Any child that has tolerable features may be made pretty, if not beautiful, by proper food, fresh air, good temper, and education.

Beauty of expression is the most enduring and highest kind of beauty, and the expression of the countenance is undoubtedly more to be controlled and improved by culture than its fairness of complexion. Every day we see faces ugly and distorted by crossness, anger, revenge, and sensuality, which were once bright and lovely with the innocence and smiles of childhood. What has changed them so greatly. Every cross, jealous, proud, scornful feeling, like every blow of the chisel upon marble, serves to carve a line upon the features, and each time such feelings are indulged, the work of the invisible carver is deepened, until the face is made ugly by unkind and unholy thoughts and passions.

In the same way kind, pure thoughts, gentleness of word and deed, leave their impress, making bad complexions and common features almost radiant with the beauty of goodness.

Education, both intellectual and moral, increases beauty; a countenance beaming with intelligence, united to a gentle winning manner, will always be thought lovely by sensible people, if it has no other charm, and this beauty will endure through life.

Any one may prove the power of education upon the features by noticing the ignorant, vicious children who are sent to school of reform, where they are properly fed and instructed. Day by day, as they receive new ideas of right wrong and think new thoughts, their eyes brighten, their cheeks assume a deeper color, and the whole expression of the face changes.

How noble are the faces of most men features till they are grand as the sculptured faces of heroes and demi-gods. If every mother and teacher would but take the requisite care in the physicial and moral culture of the young, in two generations the appearance of the race might be vastly improved.

Let every guardian of youth, then, impress upon the young how they disfigure their faces by ill temper, idleness, and deceit, and beautify them by kindess, truth and diligence in cultivation of their minds.

A CORRECT ANSWER.—The late Governor Mattox, of Vermont, was Chairman of a Committee appointed to examine candidates for admission to the bar of Caledonia County, Vermont, and reported that one of them was not quali-fied for admission, for he had answered but one question right which the Committee had asked him.

"And what was the question, brother Mattox?" inquired the presiding Judge. "We asked him, your Honor, what a freehold estate is, and he answered he

The editor of the Boston Post savs that brandy applications are recom-mended for baldness, continued externally till the hair is well started, and afterwards taken in generous quantities internally to clinch the roots.

"Johnny, why are you so wicked as to tell me a lie about that knife? Why did you not remember what I told you about Washington?". "Oh!" said Johnny, "Washington said he couldn't tell a lie. He couldn't and I could!"

A coxcomb, teasing Dr. Parr with an account of petty ailments, complained that he never could go out without catching cold in his head. "No wonder," returned the Doctor: "you always go out without anything in it."

TS HEALTH WORTH HAVING ?-If it is, protect it. It is a jewel as easily lost as vit-tue, and in some cases as difficult to recover Nature, in our climate, and especially at this season, requires to be occasionally reinforced. But everything depends upon the tonic used for this purpose. The medicinal tinctures, all of which are based on common alcohol, are dangerous. Quinine, as everybody finds out who takes much of it is a clay ration. One safe restart. much of it, is a slow poison. One safe protective from all unhealthy atmospheric influences exists, and one only. This powerful preventive is HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS, a compound of the purest stimulant ever manufactured, with the most effective tonics alteratives, and depurators that chemistry has yes extracted from the botanical kingdom. Convalescents, languid and feeble from recent sickness will find the Bitters an incomparable Restorative not disagreeable to the taste, and eminently in vigorating. No other stimulant produces the same effect as this Stomachic. It does not excite or flutter the nerves, or occasion any undue arte-rial action; but at once soothes and strengthens the nervous system and the animal spirits.
