NEW YORK MARKETS .- There is no essential change in the market prices from those published last week. New butter has advanced two cents per pound. Beef has declined somewhat. Pork tel property lately, occupied by J. W. BIGONEY, is refitting and refurnishing the house and will open it to the public at an early day.

BUSINESS CHANGE. - Mr. S. F. Shaiblin has rivulets of song? disposed of his Barber Shop to Messrs. Dorsey &

CORRECTION.-We are requested by Dr. Humphrey, our member of the Legislature, to say that the bill to prevent hunting deer with dogs in Charleston township, though objected off the calendar as stated last-week, was afterward taken up and passed by the Senate. It is therefore a law. Hanters will take notice.

A BAD PRACTICE.-The firing of guns and pistols within the borough limits is becoming alarmingly frequent, much to the annoyance of peaceable citizens. There is a stringent ordinance prohibiting this dangerous practice, and imposing a fine upon the offenders. This ordinance will be strictly enforced upon complaint made, and the boys will do well to abandor the practice at once.

Mr. Editor:—The inhabitants of South Charles ton met at the house of Wm J. Richards, Feb. 19, 1866, and donated of good second-aand clothing, valued at $39 75, and $6 in cash, which was sent to the proper officers in New York, for the succor of the freedmen.

he succor of the necessary.

By request of the donors.

D. G. EDWARDS.

We shall publish the Poor House law next week, if possible. The certified copy has not come to hand, but we have a copy, not altogether correct, verbally, we suspect, which will give the people a fair idea of the scope of the law.

Good FOR POTTER .- Under a law passed last month, no license to sell liquors can be issued in Potter county. Happy Potter! The beauty of the thing is, that the majority of the people there asked for the law.

COUNTY SUPERINTENDENTS .- A law passed last winter takes the power of fixing the salaries of Superintendents from the Directors, and grades pets:

3. Visit Young's Book Store and select from the Directors of Well Paper salaries as follows: $500 per annum for the first 100 schools in the county; $400 for the second hundred, and $300 for the third hundred. Thus, two hundred schools give a salary of $900, three 4. Examine Young's stock of Window Shades, hundred schools $1200 salary.

Street Commissioner Harrison has constructed a nest footwalk across the creek at the upper end of town.

Mr. J. F. Donaldson is second on the list of those who are "mending their ways" on Main street. The prospect of extensive improvements in that direction is flattering. -

That portion of King street bounding the Rectory grounds on the southwest, is being greatly improved, and a new and substantial sidewalk is being laid from Mr. Wm. Bache's corner to the south corner of the lot of Mr. H. O. Stiles. To the energy and enterprise of Mr. Stiles, who is "guilty of a skin a little durker than our own," this step in the march of improvement is chiefly

Mr. Folky has just received another lot of American watches, comprising the several grades. If you want a reliable time piece, now is the time to purchase it.

He is also the agent for a new and elegant Lamp, in which use, beauty and entire safety are happily combined. You can see one in operation any evening at his counter. It is the handsomest illuminator ever brought into this market.

A NEW PAPER.-The new organ of the "Democracy" of Tioga - The Herald of the Union,made its appearance on Monday. It is neatly printed and makes a very creditable appearance. Its objects, though mildly declared, are not, such as naturally excite our sympathy; but that our political opponents need an organ is too evident to be disputed. The editor has done his part well. If the party do not come forward to his support with alacrity and liberality it will richly deserve the punishment of "the second death." Mr. C. H. KEELER, late of Owego. is the editor and proprietor.

FOR MONTANA, -A large company of young men have started for the for West, from Wellsboro and vicinity, within the last month. Of those whose names occur to us we mention the following. Messrs, G. W. Navel, W. B. White, F. Truman, J. Donovan, Alonzo Johnson, H. A. Sears, Chester Kimball, David Bacon, C A. Deane, R. Duryea, Samuel Reese, and E. McInroy. Most of these are bound for Montana, though some will stop in Kansas, and possibly some may heate in Missouri. We wish them success.

ABOUT MONEY .- Refuse all notes on Maine banks. Refuse Oil City and Crawford county money, unless it be of National Banks in those Places. Do not sacrifice Venango Bank, and Petroleum Bank notes, as they are good for State taxes at their face.

The notes of the National Banks have not been extensively counterfeited as yet. However, examine all 5's, the imitation of which has been pretty well done. The spurious are darker than the genuine, and the work coarser. Always carefully examine notes of large denominations.

