Foreign Intelligence.

The steamship Africa which left Liverpool on the 12th inst., arrived at New York on the 25th inst., bringing news from Europe four days later than our last. We take the following summary from the Philadelphia North American: The conference at Zurich had been brought o a close, the three treaties already announce ving been formally signed. A reduction of 2,000,000 francs is reported to have been made in the sum to be paid by France to Austria. With regard to the projected congress, Sir G. C. Lewis, speaking of the English ministry, at the Lord Mayor's banquet, stated that no proposition had been made to England on the subject, but when made, it would be met with a demand for Italian independence as a preliminary condition. The regency of Tuscany having been tendered to the Prince of Carignano, the King of Sardinia and the Emperor of the French, through the Moniteur, had expressed their dissatisfaction with the project. The war between Spain and Morocco was likely to proceed, notwithstanding a mo-mentary rumor of the willingness of the Moors to recede. A late dispatch describes them as preparing to attack Ceuta. Mr. Ward, the American Minister to China, had gone to Japan, where also a large and menacing fleet of Russian menof-war was concentrating. In China, the Emper-or was preparing a fortified camp near Pekin, and getting ready to go to Tartary.

Later. PORTLAND, Me., November 29.—The steamship Bohemian, from Liverpool on the 16th inst, arrived at this port to night, with four days later Prince Carignano has declined the regency of Central Italy, and it had been accepted by Chevalier Buonicompagnnie. No announcement has been yet made regarding desiness men, and all kinds of workers in the approaching Congress of Powers. An English Minister must have something much more consistent upon the subject of the Duchies than the statement in Count Walewski's circular, before he would be justified in committing his country to any part in the Con-gress for the settlement of the Italian difficulties." New Harrisburg, Carroll County, O. Dr. J. R. Speer--A Deserved Compliment. The "Gazette" pays the following deserved com-liment to the professional ability of Dr. J. R. Speer, one of our most widely known and respected citizens. t says:-Dr. J. R. Speer, Oculist, corner of Penn and Wayne Streets, in this city, has been universally recognized by the citizens of this region for a period of twentyfive years, as a professional gentleman of most eminent skill and enlarged practical experience in that branch of surgery which has as its special object the treatment of the Eye. Having made this branch of his profession the great purpose of his life, his chief study, he may be supposed to have attained to as thorough a knowledge of this the mos elicate of all our organs, and the best and most successful modes of treatment, as any gentleman in the profession. Numerous cases have come to our knowledge, where the ifflicted owe to his consummate skill the unappreciable blessing of a restoration to sight. This notice, it is proper to say, is entirely voluntary on our part, from a convictio hat it is due to the afflicted to point out to them a source rom whence relief can be obtained—if skill, experience and thorough acquaintance with the delicate organization of the eye are any guarantee of success in treatment. Dr. Speer has several highly important cases under treatment at present.

DIED—November 11th, of croup, Edward, son of Rev. J. 2. and Fanny C. Fulton, aged 2 years and 11 months. DIED—In Fannettsburg, Pa., on the 19th inst., Mr. George ELLOTT, in the 76th year of his age. For about half a century Mr. Elliott had been a member of the Presbyterian Church, and for many years had disharged the duties of Ruling Elder in the Lower Path Valley church. He was distinguished for an humble, exemplary, and consistent Christian walk and conversa tion. As he drew near the end of his earthly pilgrimage, ne seemed to grow in faith and hope, and in meetness for he inheritance of the saints in light. Calmly, without truggle or a groan, he fell asleep in Jesus.

Dieb—Near the Burnt Cabins, in Huntingdon County Pa., on the 24th inst., Mr. David Cree, in the 72d year of his age. Mr. Cree had been a consistent member of the Presbyt ian Church for many years, and was much estremed as citizen of the community in which he lived. He was no unprepared for death, and though much lamented by argerircle of friends, they sorrow not as those with tope. Their loss is no doubt his eternal gain.

Dien-October 12th, of typhoid fever, ANN ELIZA FARIS, ged 18 years and a few months.

