New Advertisements. Goods on a Specie Haris—T. L. Baldwin & Co. Fruit Trees for Sale—B. C. Wickham. Agent: Wanted—Charles, S. Green & Co. Estray—George A. Smith.

We are obliged to defer a column advertisement cent us by Messro: W. R. Smith's Sone, of Additon, by reason of the legal advertising which crowds us for space. It will appear next week.

QUARTERLY MEETING .- Rev. T. B. Honson will preach at the Methodist Church in this village on Thursday evening of this week, and commence the services of the Quarterly Messing, which will continue over the Sabbath.

We call attention to the advertisement of B C. Wickbam, Esq., who offers great inducements to fraitgrowers. We urge farmers to patronize home nurrerymen, whose trees are already acolimated, and are otherwise superior to any importations.

PLATEER SECT .- R. T. HALL, Esq., P. M. at Farmington Hill, writes us that a citizen of Farmington, Mr. Mckinney, last week trapped a papther which measured nearly seven feet in length. It was shot by the Canadian behr hunter, Mr. A. J. Fisk, no one else being desirous of taking the job. The brute was trapped in the big woods on the Tiogs road, and is presumed to be the animal which has lately made such bayou among the sheep in that neighborhood during the

We regard it as. the most economical mode of supporting the poor as well as most comfortable to the poor them. selves; the only question being as to whether the county is able to take hold of the matter just at this time.

LITERARY EXHIBITION .- Mr. D. G. Edwards, of Canrieston, sends us the following extract from the Drych (Mirror), a Welsh paper, together with remarks:

"The Welsh population of Morris Run, Bloss township, Tioga county, Pa., held an Exhibition at the new Baptist Meeting House, Jan. 1, 1866. David Harris, Eq., President. After a few but appropriate femarks by the President, addresses were made by the "Bards," some to the President, some to their Liturary Society, others to the Morris Ran capitalists and others to the Union for which so many of our nation fought, suffered, and died.

REMARKS. Order prevailed throughout. The selection of subjects was good, the declamation FAMILY GROCERIES AND FRESH commendable, and the impartial decisions of the judges gave satisfaction to all. Some of the judges were lately from Wales, and reflected credit upon their negivity. We have received a letter from a valued friend in which he takes very strong ground against the proposed new law of evidence, published in this place a few weeks ago. He states that along the south line of New York State, where he has had opportunity to test public opinion, the testimony against the law (there is one similar in operation there's overwhelming. He gives it as his candid opinion that it will increase perjury by offer ing new and tempting inducements to parties to All of the we gropped to rell another as we swear their cases through.

With all deference to his longer experience with the litigious world, we still regard the latter reason for opposing the proposed law as unsufficient, if not overstated. It may be true, as he states, that juries find it difficult to weigh and decide upon the conflicting evidence of parties to the suit; but we believe that gord observers can at once detect the man who swears fulsely in the court room. Few men can lie, under oath, with. perfect serenity of soul or comptenance.

Again, our friend must be aware that there are very few cases involving valuable interests, in which there is not, now, more or less departure. from the truth by the witnesses, or some of them. We do not recollect one ease, the trial of which We have witnessed as a spectator, where there was not only perjury, but intentional false swearing. We doubt if the parties to a suit would Drugs and Patent Medicines swear harder than the witnesses they often sub-Poens to drive their cases through. Taking this view of the matter, we do not see how the proposed new law is to increase perjury: but that it may put suitors in a tight place accasionallyis very evident.

The object of a cuit-at-law, as we suppose, is to to learn the truth involved in the dispute as-far as may be, and upon that truth to declare a verdict. The truth is almost always known to the withese stand and make it optional with them to reveal the truth or suppress it in full view of the pains and penalties of perjury?

THE Atlantic for March is one of the best numbers of that magazine ever issued. "Passages, from Hawthorne's Note Book," are facinating pictures of still life among friends. The second Part of "A Freedman's Story" "Griffith Gaunt," and the "Chimney Corner," with new Chapters of "Dr Johns," make a grand entertainment. To cian's art?

WRIGHT & BAILEY. Wellsboro, Jan. 24, 1866. WHAT THE ILLUSTRIOUS ABER-WHAT THE ILLUSTRIOUS ABERNETHY SAID.—"Well, sir what's the matter?" said Abernethy, the great English sur geon, to a cadaverous-looking patient, who had called to consult him. "Oh, nothing serious," was the reply, "my stomach and liver are out of order, that's all.'. "Do you call that nothing serious?" said Abernethy; "I tell you, sir, that when these two organs are out of order, as you call it, there's not a square inch of the body that is not more or less diseased, nor a drop of blood in it that is in a healthful condition." Nothing can be more true, therefore it is of the vary highest importance to keep the stomach and liver in BED, & HORSE BLANKETS. est importance to keep the stomach and liver in a vigorous condition.
