

Wellsboro, Wednesday, Dec. 20, 1865

New Advertisements. Auditor's Notice—J. B. Niles. Geo. Wagner's Card. J. B. Shapen's Card. Joseph Masley's Card.

A MERRY CHRISTMAS to you all, with plenty of eat, warm clothes and fires, a foot of snow, and the remembrance of the poor!

Several communications have to go over again this week. One, on Butter, is good enough to keep a year, but we still wanted it to appear this week.

THE OIL HUSTLER.—Work is resumed at "Jack's Well" near this borough, and a depth of 660 feet has been reached. The bit has passed through a mass of compact sand and slate since the resumption.

THANKSGIVING.—This holiday was pretty well observed in this vicinity. Rev. J. F. Calkins preached a very able and interesting sermon in the Methodist Church—a discourse peculiarly adapted to the occasion.

"BIG CALF"—A correspondent at Mainburg writes us that Mr. L. D. Seelye, of that place, last week killed a calf, 5 months and 25 days old, which weighed 1050 lbs.

THE WINTER TERM of the Academy begins Wednesday last, with flattering prospects. The Principal is one of the most energetic and enthusiastic of educators, and must succeed where earnestness and high character are appreciated.

FIREMAN'S FESTIVAL.—A Festival for the benefit of the "Wellsboro Fire Company" will be held in the Court House Friday, Jan. 12, 1866.

WESTWARD HO!—Our much esteemed forgerman, Mr. JOHN C. ROOR, who, boy and man, has been in the "Agitator" Office for nine years, left for Kansas last Friday.

PLEASE REDEM.—We are not particularly disgusted with the man who, a week ago, paid his indebtedness to us in part with a One Dollar note on the "Egg Harbor Bank."

CHRISTMAS.—Mr. Hugh Young's new column advertisement is unavoidably crowded out of our next issue. Mr. Y., has a splendid stock of Christmas Goods on hand.

Mr. P. Williams has a splendid stock of Toys, Glycerine and cutlery, suitable for gifts during the Holidays.

A correspondent sends the following: NEW HOTEL.—Mr. L. Cummings is putting up a new hotel. The first story is up, and the work is rapidly progressing.

IN PROSPECT.—Dr. Elliott is making arrangements for putting up a fine brick fire-proof building for a drug and bookstore in the spring.

NEW FIRM.—Prof. White has entered into partnership with W. Lang under the title of Lang & White. This new firm intend keeping a good stock of Drugs, Paints and Oils.

DOXATION.—Mr. Hugh Young, the enterprising Book Dealer and Post Master of Wellsboro, has donated to the Normal Literary Society of the State Normal School seven nicely bound volumes of the "Pennsylvania School Journal."

GRADUATING.—The building in process of erection for a gymnasium for the State Normal School is now completed, and furnished with an excellent apparatus for both heavy and light gymnastics.

NEWS SCHOOL.—The first term of this year of this institution has just closed. There have been in attendance 250 different pupils.

A series of lessons are being given to the school in the "Lighter gymnastics," by a graduate from Dr. Dio Lewis's Institute at Boston.

Several families have purchased books and notes in the borough for the purpose of moving here, and educating their sons and daughters.

A NEW MACHINE.—"Beadle's"—has been sent us by the Publishers, Messrs. Beadle & Co., New York. There is room for just such a monthly as this, which contains much first-rate light reading, some solid, and good wood-cuts.

A correspondent writes the following: ERROR AGITATOR.—Sir: During the Winter season cattle are often troubled by having chaff in their eyes.

Having just returned from New York I make this as my report as to the Market, &c.

According to the judgment of most merchants, goods are now about as cheap as they will be this fall.

I found that a large portion of my stock could not be replaced at as low prices as I am now selling them.

HOSTETTER'S—CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.—Read E. D. N. SOUTHWORTH'S LETTER. Prospect Cottage, Georgetown, D. C., April 2, 1865.

Messrs. HOSTETTER & SMITH: Gentlemen—It gives me pleasure to add my testimonial to that of others in favor of your excellent preparation. Several years of residence on the banks of a Southern river, and of close application to literary work, had so thoroughly exhausted my nervous system and undermined my health, and had become a martyr to dyspepsia and nervous headache, recurring at short intervals, and defying all known medicines in the Materia Medica.

I had come to the conclusion that nothing but a total change of residence and pursuits would restore my health, when a friend recommended Hostetter's Bitters. I procured a bottle as an experiment; it required but one bottle to convince me that I had found the right combination of remedies. The relief it afforded me has been complete. It is now some years since I tried Hostetter's Bitters, and it is but just to say that I found the preparation all that it claims to be. It is a Standard Family Cordial with it, and even as a stimulant I found it better than anything else; but we use it in all bilious and dyspeptic cases from fever down to ague. If what I have now said will lead any dyspeptic invalid to a sure remedy, I shall have done some good.

I remain, gentlemen, respectfully yours, Nov. 22, 1865-1a. E. D. N. SOUTHWORTH.

A CARD TO INVALIDS. A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the Cure of Nervous Weakness, Early Decay, Diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have been already cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, free of charge.

Please inclose a post-paid envelope, addressed to yourself. Address, JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City. April 1, 1865-ly.
