 75 cents. Milton." 16mo. Cloth, 75 cents.

This charming volume will find its way to many American homes, and win for its author a place by the side of the masters of English fiction, of whom he discourses so pleasantly. It is entertaining and instructive, indicating a large acquaintance with the works of British Novelists, and a sharp discornment of their merits and their faults. English Reviews speak of it with unqualified commendation, as one of the most genial and entertaining books of the day.

A BOSE WHO HAVE LOST TEEVH

will be glad to learn that they may now have them replaced by artificial sets, which are for all purposes of mas tication and articulation in no way inferior to natural Teeth.
These qualities, which have so long been sought for in the dental art, have been attained by the employment of P. reslain and Coral, or Vulcanite, as a base. The difficulty hitherto has been that lightness could not be secured without sacrifices of strength; both of these desirable qualities are combined in the new material.

Gold and all other metallic plate for the insertion of artificial teeth must soon fall into disuse altogether, since the Coralite and Porcelain work proves itself vastly superior.
It is more elegant and cleanly, free from corrosion and all metallic taste, very pleasant to wear in the mouth, and less expensive. PERSONS AT A DISTANCE, in want of testh, will find