About six weeks previous to her death, she followed to his grave her infant brother; and though in good health had then a premonition that she would be the next to be laid beside that little brother—and true it was. She was a hopeful subject of the revival in the church of Mansfield, luring the past Winter, and was received to the full cor runion of the church. "Precious in the sight of the Lord s the death of his saints."

DIED—On Monday, October 24th, after a protracted Heas, Mrs. Catharing, wife of Mr. Daniel Weller, in the 55th year of her age. The deceased was for more than twenty years a member of Chariters Presbyterian church. During the last years of her life, she was a great sufferer, but bore her afflictions with patience and resignation to the will of God. And her friends now have the comforting hope that their loss is her eternal gain, and that she has entered upon the rest that maineth for the people of God, in a world where "there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain." She has left a large family to mourn her loss, having been followed to the grave by all her twelve children, in the order of their ages. W.E.

Disp-In Cumberland, O., October 9th, THOMAS BAY. He was for many years a member of the Presbyteria church of this place. He was a native of Washington Co., Pa., and was born and baptized in the church of Cross Roads. He was about seventy-eight years old. Early in his life his parents moved to this State, and were among the first who founded the Presbyterian church here. Early n years the deceased embraced the religion of our Lerd eaus Christ, and was, through life, a devoted and consiste Christian. He was also a generous and hospitable Christian. His house was called the "minister's home." Cheerfully did he entertain the Master's servants for the Master's sake. He loved God's people and ministers. Having spe etter than fifty years in the service of Jesus Christ, h as gone, we trust, to enjoy his immediate presence "How blest the righteous when he dies."

J.R.D Disp—At Parker's Landing, in Armstrong County, Pa., on the Sist of October, 1859, Wilson, son of Thomas M. and M. G. Parker, aged 3 years, 8 months, and 6 days.

The writer of this has but very recently become quainted with these parents, and this interesting little son with whom they have been called to part; but this quaintance has been long enough to endear them very reatly to him. Wilson is the third child that God ha aken from them, and all of them under six years of age and as I have looked at their graves as they appear side b side in the cemetery of Ebenezer congregation, and the tear of sympathy has seemed to flow unbidden, I could not but view them, clothed with the perfect robes of Christ's perject rightenuaness, and bearing their appropriate part in he anthem of praise, "Unto him that loved us and vashed us from sin in his own blood."

DIED—At the residence of Mr. John Ewer, in Allegheny lity, Pa., whither he had repaired for his health, Mr. John B. Robe, in the 28th year of his age. Mr. Robb was the son of William and Margaret Robb formerly of Robinson Run congregation. He removed with bis parents to Oskaloosa, Iowa, but in the mysterious provdence of God, was taken back to the region of his nativity to die. He graduated at Jefferson College in the Summer of 1857; studied law in Iowa City, Iowa, under George Clarke & Bros., Esqrs., had been admitted to the bar in that place, and was just commencing a career of usefula moment, as it were, death claimed him as his victim. He was born and reared in the Associate Reformed Church; and, though he deferred making a public profes sion of the Christian religion, yet it was evident that the great truths of that religion had been indelibly impressed upon his mind. Before his death he professed these truths again and again before many witnesses, looked to Jesus Christ as the "way, the truth, and the life," and at last yielded up his life to Him who gave it, indulging, we think, a rational hope of going to dwell with Christ, "which is "Let the living consider and prepare to Publishers and Booksellers, NO. 25 SOUTH-SIXTH STREET, ABOVE CHESTNUT, Will Shortly Publish: EDITH'S MINISTRY. By Harriet B. McKeever, authoro "Sunshine," "The Flounced Robe," etc.; etc. 12mo., gl..

Aware of the folly which leads certain weak minds to attach a degree of odium to the life of a lingle woman, the writer of this volume has endeavored to depict a character purified and ennobled by early trials, not unusual or exaggerated; a character which has its counterpart around us, purned and emotion by early stranger around us, in many a happy home.

She has endeavored to show that although denied by Providence those natural ties, so sweet when hallowed by true piety, she may still gather around her a circle of loving hearts, who reverence her name and rejoice in the smallight which she everywhere creates:

Let our sister Ediths and Aunt Marys learn that there is no need of lap-dogs and pet cats, to engross their affections, when there are so many orphaned, helpless, or ignorant children around them; let them also learn that there is no time for pewishness or discontent, while so many need their affectionate services. If they would keep their hearts green, their spirits young and joyous, let them mingle freely with youth, ministering to their happiness, soothing their troubles, and directing their young steps; if they would be saved from gloomy discontent, let them frequent the homes of the poor and suffering, sand they will learn there lessons of holy gratitude, which will make them welcome in every household, as the blessed bestowers of rich stores of human happiness.—[From their face.] LINDSAY & BLAKISTON also publish, by the same SUNSHINE; or, Kate Vinton. In one volume, 16mo. THE FLOUNCED ROBE, and What it Cost. 16mo. Price 75 cents. Trice 7b cents.

These excellent, instructive, and highly entertaining volumes, have received the most favorable notices from the Press, throughout the country, and are justly becoming popular.

THE PACIFIC EXPOSITOR. The power of the Press is beyond all calculation. Eternity only can reveal its influence upon mankind. All sacts and denominations, all schools, oreeds, and parties, understand the necessity of using the Press to propagate and defend their opinions and measures. They all have their organs, from the daily sheet to the stately quarterly.

It is not our wish, however, to interfere by this publication, with any other, but to supply what seems to us to be a special and pressing want on this coast. It is believed there is no portion of our whole continent, where a work of this kind is so much needed as in California. In proportion to the number of inhabitants, there is here more mind and more capability of reading, and more need of reading of the right kind, than in any other part of the globe.

The PACIFIC EXPOSITOR is to be devoted to the exposition of God's Word, and the preaching of the Gospel. The power of the Press is beyond all calculation. Eternit The PACIFIC EXPOSITOR is to be devoted to the exposition of God's Word, and the presching of the Gospel, according to the Standards of our Church. We wish to do by the Press, for our fellow-citizens, just what we do for Calvary congregation every Sabbath; that is, to expound, explain and presch to them the Word of the Living God. We would, if possible, furnish sermons to be read on the Lord's day, in the lonely place of our valleysand mountains, where there is no pastor or evangelist to open his mouth and show the way of salvation; and into the erowded village of miners, farmiers, and travellers, where as yet there is no house of worship, we desire to send the Expositor, to open to them the Scriptures, and preach unto them Jesus. It is well known that a large number of the half million of souls that are on this coast, do not attend any church or meeting house; many thousands of them never hear a sermon preached from year to year. We would furnish them with such reading as would remind them of their early training—the home of their youth—and cause them to seek and serve the God of their fathers, with a perfect heart and a willing mind. We hope to embody in our pages sterling truths; truths calculated to enlighten the mind, elevate the heart, and purify the affections; truths drawn chiefly from the Word of God, and presented in a plain, olear and forcible style, that they may be suitable for all classes, and be read by all the members of a family. We hope to make the Expositors a missionary, that may preach even where the colporteur and the evangelist do not go.

Our own time and brain-toil are cheerfully given to the our own time and brain-toil are cheerfully given to the

Our own time and brain-toil are cheerfully given to the work, for the sake of trying to preach in this way, from the Press, especially to those who are not within the sound of the voice of the living preacher. The editor and publisher do not propose to make money by the work. They desire only such aid from their fellow-citizens as will meet the expenses of publication. Not one dollar of the subscriptions will be appropriated to the editor's private use. All that is subscribed beyond the actual cost, will be spent in extending the circulation of the work among our miners, cattle-drivers, farmers, sailors and travelers. The Expostroa will be issued every month, at three dollars per annum, in advance. It will make an octavo volume of over six hundred pages. It is very neatly printed, and on good paper. The postage prepaid to any part of the United States is one cant for each number. Gold dollars, or three dollar pieces, or drafts on the San Francisco Express Companies, can be sent at our risk, by mail. Four numbers have been issued: The work can be furnished to subscribers from the beginning.

To my friends and the Christians of "the blessed old States," I would say, that though California is making them rich, we are poor, and in building up Christian inettrations, we need not only your prayers and sympathy, but we need your contributions. As a missionary agency, it is difficult to see how you can do as much by three dollars in any other way, as you can do by subscribing for this work. By means of the Post Office, you can send it to preach to amount to see now you can do as much by three dollars in any other way, as you can do by subscribing for this work. By means of the Post Office, you can send it to preach to thousands, that have been taught to read, but do not attend church, and indeed have none to go to.

As Ministers, elders, church officers and others, who are friendly to this work, are invited to act as agents in pro-curing subscribers. A liberal commission will be allowed. Life is short. The night cometh soon, when no man can work. Let us work while the day lasts. Will you help?

CHRISTIAN INTELLIGENCER, NEW YORK. CHRISTIAN INTELIGENCER, NEW YORK.

J. W. Bradley, No. 48 North Fourth Street, Philadelphia, has issued a handsomely illustrated edition of the works of this celebrated writer, comprised in two octave volumes, bound in one. It is needless to comment now upon the productions of an author whose name is synonymous with the best religious classic in our language; but, beyond an acquaintance with the "Pligring's Progress," few readers have studied Bunyan enough to discover his real greatness as an instructor in the important department of experimental theology. The work now before us will enable all to familiarise their minds with the various and approved productions of Bunyan's pen.

Mr. Bradley has done the cause of religion and morality good service for the tasteful manner in which he has reproduced the works of this good man in one complete, substantial, reliable, and yet cheap volume. A striking feature of the work is the correct and profuse manner in which it is illustrated. These plates greatly assist the reader in his study of the charactors before him; and give better conception of the intention and meanings of the author. We most cheerfully commend the book to ercybody who desires to have a complete copy of the entire works of Bunyan in his or her possession. It is well printed, on fine paper, swpor royal octavo, and may be had of the publisher; handsomely bound in cloth, at $3 per copy. S. JOURNAL AND STATESMAN, WILMINGTON, DEL. CHRISTIAN OBSERVER.

This is a large and valuable book for the family library-

NEW YORK CHRONICLE. The present edition is profusely illustrated with engravings, and must become a standard book. NEW YORK EVANGELIST. Mr. J. W. Bradley, the indefatigable publisher of Philip Mr. J. W. Bradley, the indefatigable publisher of Philadelphia, has issued a new edition of BUNYAN'S WORKS, in one large and handsome octave volume. It contains the immortal allegories, "Pilgrim's Progress" and "The Holy War," and his sermons and miscellancous writings. It is very fully illustriated. Ever welcome to us is this spiritual dreamer, with his delicate fancies, and his heart so rich in experience of Divine things, his eye so keen and observant of the subtleties of temptation, of all the snares of the adversary, and yet so quick to recognize the manifold mercles of the Lord. If a man were shut up to read but one book beside the Bible, we know not of a better one than this. Bunyan had not the leavning of men, but he had what was far better—a profound knowledge of the human heart and of the Gospei of Christ, taught by many sore temptations and by his own experience of pardon and peace. One may learn from him as much of human nature and of Divine truth as from any uninspired writer.

CHRISTIAN SECRETARY, HARTFORD, CONN. The publisher has but rendered a tribute of deserved praise to "the immortal Tinker of Bedford," in publishing his entire works in a single and elegant volume. It conhis entire works in a single and elegant volume. It contains 766 imperial octavo pages, is copiously illustrated with steel and wood engravings, and is beautifully printed and bound. Bunyan's writings are avfamiliar to the Christian world as household words, and need not a single word in their praise. The splendid volume before us will make a good library of itself to the young or aged Christian, as it is filled with the pure truths of the Gospel, and embraces all the important subjects contained in the Bible.

New York Independent.

It is profusely illustrated; but the chief value of the edition lies in the fact that it enables one to turn readily to whatever has been preserved of the Bedford Tinker.
