KATIE LEE AND WILLIE GREY.

Two brown heads with tessing curls, Red lips shutting over pearls!
Bare feet white and wet with dew,
Two eyes black and two eyes blue;
Little boy and girl were tacy,
Katie Lee and Willie Grey.

They were standing where a brook, Bending like a shepherd's crook, Flashed its silver, and thick ranks Of green willow fringed the banks; Half in thought or half in play, Katie Les and Willie Grey

They hird thocks like cherries red; He was taller; most a head; She, with arms like wreaths of enow, Swung a basker to and fro, As she loitered, half in play, Chattering to Willie Grey.

"Pretty Katie," Willie said-And there came a dash of red Through the brownness of his cheek— F Boys are strong, and girls are weak, And Filestry, so I will, Katie's basket up the hill,"

Katje answered, with a laugh, "You shall carry only half;"
And then toasing back her curis,
"Boys are weak as well as girls."
Do you think that Katio guessed
Half the wiedom she expressed?

Men are only boys grown tall,

Hearts don't change much after all;

And when, long years from that day,
Katte Lee and Willie Grey

Stood again beside the brook,
Bending like a shepherd's crook,

Is it strange that Willie said-While again a fla hing red.
Crossed the brownness of his check—
"I am strong and fou are weak:

Life is but a slippery steep, Hung with shadows cold and deep " Will you trust me, Katie dear-Walk beside me without fear? May I carry, if I will,

Allyour hurdens up the hill?
And she huswered with a laugh,
"No but you may carry half." Close beside the little brook, Bonding like a shepherd's crook, and washing with its silver hands, and Later and early at the sands, and the In a counge, where to day Katie twee with Willie Grey. In a porch she sits, and lo !

He then led the way, and explained to the strangers the whole process of constructions a locomotive engine. constructing a locomotive engine. He showed them how the various parts of the machinery were manufactured, and patiently answered all their questions. He told them of an improved method of tubing boilers, by which the power

Two hours passed rapidly away. The strangers were delighted with the intelligence displayed by the mechanic, and with his frank, attentive and unsuspicious manners.

proposition to you from the Emperor of Russia to visit St. Petersburg."

"From the Emperor? Impossible!"

"Here are your credentials."

"But, gentlemen," said the now agi-tated mechanic, "what does this mean? How have I earned such an honor?" "Simply by your straightforward courtesy and frankness, combined with professional intelligence," said Mr. Wolf. "Because we were strangers you did not think it necessary to treat us with coldness or distrust. You saw we were really interested in acquainting ourselves with your works, and you did not ask us, before extending to us your civilities, what letters of introduction in the stream and its banks and its banks will ere long be crowded with a busy and intelligent population. The mechanic visited St. Petersburg, and soon afterwards removed his whole establishment there. He had Imperial orders there for as many locomotive engines as he could construct. He has lately returned to his own country, and is still receiving large returns from his Russian workshop. And all this prosperity grew out of his unselfish civility to two strangers, one of whom was the secret agent of the Czar of Russia.

Our road thus far running in a northwestern direction from Atchison, we have seen only a strip of the northern part of Kansas, with a few miles on the southern border of Nebraska. I speak of what I have seen, to this point, which is 147 miles from Atchison. And in regard to the country already passed over, I say freely that I am unable to conceive of a more beautiful region. It consists chiefly of extensive prairies, higher and more rolling by far than those of Missourie for Illinois and as a general this content of the United States:

In akordance with your esteemed request, dated the 25th and received this morning, I too wunst proceeded to make doo inquiry ez to the workin uv the Freedmen's Bureau and the condishun uv the Afrikan citizens uv Amerikan descent in this vicinity. The fact that a Ablishnist still holds the Post Office at the Corners, (which plate, by the way, I've been solicited to accept,) interfered materially with the biznis I had in hand. I towunst tooted the horn, ez is the custom when we have religious servis, and called my congregathun together. They kum runnin in from the difficulty ensooed. I towunst tooted the post of the United States:

In akordance with your esteemed request, dated the 25th and received this morning, I too wunst proceeded to the Quiries, and the Corners, which plates the United and to the country already passed over, I say freely that I am unable to conceive of a more beautiful region. It consists chiefly of extensive prairies, higher and more rolling by far than those of Missouri or Illinois, and as a general thing presenting a soil which seems quite equal to any I have seen elsewhere. The any I have seen elsewhere. The any I have seen elsewhere. to any I have seen elsewhere. The one drawback of the country, is its want of tim time on Sundays, ez they respected timber, which on the largest prairies the church, and it giv em time to sweep ment on weak days. I succeeded in passifying em, and went in at once examinin the leadin citizens. Their testimony is ez follows:

CAPTIN SKELPER

Wuz a nigger owner afore the war, and durin the late fratrisidal struggle wuz a captin in the confedrit servis.—

Wuz with Ginral Forest at Fort Pillow. Hez had much experience with niggers. Bleeves them to be adapted to the climit uv Kentucky, and much more able to stand the hot sun than the whites.—

When they wuz slaves never knowd em When they wuz slaves never knowd em to refuse to work-know they alluz did work, becauz he generally stood over room for very many more. It may not be known that a considerable amount of public land can still be bought at Congress prices, or taken up under the Homestead law, no farther west than the Big Blue, which is a tributary of the Kansas river, flowing south, at a distance of which is a tributary of the stand out about as the white men do, and wont work at all, unless yoo meet their views, which made a heap uv their views, which made a heap uver trouble and materially retarded the development of the country. The Burow had corrupted the female niggers, exthey had all been legally married by the chaplins to the men they'd lived with, and wuz so sot on livin with em, that there's no use uver your tryin to get a house wench unless you take her hushand also. His wife wuz now doin deband also. His wife wuz now doin de-gradin work at home for want uv help. Strongly urged the abrogashun uv the Burow and the removal uv the abolish-un postmaster at the Corners.

DEACON M'GRATH

Wuz examind. Wuz convinst in his own mind that the Afrikan was now out uv his normal speer, and that the infernal Burow was at the bottom uv it. The nigger, afore the Burow come around, was doeile and easily controlled. His boy Jo was wunst a model nigger. He'd get up every mornin at four, and work every day till after dark. ABSLUM PETTUS

Wuz convinst the Burow wuz agin the prosperity uv the State, and was un-derminin the moral and physikal wel-fare uv the nigger. It made him impu-"He is quite right," remarks the gendent. He'd sum uvem workin for him, and noticed at noons and nites he'd find em with a spellin book and a reader.-Didn't bleeve in readin. Coodent read himself, but he'd a cusin wunst learned, but ez soon ez he could read he moved off to Injeanny, quit the Dimocracy, and becum a loathsome Abolishnist. Heerd he wuz killed in the war, and served him rite. Wanted to know what we'd do when the niggers could
