

New Advertisements. Sewing Machines, Madocenes, &c.—E. H. Hastings, Esq.—Newbury Close.

Hon. S. F. Wilson, M. C., left for Washington on Monday, to enter upon the discharge of his duties.

Rev. Thos. B. Hudson will preach at the Methodist Church Saturday, Dec. 2, at 2 P. M., and Sabbath morning and evening, following.

We are requested to announce that owing to professional engagements, Dr. Jackson, advertised to lecture in this place Friday evening, cannot be then present.

All those interested in the subject of Music are requested to meet at the Presbyterian Church, Friday evening, Dec. 8, for the purpose of organizing a Singing School.

Families willing to take students of the Academy to board, and parties having rooms to let for self board, will confer a favor by reporting to Mr. J. A. Allen, the Principal.

The usual Sunday morning services of St. Paul's Episcopal Church will be held by the late Rev. Mr. when the pulpit is otherwise vacant, while he remains in the place. The night services will be discontinued on Thursday, Dec. 7th, (Thanksgiving Day) Divine services and a sermon may be expected at 10 o'clock A. M.

THE RADIATOR COAL STOVE, which never gets red-hot, yet gives off the greatest amount of heat of any stove in use, may be seen in operation at Bullard's Saloon, and ordered at Gunn & Tucker.

TOP-TOP BUCKWHEAT.—Mr. A. Russell, proprietor of the flouring mill lately opened by Messrs. Wright & Bailey, has brought us a sack of the handsomest buckwheat flour we have seen. It is as white as wheat, and as nice as the finest. If Mr. Russell does such work as this he will not fail of patronage.

SPRING BALANCES.—So many people ask for these indispensable necessities in a well regulated household, that we can do no better than to re-advise them to call at Messrs. Gunn & Tucker's new Hardware Store, where they can be procured. In fact, their stock of shelf hardware is complete, and far ahead of anything ever offered in this village.

THE FARMINGTON well is pumping at 650 feet, with better promise than ever.

The Westfield Well is down 420 feet, the depths giving off a strong odor of petroleum. A good vein of gas and a small show of oil were found at 381 feet. The parties here great faith in ultimate success.

The work at Jacob's Well will be resumed by Mr. Schaffelin in a few days. The suspension is caused by relaying the bits and jars. The last roof was slate, underlying 18 feet of light grey sandstone.

The Salt Lick Creek well is going down slowly. We have no details.

Quite an excitement about petroleum is said to be prevailing at the well going down at Alba, Bradford county.

Paraffine is reported as found at the Berker Well, Ocoala.

CHANGES OF RESIDENCE.—Mr. & Mrs. J. D. Mch-kits have removed to Bath, N. Y., where they are to have charge of the Orphan Asylum founded by Tom. I. Davenport. Our readers are familiar with the charitable labors of Mrs. Hotchkiss, who has labored for four years past so entirely identified with the great work of the Sanitary Commission in this county.

While we regret to lose so reliable a worker in the cause, we congratulate the little folks who are to be under her kindly care in having secured a friend and fast friend.

Among other changes of residence we mention Jas. I. Jackson, Esq., who has removed to a new residence at Lincoln, Del. From what we are able to learn of the enterprise, it offers unusual advantages of climate, market, and soil.

Jas. Lowrey, Esq., for many years one of the first lawyers of the Tioga Co. Bar, has removed to Burlington, N. J.

Rev. P. Reynolds, (Baptist) who has been doing missionary work in Charleston and Delaware for the last two years, has accepted a call from the Baptist Church at Ransomville, Niagara Co., N. Y. Mr. Reynolds takes with him the best wishes of a host of friends, and while we regret to lose him, we congratulate him upon having entered a field of less exciting labor.

Capt. Res G. Richards is about to remove to Ohio, where he is to engage in business. Success attend him.

BAKE FALLURE.—The City Bank of Trenton, N. J., has failed. We have seen a number of these notes in circulation in this section. They are now worthless, and persons should be on their guard against them.—Eureka Advertiser.

Rev. J. D. Bell, who located at the late session of the East Georgia Conference, has bought a new paper establishment at Milford, Worcester Co., Mass., and will act as editor and publisher at that place hereafter. Few able writers are to be found in or out of the church. We wish him great success.—Northwestern Independent, Auburn, N. Y.

This, and the 4 prizes mentioned, together with the 20 prizes of the Merit Book, will be awarded in this occasion. The exercises will be conducted by good music.

MARRIED. In Fall Brook, 22d inst., by Rev. J. P. Thomas, of Ohio, Capt. REES G. RICHARDS, of Charleston, and Miss KITTIE C. REES, of Fall Brook.

May they no sorrow ever know, No blighted hopes, no woe; And may they choose the narrow way That leads to everlasting day. J. P. T.

We congratulate the Captain upon his enlistment under the banner of St. Benedict. A little while ago he was a prisoner of war, subsisting on corn meal and hopes of escape. He is now the willing captive of the sworn foe of disunion, and, judging by the contents of the nice box sent this deponent, subsisting on the fat of the land. Bon voyage! z.d.]
