gg- We regret to say that owing to the unusual press of legal advertisements we are forced to put over most of the news items prepared for this week, togeth-er with several advertisements. Our friends must be as patient as may be. None of them can guess how great and exhausting the labor incident to the change

Mr. & Mrs. Shaw return their thanks to their friends in Wellsboro and vicinity for the pleasant visit on the evenings of the third and fourth. Also for the liberal donation of $130.

BUSINESS CHANGE.-Messrs. Borst and Seagers have disposed of their meat market to Mr. William Roberts who will bereafter carry on the business. We wish him success.

The Harrisburg TELEGRAPH is almost indispensable to those who would have a full record of the proceedings of the Legislature. It is a live paper, and deserves the patronage of

READY FOR WORK.—The Cheese-box factory of Avery and Whitney, East Charleston, got up steam New Year's night and whistled the Old year out. The concern is now, about to go into operation. Good for Charleston, and good for the County.

The New Year Greeting on first page was written by Mr. G. W. Sears, our townsman. We regard it as a very meritorious poem, and think our readers will agree with us.

FIREMAN'S FESTIVAL.-T'ie Wellsboro Fire Company hold their annual Festival at the Court House on Friday, evening, 12th inst. We hope the pleasure seeking public will patron. ize the Festival generously. The Rompany deerves to be encouraged.

Loss of LUMBER.—The Clinton RE-PUBLICAN says that the recent ice freshet in the West Branch carried out from fifteen to seventy five millions of logs from the attenue above. It thinks that the actual total loss to lumbermen will not be less than 30,000,000 feet. This flood is said to be the most destructive ever experienced on the West Branch.

CASUALTY.—As Mr. HORACE M'CON-RELL was descending the hill toward the Round-Top schoolhouse, Charleston, with a load of shingle on the let inst., the wagon slewed around on the ice, upset, and buried him under the load. He received severe injuries, but is expected to re-

THE CHEAPEST AND BEST PAPER IN America-all things considered, -is. undoubtedly the New York Weekly Tribune. The Club form. ing at the Post Office is not yet full. If you want the full proceedings of Congress and all the News of the day, leave your name and $1,50 at this Office, or at the Post Office immediately.

CORRECTION. - In publishing notice of the death of Mr. David Davis two weeks ago, a few lines followed the notice which were not intended to be printed there, by Mr. Edwards. The fault was the compositor's, chiefly, How ever, we see nothing unpleasant in the addendum.

A splendid tone 5 octave Melodeon can be beught of Lang & White for $75.

We have received a copy of a neat little paper published by the "Pratt Boys," Corning, N. Y. called the Counting Star. It is that spiritual home, where she rests in peace for published neatly at the rate bf. 25 cents per annum, and shows a great deal of taste as well as commendable enterprise and filent. The STAR has 300 subscribers, and enters upon its 4th volume with the year. We are glad to see that there ed in a most destructive ice flood in the West Branch of the Susquehanns, A telegram from Williamsport to Philadelphia states that from sixty to seventy million feet of pine logs, valued at a million of dollars had passed that place within twenty-four hours. It is said to have been the heaviest ice freshet ever sustained by our lumbermen.

DANCING SCHOOL.-Mr. J. P. URELL, of Brooklin, N. Y. will open a Dancing School in Roy's Hall, in this village, Monday evening, Jan. 15. Mr. Urell is reported a proficient in the art of teaching dancing and deportment, and guarantees a thorough knowledge of all the fashionable dances, such as the " Lanciers," "Caledonia" and "Prince Imperial "Quadrilles He gives 16 lessons for $5, for one pupil: two from one family $9. Three, $12. Gentleman and

Lady 89. He refers to Mesars. B. H. Borden, C. H. Seymour, W. T. Urell, Ira Wells, and H. H. Goodrich, Tiora, and to Mesers H. Young, P. R. Williams, and B. B. Hollday, of Wellsboro, Full particulars may be obtained of Mr. R. L. Vanhorn. We certainly hope our young folks may improve this opportunity to go ! a good knowledge of stiquette.

RE-UNION MASS MEETING -The officers and soldiers from Tioga County, who served | ced better than other articles. in the war for the suppression of treason, will hold a grand Mass Meeting at the Court House in Wellsboro, Thursday, Jan. 18th instact, commencing at 62 clock P. M.

Speeches may be expected from Hons. H. W. Williams, and L. P. Williston, who are especially invited for the occasion. Gen. R. C. Cox. will preside.

In the evening a social relunion dance will be held in the Court House. Wetmore's Quadrille Band will furnish the Music. I

Tickets for dance $1 .- to be had at the Book store and at the hotels. Supper ticket single, $1 admit Gent and Lady,$1,50; To be had only at the hotels.

All surplus funds will be appropriated toward erecting a county Monument to the memory of the brave men who periched in the late war. A cordial invitation is extended to all who have honorable served their country, to the ladies of the aid Societies, and to all true patrets: Come.

$100 to $150-at Lang & White's.

Does it Pay to Advertise?-Look at our new advertisements of business men in Corning N. Y. and tell us what you think about it. PARSONS, who tried a half column last year, orders a column this year. Everybody says that he knows how to sell goods. "Regulator" Gof orders a column, and E. E. Robinson. Book-

Smith and Waite have spoken for more space also; and they know how to buy and sell goods so as to " live and let live," also. 'At home, Hugh Young, our wide awake Book seller, insists on a full column. He intends to build up a permanent, paying business, and seller and Stationer, does likewise. And these are also men of repute for thrift in business we predict that he will succeed. So we set off this January with at least five columns of new advertisements. This is due to our large circulation - a circulation which for universality in the County will net be beaten by any of our cotemporaries. No Canvasser has ever been employed to get these subscribers. They are generally, subscribers " of their own motion." Such a circulation tells its own story, and wa shall expect advertisers to make a note of it.

NEW YEAR.—The Presbyterian Sunday school held a festival in the lecture room of the Church New Year night, at which the acholers, through Judge Williams, presented Rev. Mr. CALKINS with a beautiful silver water pitcher-The gift was very appropriate and received with appropriate acknowledgements.