HAIL, Spring!-Supremely blest in his carthly estate is he who can look upon the dawning loveliness of Spring apart from the harassments of the business of life; who awakes to the morning tong of the birds, and experiences an indescribthle uplifting of the soul as he goes forth to behold the glories of daybreak and inhales the air all leavened with vernal softness. For this is the way in which the Creator intended His rational creatures to live-alive to the beauty of His universe, and exalted by its unpretending grandeur and surpassing loveliness. We desire to get very near to our readers in this matter of nature culture; to take them entirely away from the daily strifes of living and working, and from the pursuit of the objects of desire and ignoble ambifion. Because none of us can rightly claim exemption from ambitions which more or less diefigure the record of our lives. We wish to so draw them away from the routine of labor, and sit them facing the golden, the never to be forgotten time, when their souls were unclouded, and receptive to the inspirations of the account of the souls were unclouded, and receptive to the inspirations of the souls of the soul desire and ignoble ambition. Because none of were unclouded, and receptive to the inspirations of the fleeting sensons, and kept time with the songs of birds and brooks, and the great, wran gling world, of which some of us have our fill, was it less real than the fairy stories in which our grandmothers abbunded.

We want 'you to return with us and live again

-though transiently-in that dreamy age. It is our very city of refuge from the stern oppressor, CARE. When overcome with the heat and dust of conflict for Right, when the future seems wrapt in gloom as with a garment, and the labor of an carnest lifetime seems about to come to nought through the weakness of incapability and the designs of the bad,-then it is good to enter the ever open gates of this city of refuge.

Return. Do you remember the return of the swallows? and the first greeting of the blue-bird? how his song broke forth with the silver streamers of morning, and rose higher, and higher, until the east was all aflame? And you, then a farm boy, as you bounded over the green pasture Mr B. B. Holidar, having purchased the ho- land, in quest of the cows,-are you ashamed to remember how you stopped in your quest, fairly entranced with the gushing song of the cat bird, until, moved by uncontrolable impulse, your soul gushed out in improvisation and bathed itself in

There was a time when we all, country-bred, Johnson, late of Elmira. Mr. Shaiblin was an wandered in the early spring in fields catpeted excellent barber, and gave good satisfaction .- with hues more brilliant than royal dyers ever His succe sors are men who understand their produced, and sown with jewels which eclipsed business, and we bespeak for them a generous pa- the costliest gems in the crowns of kings. And who of us has forgotten how the inspiration of a morning walk in that golden time became an all-day ecstacy? how it softened our hearts toward each other, and toward every living thing? how the recollection of this springtime beauty abode with us through winter, tempering its blasts and softening its rigors?

Therefore it is well to live over this precious past in recrospection; for, as its inspirations uplifted and bettered us then, so the enjoyment of recollection must pluck many a thorn from our pathways, and smooth the pillow of feverish care. So we exhort all to return to the golden age often to the age when the soul was receptive to nature's highest teachings—that none of us may become so sodden and selfish as not to attune our souls to the music of the triumphal march of the seasons. 20 60

WELL TO DAY, SICK TO MORROW. Such is the experience of thousands. Few enjoy continuous health. To what does the occasional invalid attribute his uncertain condition?
Not to himself, of course. He lays the blame on the climate, perhaps. It is too hot, or too cold, or too damp, or too dry, or too variable, But does he take, the proper course to fortify his constitution and bodily organs against the extremes and changes of which he complains? No. He says, perhaps, that only an iron man could bear such great heat, or such violent cold, or such sudden vicissimiles. Why then does he not resort to the great Tonic and Preventive, which, if it will not make him an iron man, will at least quadruple the capacity of his system to repel all external agencies that tend to produce disease? HOS-TETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BIT TERS, taken faithfully according to the direc-tions, will so strengthen the stomach, brace the nerves, tone the liver, and regulate and invigorate the whole animal machinery, that the system, instead of being at the mercy of the weather, and liable to be prostrated by every change of temperature, will become case hardened, as it were, and almost impervious to climatic influences. It is to this preventive principle that Hos-TETTER'S BITTERS owe their great popularity in the West Indies, British America and Australia. INSOLVENT NOTICE.—In the matter of the application of A. J. & E. R. Webster for the benefit of the insolvent laws:
