Seasonable Hints. A cotemporary gives the following advice for those whom it may concern: To THE Boys .- Never marry a girl who is fond of running to night meetingswho has a jewelled hand and an empty er learned grammar, or was unaccustomed to the etiquette of the drawing room-who is always complaining that she cannot get money enough to dress like Miss So-andso, or go to parties like Such-a-one, who wears her shoes slipshod or has a hole in her stockings and is too lazy to mend it. Should you get such a one depend upon it, you will have a dirty, untidy, miserable home and life of it. You will be kept poor all your life. But the kind, affectionate, tidy girl who helps her mother, is always ready and anxious to accomodate mother, father, brothers and sisters; who is kind to W. M.
