The League will meet regularly every Friday evening for business. But the room will be open to the public every day and evening. The leading New York Philadelphia, Washington and Richmond dailies will be procured and placed in the Reading Room at once. Our friends from the townships are invited to call often.

COL. GREGG AT THE COURT HOUSE.—Col. Theodore Gregg, late commanding the 45th P. Y., made a spirited and characteristic address to a large and enthusiastic audience, Saturday night at the Court House. The subject of his address was the history of the 45th regiment, from its muster-in to its muster-out; and a more graphic relation of the varying fortunes and vicissitudes of war, and the mortal perils of battle, is seldom heard, or read. The Colonel talks as he fights—in his own style—and strikes home every time. He was constantly interrupted by the cheers of the 45th boys, who were out in force. The meeting was presided over by Capt. Seelye, of Knoxville, and broke up with three rousing cheers for the Speaker. Come again, Colonel.

PENNSYLVANIA HOUSE.—The old patrons of this hotel will find it in apple-pie order, the present owner having thoroughly overhauled and refurnished it. Guests may be certain of good fare and good beds—which, we opine, constitute two cardinal points of a good hotel. Mr. Haslett will be found an attentive and obliging landlord.

ROBBERY.—Some one of the scoundrels who infest the Erie Railroad cars and depot at Downing, robbed Mrs. A. J. Sofield, of this borough, on her return from New York last week. The sum taken exceeded $80—a large sum to her, and sufficient to temporarily embarrass her in her business.

Mrs. S., has just fitted up a splendid Millinery Shop on Main Street, opposite the Post Office, and is now receiving a large and elegant assortment of goods from New York. Our people will at once see that they have an opportunity to assist her to retrieve her late loss, and we hope they will at once come forward and encourage her with a generous patronage. We have no more worthy or deserving lady in our midst.

T. L. Baldwin & Co., Tioga, have entirely sold out their old stock of goods and replaced them with a splendid stock of dress goods for the summer market; as well as gents' cloths, and ready made clothing, wall and window paper, hardware, hats and caps, groceries and provisions, which they offer at prices of great competition. They consider butter, cheese, eggs and grain as cash, at market prices. Their advertisement reached us too late for insertion in proper shape this week.

ELECTION OF COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT.—The triennial convention of the School Directors of Tioga county, was held in the Court House, Tuesday, May 1, Ninety-six, or less than one-half the whole number of Directors, were present.

Mr. S. B. Paice, of Deerfield, was elected on the first ballot, the vote standing: Paice, 52; Stone, 23; Callahan, 23.

GIVING A MAJORITY OF EIGHT VOTES for Mr. Paice. Mr. Paice has long been favorably known as an educator of youth in this county. He erected the Academy buildings near Knoxville, and for many years maintained a school of considerable size among high schollars. We wish him full measure of success in his new office, and trust that Directors, teachers and parents may cordially cooperate with him in the great and noble task of elevating the standard of excellence among the Common Schools of the county.

F. H. CLARK, Esq., has hung out his shingle in Mansfield. We bespeak for him an encouraging patronage.

The Little Corporal is a boys and girls' paper, which we can cordially commend to all our young people. It is beautifully printed, and costs but $1 per year. Address "Little Corporal," Chicago, Ill.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—About a quarter of ten o'clock on Saturday morning a fire broke out in the Cabinet and Chair factory of Mr. B. T. Van Horn, in this borough, and progressed so rapidly, that in the short space of an hour and a half of building, with the large and valuable stock of turned stuff, and lumber, together with three times the heat, on Pearl street, were a glowing mass of ruin. The engine was early on the ground, but owing to circumstances which always run when there is want of system, was unable to do its most effective work. The neighboring buildings were in great danger for a time, but by the heroic exertions of citizens and firemen the flames were held at bay.

The loss falls heavily upon Mr. Van Horn and his workman, some of the latter losing all their tools. The factory was one of our finest industrial improvements, built up by the energy and industry of its proprietor, Van Horn, on which there was an investment of $200,000. Messrs. Jas. Wilkinson, D. Hart, and K. Keley, each had a barn on which there was no insurance. A meeting of citizens convened at the Commissioners' Office at 10 o'clock for the purpose of devising some plan in aid of the sufferers. A committee of five was appointed to procure subscriptions with instructions to report at an adjourned meeting at the Court House at 6 P. M. Accordingly the committee set about the work, and at the adjourned meeting reported a subscription of $710, which, on motion, was directed to be collected and distributed pro rata.

This prompt liberality stands to the credit of our citizens. It will enable Mr. Van Horn to rebuild his factory and thus provide work for those who were temporarily out of employment.

Now let us organize a fire Company, perfect it by fire discipline, and so make some amends to those who have struggled against wind and tide, and public indifference to preserve the shadow of a week, and there will be room for seventy-five working members.

WELLBORO ACCIDENT.—The last half of the spring term commences this week. Pupils wishing to enter for the balance of the term, should do so at once, ample preparations for their reception having been made.

We regret to say that Mr. Van Allen, and his accomplished assistants (his laborers among us with the present term. Whether it will be possible to secure so much energy and ability to continue the sessions of the Academy, is a serious question with many. We understand his decision as made beyond revocation.

