The Cheese Factory building at the old Wheeler Farm, on the State Road, Charleston, is progressing. The vats have been ordered, and we tope to announce the factory as in operation in due season.

Ixvension.-On Sunday week, Rev. Mr. Calkins, pastor of the Presbyterian Church in this borough, administered the rite of baptism, by immersion, to four persons. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of spectators.

THE EFFECT OF CARELESSNESS .- We have been shown a letter to a gentleman in this village, in which it is stated that a destructive fire occurred in the village of Geneseo, N. Y., last week, by which seven stores and a bank were consumed. The fire originated in an attempt to draw Kerosene by candle-light. Let traders be CEMENT FOR WALLS .- Mr. George Raab, of Charleston, has given us a recipe for making : durable cement to close up cracks in the walls of bedrooms, and asks that it may be made public "Take rye flour and mix in water to the con-tistency of stiff cream. Then add fine sand unul the mass becomes a stiff mortar, and use." Hr. R. says that this cement becomes solid as stone in a few days, and will last as long as the wall itself.

To FARMERS .- Farmers will find it to their inurest to turn to the Agricultural column on the forth page of this paper. They will there find tre timely hints and suggestions from Mr. Ira liggs, who thinks while he tills the land. No gibt there are many more like him in this reget: and to them we say, send on your liftle expriences and suggestions, that your brother farzers may be benefitted by them. Farmers should is more sociable, giving each other the benefit of udividual experience and observation. | Those the may like to do this, shall have space every reck in the AGITATOR. Send on your thoughts and the results of your observations.

BUSINESS CHANGE .- The "SEARS BOYS" have old their Shoe and Leather business to Mr. Geo. 0. Derby, long an employee of the firm. His advertisement appears elsowhere. The Sears Boys have long been one of our most substantial and enterprising business firms, but they have put the business into excellent hands. Success to the old and the few.

We also take pleasure in announcing that W. A. Nichols, Esq., has formed a co-partnership in the law business with John I. Mitchell, Esq., of Tioga, under the name of Nichols & Mitchell .-They will be found at the office farmerly occupied by Lowery & Wilson, Main-st. Mr. Mitchell is one of the most promising of our young lawyers, and we predict a successful career for the new

A REMARKABLE FAMILY .- Mr. E. S. Seeley, of Deerfield township, has given us a few facts which go to show that long life is sometimes a family characteristic. The family of Mr. James King, deceased, consisted of twelve sons and taughters, so late as last March, at which time of the daughters died. The oldest of the eleren living is 76, and the youngest 51 years of us. Five of the family are residents of Tioga county, and six reside in Southern New York .-The daughter who died in March was 70 years of INTERNAL REVENUE.-We are requested to state for the information of the public, that the rumor of a postponement of the annual assessments on licenses, incomes, carriages, &c., is without foundation in fact. On the contrary, the tuersments will be made as usual, and all pertts are recommended to prepare their lists mmptly, so as to hand them to the Assessor on u before the 30th inst. It is believed that the tw will be more rigidly enforced this year than hestofore, and the penalties for default, and for incuring licenses by misstatement of facts, will himposed.

ETICIDE IN CHARLESTON .-- We are pained to mord the suicide of a lady, formerly a resident "this borough, which took place near Whitheyville, last Saturday afternoon or evening. The theased, Mrs. Henry Petrie, had been suffering hm mental derangement for two years, at intervis. In the absence of her husband last Saturter, the left the house, and on his return was not "be found about the premises. Search was tide and continued until Sunday forenoon, when Li was found lying face downward in the little thek near by, dead. The water where she lay ru but a few inches in depth.

The occurance has cast a gloom over the neight.ttood, and falls heavily upon Mr. Peatrie, a not estimable man, and the two children left to Ecum her loss.

BLORE JAIL .- Our village was thrown into a flight excitement on Sunday, by the report that the Hutchinson, alias Cross, confined in the jail the charge of highway robbery, had broken from durance and made his escape out of town. The Sheriff had let the prisoners into the corridor outside of the cells, for air and exercise .-Cross, taking advantage of this liberty, picked the lock of the back door and walked off. The them was in medictely given, and persons sext cel slier him, but he succeeded in getting clear of torn. Notice of his escape was given to the inhib.tents living on the road through Catlin Holly to Middlebury, and pursuit pressed. Lucki-Lear Niles' Valley, succeeded in arresting the fupure. Cross accosted him, asking for tobacco, ud after some little parley, Gee took him into tailedy, and he was ledged in his old quarters

"Hering seen many reports in the Ligitator of winders, both in the vegetable and animal king-tenders, both in the vegetable and animal king-tenders, teach the liberty to transmit you the following which I will admit its comewhat tough:—Challon Phillips, Esq., of the town of Wentfield, Its a lamb about two months of age. In the extender cold weather which we had sometime unes, the lamb unfortunately had both hind legs usterly frozen; so bad, at all events, that both of them rotted entirely off, close to the body.—Its lamb, as a matter of course, was now in a try tad predictment; but, however, after many frillers endeavors, it his upon the following tilless endeavors, it his upon the following tomewhat singular mode of locomotion. The and reizes itself upon its fore feet, with the body the togle of about forty-five degrees, and in this covel position it walks, and rune, with appafully the greatest of ease. It also stands in the position while feeding; and, strange as it his feeting, it will run as fast as any sheep in the fact. The care and grace with which it poises with its result do in its nearly upright position, would do

THE MAY MAGAZINES.—The ATLANTIC MONTHLY furnishes a very choice variety of reading this month. A Sketch of the "Rappites," or Harmonists, more from "Hawthorne's Note Book," a critique of Edwin Booth, by E. C. Stedman, something good about "Dress" by Mrs. Stowe, "The Feman Idea." by Miss Frances Power Cobbe, and a plea for a return to specie payments, by E. H.
