The Contemplated Southern Convention.

The Legislature of South Carolina, a few weeks ago, passed resolutions and forwarded them to all the slaveholding States, requesting the appointment of Commissioners to a Convention to arrange for a division of the Union, on the occurring of certain contingencies.

The Legislature of Mississippi has responded affirmatively. That of Virginia regarded the proposed measure as unconstitutional, and declined action. In Maryland the proposition was any statement of the action of the representatives per, communications commendatory of the Hown in other States, except in Taxas. There Gar in other States, except in Texas. There, Gov. Houston sent in the communication, accompanied proposed measure. The following resolutions

Section 1. Be it Resolved, by the Legislature of the State of Texas, that we do not concur in the opinion with the Legislature of South Carolina, that any such alarming exigency exists in our national affairs, as to justify the revolutionary action recommended by them to their sister slaveholding States; nor do we assent to the doctrine of secession, by one or more States, from our national confederacy, as a constitutional right. Resolved. That this Legislature is firmly attached to the Union of these States, in order to participate in the glory and prosperity of which Texas surrendered her national existence, and that we go for it as one and indivisible, now and forever, as our Revolutionary fathers framed it. Resolved. That this Legislature beholds, in the proposed seession of the Southern slaveholding States, or any one of them, from their sister States—as in the dissolution of our glorious Union-no remedy for any alleged evils, real or imaginary, but a great aggravation of them all, and contemplate that deplorable event as the parent of other calamities, far transcending in Railroad. magnitude and fatal consequences any now pend-

Resolved. That, as far as depends upon us, we will stand by, support, and uphold the Union against all attacks, from without or within, and we will stand by, support, and uphold the Union against all attacks, from without or within, and against all ultraisms, whether at the North or the South.

Resolved, Therefore, that we respectfully, but most emphatically, decline to participate in, or in any way sanction the proposed meeting of the slaveholding States, for the purposes indicated by the Legislature of South Carolina.

Resolved, That his Excellency the Governor be requested to communicate this preamble and resolutions to each of our sister States, with the expression of our carnest hope that they will all unite with us, in cultivating brotherly feeling, observing justice, and obeying the Constitution and laws of the United States.

Disunion movements are evidently unconstitutional, and tend to treason. The indications are, that they are growing into disfavor throughout the land; and the day may come, when, to be engaged in a Southern Convention, for such as 1838

Bank Notes Almost the only currency we find now, in Pittsburgh, is Missouri bank notes. The constitution of view. of Missouri limits the number of banks to ten in the State. Legislators have interpreted this to mean ten " parent " banks, and they have authorised those parent banks to establish some thirty lowing are extracts from the Queen's speech: or forty branches. These branches, many of them, are in retired parts of the State, where they are difficult of access, in order to demand specie. The parent banks make a large portion of their notes payable at these branches. A result is, that the branch notes are at a heavy discount, even in St. Louis; and not being readily convertible into gold, they are sent off as currency. England continued to attract attention and spec ulation. The Constitutionnel publishes several articles of the treaty, as the following: On and after July 1st, the import duties on cotton and wool will be suppressed English coal and coke will be subject to the same duties as in Belgium. After October next, a duty of two francs will be substituted for the actual duty on iron. From December, duties on machinery will be diminished. From January, 1861, the sugar duty will be educed. From January, 1861, prohibitions of the importations of thread and hemp will be replaced by a duty not exceeding thirty per cent. and from October, 1861, all remaining prohibi-tions will be abolished. The advantages granted o France will be stated shortly. Some French ournals report that the duty on French wines mported into England, will be 2d per bottle, and s 9d per gallon; that silk will be admitted free. This valuable and standard Magazine, established by the lamented a. J. Downing in 1846, begins a new volume with the January number Its extended and valuable correspondence, presenting the experience of the most intelligent cultivators in America, has made it eagerly sought after by those interested in the progress of Gardening and Rural Taste.

To all persons alive to the improvement of their garden, orchards, or country seats—to scientific and practical cultivators of the soil—to nurserymen and commercial gardenes, this Journal giving the latest discoveries and improvements, experiments and acquisitions in Herticulture, and those branches of knowledge connected with it, will be found invaluable.

The Editorial Department is at present in charge of Mr. PETER B. MEAD, a gentlemen well known as a practical Horticulturist, and who will receive assistance and cooperation from the best Horticultural talent in all parts of the country divided. May the graze of God comfort and sustain their sorely afflicted parents, and may they be finally brought to join them in the kingdom of God on high, in singing the song of redeeming love.

Jackson:—Dear Sir:—I feel it a pleasure unus of my own accord, to bear testimony to the excellence of the "German Bitters," Some years since, being much sifficted with dyspeptis, I used them with very beneficial results. I have often recommended them to persons enfeebled by that tormenting disease, and have heard from them the most flattering testimonials as to their great value. In cases of general debility, I believe it to be a tonic that cannot be surpassed.

Dandruff.

Boston, October 30, 1859.

Boston, October 30, 1859.

Gentlemen:—I have used your Cocoains about six weeks, and its effect is so marked and extraordinary that I deem it my duty to state it to you.

My worst complaint for several years has been Dandruff, with itching and irritation of the scalp. After brashing my bair, my coat collar would be covered with the white scales, (dandruff) which looked like a shower of snow.

My Darber tried verious applications without effect. His abuse of your Cocoains, and his obstinate refusal to use it, provoked me to procure and try it.

I have used less than a bottle. The dandruff, and the irritation which caused it, have entirely disappeared, and my hair was never before in so good condition.

Your obedient servant,

Burnett's Cocoaine. The following testimonial is conclusive of its efficacy Baldness.

Baidness.

Bosrow, November 24, 1859.

Gentlemen:—When I first used your Cocosine, I had been baid seven years. In the meantime I had tried a dozen different preparatio a, specially recommended for baldness, (and all claiming to be infallible,) without any beneficial effect.

The ladies of my household urged me to try your Cocosine, which I did to please them, not having, myself, any faith in the power of man to restone my hair. I have used the contents of one bottle, and my baid pate is covered all over with young hair, about three eighths of an inch long, which appears strong and healthy, and determined to grow.

In a word, your Cocosine is excellent—the best preparation for the bair I have ever known, and the only one which accompliches more than it promises

NEW. ERAIN SEWING During the last fourteen years some four hundred patents have been granted on inventions designed to lighten the drudgerv of family sewing, and at the same time to produce a machine that could be profitably used for manufacturing purposes; but, strange to say, out of this large number of Sewing Machines only ome half dozen have been proven to be of practical value; and of this small number not one has in it combined the advantages of a family and manufacturing machine. There are large, heavy, noisy, cumbrous, and complicated machines, designed for heavy work, that answer the purpose very well; while there are others of light mechanism and delicate adjustments, which perform on light work to advantage; and while the former are exclusively confined to heavy work, the latter are of little value except on light fabrics. Therefore I take great pleasure in stading the important fact that Mr. How E, the original inventor of Sewing Machines, has recently perfected his Shuttle Machine so as to combine, in a much smaller space and with far less machinery, the strength and durability of the macufacturing machines, and at the same time possessing that delicacy of movement and ease of operation peculiar to the family machine, and which renders this the only machine in market cipable of working EQUALLY WELL THE LIGHTEST AND HEAVIEST FABBICS, and is the refore designed for MACHINESI