A "TIN WEDDING."—"A what?" asks one of the younger of our readers. Many have heard of the famous "Diamond Wedding," apotrophized by Stedman. More have heard of "Golden Weddings," of which the papers make occasional mention. All have heard of joyful wedding and great weddings, and sorrowful weddings. But a "tin wedding" may not have transpired in many neighborhoods heretofore. However, Wellboro had a decidedly pleasant occasion in the form of the celebration of their "tin wedding" by Hon. & Mrs. H. W. Williams, last night week, that being the tenth anniversary of their wedding day.

The invitation cards were appropriate, being of tin, about 1 1/2 inches upon which the usual formal invitation was written with a steel point. As may be supposed, the tinners were much in requisition during the day, and the strife to get "something anybody else had thought of" was interesting, and so successful that few, if any, guests were duplicated.

The guests began to arrive at about 8 o'clock, each with his or her planned war. Every tin-kin of the door-bell announced an arrival from Tin-tin-um, with the impression gained from the fact that a goodly portion of the people of Wellboro had turned traveling tin-kin. Of course we can not undertake to enumerate the various articles brought by the guests; but we have a distinct and rather funny recollection of a lugubrious old bachelor, who presented his compliments to a hostess (and the war). Once held to answer for his presence on an occasion, the like of which he seemed unlikely to make for others. There were, on the final exhibit, all the articles usually found in well regulated kitchens and pantries, besides ornamental ware, such as combs, brushes, finger-rings, breast-pins, belt-slides, etc., etc., in all all enough to handsomely attune a modest tin-pedler.

Supper was served at 10 o'clock, and the bill of fare was discussed in a manner most complimentary to the provider and cook. Later in the evening a song, gotten up for the occasion, was sung, much to the amusement and edification of the company; and the "good time" extended to the small hours, when the guests separated for their respective homes, wishing the host and hostess many happy anniversaries of the wedding day, and a "golden wedding" at the end.

WELLBORO.—I have made New York valises in price, to correspond with the market. I now sell: 122 Fast colored prints, 12c; Merimack and Sprague prints, 15c; Ward wide sheetings, heavy, 18c; Best 4 1/2 yard wide, 22 to 27c. All goods at special cheap prices of goods no average lower than at any time this season, and it is a good time to buy. Dress goods are very cheap. Cloths and cassimères are also cheap. I have also a fine stock of Hartford Co. Ingrain and ply carpetings, tapestry Brussels, Philadelphia Ingrain and heavy cloths; in new patterns, at the lowest possible prices. J. A. PARSONS, Corning, N. Y. May 9, 1886.

You will find at W. R. Smith's Sons, Addison, N. Y. beautiful Black Silks, from 10 to 24; Poplins, from 50c to 1 1/2; Shawls, 10c to 2 1/2; Duplex Cloth and Silk Baize, $5 to $25; Duplex Trimmings, from 16c to 34; Silver Shirts from 10 to 24; Other Styles, $5 and upwards. The Mammoth Concern, abounds in rare bargains and rare goods.

I am making pictures cheaper than before the war. Now is your time. Notice prices below: Sitting or standing cards, $2 50 per dozen; Views, $5 00 per dozen; duplicates, sitting or standing, $1 80 per dozen; duplicate vignettes, $2 25 per dozen. Best quality. At these prices, I will give you 50 good pictures. Exchange between Wm. T. Maters and J. D. Jones. Wellboro, Pa. H. H. Wood. May 9, 1886.

HINTS TO HOUSEWIVES.—Damp walls cause the effect of spots on the wall paper. This is a good time to clean your walls and paper them. Young has received his spring stock of wall paper, which he is now selling at prices from 4c to 16c. Fifty-six different styles; twenty of them entirely new. It is believed that the sum fixes the carpet. Young has received a large stock of paper and cloth shades, figured and plain, varying in price from one shilling to three dollars. Also picture call soon and make a selection. Remember the Wellboro Book Store. May 2, 1886.

DEATHS.
At the residence of her son-in-law, Rev. Amos Chapman, in Charleston, on the 29th ult., Mrs. ELIZABETH ROBBE, aged 83 years.

TERRORS OF YOUTH.—A gentleman who suffered for years from Nervous Debility, Premature Decay &c. &c., writes in N. Y. Herald, "I had a cure for my suffering humanity, send free to all who need it, and directions for making the simple remedy. The name of the advertiser is not given, but by the advertiser's experience can do by addressing JOHN B. GIBBEN, 13 Chambers St., N. Y. Jan. 31, 1886."

TO CONSUMPTIVES.—The advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks by a simple remedy, after having suffered for several years with a severe lung affection and that dread disease, Consumption, and unable to make known his name, offers the means of cure. To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription, free of charge, with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs and Colds, and all throat and lung affections. The only object of the advertiser in sending the prescription is to benefit the afflicted and spread information, which he is glad to do, and he trusts every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost nothing and may prove a blessing. Particulars of the advertisement by return mail, will please address Rev. EDWARD A. WILSON, Williamsburg, Kings Co., N. Y. Jan. 31, 1886.

THE CONFESIONS AND EXPERIENCE OF AN INYOLVED MAN.—Published for the benefit and as a caution to young men and others, by the author, Mr. E. J. Purdie, formerly of Mansfield, Co., N. Y., and now of the same town, and having been converted by one of his converts, after undergoing considerable suffering, by enclosing a postal addressed envelope, single copy, to the author at the residence of Mr. E. J. Purdie, N. Y. City. Address: E. J. Purdie, Kings Co., N. Y. Jan. 31, 1886.

AN Assortment of TABLE GLASSWARE will be found at ROY'S DRUG STORE.
