cost six hundred and thirteen dollars to provide for his family. That infamous Burow made me pay for their rashuns all winter. He asked indignantly if this wuz or wuz not a free country in which such things wuz permitted. And the Abolishun Postmaster at the Corners approved the tyranikle action. He demanded his removal.

I conceive it to be unnecessary to sub mit further testimony. I know not what luck your other Commissioners may have met with in taking testimony on this subject, but in this vicinity there cant be no doubt that there cant be that love or the Correspondent without which love for the Government without which free institushuns wont flourish to any alarmin extent until this monster is squelched. The testimony is nanimous, and them ez I've examined are representative men.

You may have notist also the singular unanimity with which they all bore testimony to the necessity uv a change in the Post Office at the Corners. I endorse all they say on this question, considerin that that change is ez necessary in the great work uv pacifyin and con-siliashun ez is the removal uv the Burow. In case a change is made, I would say for your guidance that I have been warmly solicited by my friends to accept the posishun, and to pacify em hev at last yielded a reluctant consent. The fact that I never served in the Confederit army may be an objecshun, but to offset that I voted for Vallandyganum twice.

If possible send me a pardon at the same time you send me my commishun as Postmaster, for if the Post Office dont pay, I may want to run for sum other office, in which event that document would be essenshal to my success. With sentiments uv the most profound respect, I am trooly yours, PETROLEUM V. NASBY, Lait Pastor, &c.

[From the Nashville Press and Times.] The Memphis Riot.

The following letter is from a highly respectable citizen of Memphis. Its truth is vouched for by high military authority:

"MEMPHIS, May 2, 1866. "Hon. W. G. BROWNLOW:-Dear Sir -Within the last twenty-four hours scenes have transpired in this city which will send a thrill of horror throughout the Union. The diabolical spirit which has been manifested by the rebel negro-hating party, is enough to make one ashamed of his race. For a long time the Irish police have been only too glad to get an opportunity to "kill a nig-ger." Anything was sufficient to cause the arrest of one, and five dollars could procure his release, according to report. The colored people have hated them, very naturally, and some of the colored soldiers would fight them. Yesterday some colored troops were paid off, and got into a row with the police. One or two were killed on both sides, and then the fact, that new evidence of the power the police called for help, and went into an indiscriminate slaughter of the blacks and privilege of departed spirits to re--especially the soldiers wherever found. turn to this visible world, was produced From all that I can learn, twenty-five or thirty blacks have been killed, nearin Washington the other day. TWO CHARACTERS.

as regards their usefulness. The man who carries his character about in a coach-and four, with outriders and footmen, never imposes upon Mr. Goodwill. Not so with Mr. Flawpick. He speaks contemptuously of rich men,-behind their backs. He hates them, because they have what he has not enough ofmoney. But no man is so obsequious as he when he meets Mr. Goldfinch. He never asks-" Is this man a good citizen ? is he useful in society ?" No more does he ask concerning a measure--" Is this just, equal, right?" He asks-" Is this expedient? is it likely to be popular ?" So we come to the sum of the whole matter: Mr. Goodwill works to increase good, while Mr. Flawpick grumbles about what he' deems inimical to the Flawpick family, and does nothing .--The first is the full pattern of a true man, who dares to do right. The second is an abortion, who has no clear ideas of duty, and would be too selfish to act up to them if he had any. Whatever may be said of the moral quality of "Democratic" editorials, we shall confess to one thing, namely, their remarkable durability. An editorialfrom the Harrisburg Patriot and Union, New York World, News, or the Philadelphia Age, will endure transfer to the editorial columns of a hundred country papers, without credit, and still remain fresh as at the start. As a case tion, namely: ARTICLE -, SECTION 1. All persons en Coppery sheets, during the last two weeks, have regaled their readers with a flaming leader, entitled "A Civil Necessity." As the article is the same in each paper, we are at a loss to decide whether it is in the nature of readymade clothing, or a most remarkable coincidence of ideas. The article wears well, though intellectual shoddy of the loosest texture.

"The Geary shoulder straps having now had their pow-wow, it is to be hoped the 'boys in blue'-the rank and file-will try their hand at a mass convention for Clymer and the Union !" So closes an article in a Copperhead ter the spirit of Bully Brooks obsessed one of unquestioned fidelity.

The Senate passed a bill creating the grade of Admiral in the Navy, on the 14th.

In the House the question of Reconstruction came up in the application of Lewis Hawes, claiming to be Congressman elect from North Carolina. His credentials were referred. A bill to a-mend the national currency act was reported. The object of the bill is to throw new guards against undue expansion around the system. It reduces the tax on circulation one-half, and no bank can have over a million in circulation. It provides for a more equal distribution of banking facilities, without an increase of the net capital. The House passed a resolution instruc-ting the President to furnish official copies of the Constitutional amendment recently passed, to the Governors of the everal States. This morning a man came out of his house and shot down two negroes without the least oc-casion. The hellish spirit manifested by many of the old rebels, has been shocking in the last degree. They are only too glad to get a chance to kill a nigger. They were out on the street with revolvers in their hands, ready to kill at once. This I saw myself.
