

What is Money? Money is independence. Money is freedom. Money is leisure. Money is safety. Money is education. Money is the gratification of taste, benevolence, and public spirit. The man is a fool or an angel who does not try to make money. A clear conscience, good health, and plenty of money, are among the essentials of a full, joyous existence. Still, unfortunately, it too often happens that people who have an abundant supply of money are destitute of character. While it is desirable that men should have both, notwithstanding all the advantages of money, it is better to have character.

The Man Who Won't Pay The Printer
May he be shod with lightning and compelled to wander over gunpowder. May he have sore eyes and a chestnut burr for an eye stone.
May every day of his life be more desolate than the Day of Algiers.
May he never be permitted to kiss a handsome woman.
May he be forced to death with Boarding School Misses, practicing the first lessons in music, without the privilege of seeing his tormentors.
May his stomach rot quarter rages over his night.
May his boots be so tight that he can hang fire, and his fishing lines break.
May his coffee be sweetened with flies, and his sauce seasoned with spiders.
May he never strike oil, and be continually blest with nothing.
May his friend run off with his wife, and his children take the whooping cough.
May his cattle die with murrain, and his pigs destroy his garden.
May a troop of printer's devils, lean, lank and hungry, dog his heels each day, and a regiment of water hauls under his window each night.
May the famine-stricken ghost of an editor's baby haunt his slumbers, and his murder in his dreaming ears.
May his cow give sour milk, and his churn rancid butter; in short, may his daughter marry a one-eyed editor, his business go to ruin and he to the Legislature.

"Pap" observed a young urchin of tender years to his fond parent, "does the Lord know everything?"
"Yes, my son," replied the hopeful sire, "but why do you ask that question?"
"Because our preacher when he prays is so long telling him everything, I thought he must be cheated."
The parent reflected.

MOUNTAIN OF SALT—A striking curiosity has lately been discovered in Nevada Territory. It is a mountain of rock salt, situated about twenty miles from the valley, and only eighteen miles from the head of navigation on the Colorado river. It rises from the plain about four hundred feet in height, a mountain of pure, sparkling, crystallized salt.

The sugar wedding, thirty days after marriage is the newest thing out.

HELMHOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU.
HELMHOLD'S BUCHU.
HELMHOLD'S BUCHU.
THE ONLY KNOWN REMEDY FOR DIABETES.
IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, CATARRH OF THE BLADDER, STRANGURY OR PAINFUL URINATING.
For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms.

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back and through the hips? A teaspoonful a day of Helmholt's Buchu will relieve you.

PHYSICIANS AND OTHERS
PLEASE NOTICE.
I make no secret of ingredients. Helmholt's Extract Buchu is composed of Buchu, Cubebs, and Juniper Berries, selected with great care, prepared in vacuo and according to rules of Pharmacy and Chemistry.

These ingredients are known as the most valuable Diuretics afforded.

A DIURETIC
It is that which acts upon the kidneys.

HELMHOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU
ACTS GENTLY,
is pleasant in taste and odor, free from all injurious properties, and immediate in its action.

FOR THE SATISFACTION OF ALL.
See Medical Properties contained in Dispensatory of the U. S., of which the following is a correct copy:
"Buchu—Its odor is strong, diffusive, and somewhat aromatic, its taste bitterish, and analogous to that of mint. It is given chiefly in complaints of the Urinary Organs, such as Gravel, Chronic Catarrh of the Bladder, Morbid Retention of the Urine, and the Incontinence of Urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its excretion. It has also been recommended in Dyspepsia, Chronic Rheumatism, Cutaneous Affections, and Dropsy."

IN THE WORLD.
I am acquainted with H. T. Helmholt; he occupied the drug store opposite my residence, and was successful in conducting the business where others had not been equally so before him. I have been favorably impressed with his character and enterprise.

WM. WEIGTMAN,
(Firm of Powers & Weightman),
Ninth and Brown Streets, Philadelphia.

[From the Philadelphia Evening Bulletin, March 16.]
"We are gratified to hear of the continued success in New York, of our townsman, Mr. H. T. Helmholt, in the sale of his Buchu. His store, in the Metropolitan Hotel, is 28 feet front, 230 feet deep, and five stories in height. It is certainly a grand establishment, and speaks favorably of the merit of his articles. He retains his office and laboratory in this city, which are also model establishments of their class."

The proprietor has been induced to make this statement from the fact that his remedies, although advertised, are

GENUINE PREPARATIONS,
And, knowing that the intelligent refrain from using any thing pertaining to Quackery, or the Patent Medicine order—most of which are prepared by self-styled Doctors, who are ignorant to read a physician's simplest prescription, much less competent to prepare pharmaceutical preparations.

to various means of effecting sales, such as copying parts of advertisements of popular remedies, and sending with certificates.

The Science of Medicine stands SIMPLE, PURE, and MAJESTIC,—having faith for its Basis, Induction for its Pillar, Truth alone for its Capital.

A WORD OF CAUTION.
Health is most important; and the afflicted should not use an advertised medicine, or any remedy, unless its contents or ingredients are known to others besides the manufacturer, until they are satisfied of the qualifications of the party so offering.
