COME AND SEE!

To see to be "convinced," and to look will cost you nothing. We extend thanks for former liberal patronage, and only ask that the friends of low prices and small profits will call at our counters and satisfy themselves, that Lawrenceville is the place to buy Goods right.

C. S. MATHER & CO. Lawrenceville, Apr. 25, 1866.

INDUSTRY MUST PROSPER.

Boots, Shoes, Leather & Findings.

GEO. O. DERBY.

HAVING bought the stock and good-will of the business now conducted in this borough by "The SAGE BROS." will continue the same at the stand lately occupied by them. Good custom work, made to order and warranted, will be the first thing to order at this shop; but special attention will also be given to keeping up a good stock of LEATHER AND FINDINGS, Such as SOLE AND UPPER, LININGS, BINDING, PEGS, THREAD, NAILS, LASTS, AWLS, WAX, &c., and, in general, the various items usually kept at a shoe shop. Cash paid for used shoes, and particular attention given to the purchase of wanted discarded shoes, for which the highest market price will be paid. HAZARDOUS DEED PROMPTLY AND WELL.

GEO. O. DERBY. Having sold the stock in trade and good-will of the business lately conducted by us at Mr. Derby, we cordially recommend him to our old customers, as a good workman, and a square-dealing man. CHAS. W. & GEO. W. SEARS Wellsville, May 2, 1866.

Whitneyville Wool Carding and Cheese Box Factory!

THE firm of Avery & Whitney having been dissolved by mutual consent, the business will hereafter be conducted by the subscriber. I have purchased a Double Doffer, thirty inch CARDING MACHINE, capable of carding 500 pounds of wool in twenty-four hours. So I can safely promise to card wool as fast as it comes in, and people will not have to wait for their rolls. Mr. MARVIN SMITH, well and favorably known to the people of this region, has been engaged to run the machine. I am also prepared to make CHEESE BOXES to order and on short notice. Dairymen will please take notice. TURNING DONE TO ORDER, AND SAWED SHINGLES always on hand. I intend to do work so well and so promptly, that people will make nothing by going away from home to get their work done. Whitneyville, May 16, 1866-4f.

ing fanatics, who ought to be in Bedlam; of small politicians, whose only ambition is to steal a march on their rivals; of those philosophers, who have no other theories, but who have not a single practical idea; and of weak minded members, who are entirely under the control of the jobbers in the lobby, and are paid accordingly.

Stop and reflect, ye misled members of the Republican ranks, ere proceeding further in support of this degenerate monopoly. Confiding in the wisdom and integrity of your forefathers, and following the dictates of your own impartial judgment, you espoused a cause which this prophetic saint of straddled-fence glory informs you is degrading in its moral and political tendency. Disregarding the patriotic appeals of Vallandigham, Voorhees, Harris, the Woods, and others of like capacity, during a fearful civil struggle, you gave your unqualified support to this same scheming Congress, which proclaimed its policy abroad the supremacy of our glorious Union. How can you ever repair this error? Look! the prophet Bennett, his gray locks blown about by popular currents, his piercing eye looking with intrusive deep into the nation's affairs, has prophesied much worse with the handling of hard coin, and points to the October ballot-box.

Boys, who danced in blue to the tune of Yankee Doodle during the late four years' Ball, ally your prejudices, and recall in recollection sweet the sectional greetings of your Southern partners—the elegant banquets prepared for your special benefit at Belle Isle and Andersonville—and the kind encouragement from your conservative friends, when you were weary with such dancing, to know Jack's return for these hospitable obligations at the October election. You have heard of Clymer, and you are slightly acquainted with Geary, one of your late floor managers. One of these men will be our next Governor. Which shall it be?

A lot of land situated in the township of Charleston, in said county of Tioga, bounded on the north by Bingham lands, on the east by lands of Henry Smith, on the south by lands of Wood, and on the west by lands of David Owens; containing about 100 acres. Terms of sale cash. J. L. KINGSBURY, Adm'r. Charleston, July 11, 1866-4f.

Farm for Sale.

THE undersigned having purchased a portion of the Township of Berry farm, lying just outside of the borough of Tioga, north and west of Crooked creek and Tioga river, desires to sell about eighty acres of it, on reasonable terms.

It is situated on the Tioga valley, and for its quality and proximity to the railroad, and a good home market, is one of the most desirable farms for a home in the county of Tioga. The price will depend somewhat upon the amount of money the purchaser may pay at the time of sale, yet if necessary time will be given for a portion, secured by bond and mortgage.

Also for sale a number of pleasant building lots, in the city of Tioga, Pa. July 11, 1866-8f. C. H. SEYLER, Adm'r. Bradford Reporter please copy and send bill to this office.

THE undersigned having been appointed an Auditor to distribute the moneys arising from Sheriff's sale of real estate in the case of F. E. Annot v. Abram Foulkrod, will attend to the duties of his appointment, at the office of Wilson & Niles, in Wellsville, on Wednesday, the 8th of August, 1866, at two o'clock P. M. C. W. BEACH, Auditor.

THE undersigned having been appointed an Auditor to distribute the moneys arising from Sheriff's sale of real estate in the case of Bill & Sweet vs. A. L. S. ted by 100 majority. This gives us two more Senators and one Representative. It is hard on our opponents, but strictly true.

"Deserters shall vote," says a Copperhead sheet published in the eastern part of the State.

This affirmation comes upon the heels of the decision of the Supreme Court, through Judge Woodward, that election officers cannot refuse the votes of deserters until they (the deserters) shall have been convicted by court martial.

But it is amusing to note the exultant tone of the Copperhead press in declaring that "deserters shall vote." We suppose it is safe enough to say, that out of every hundred deserters, ninety-nine will vote the Copper ticket. Therefore this great rejoicing thereupon.

But the papers so exulting are mistaken in saying that the Republicans regret having refused the ballots of deserters.

Were we an election officer, we should still refuse to receive the vote of a man whom we believed from the evidence to be disqualified to vote, no matter from what cause. Any man, not a deserter, can produce the evidence of the fact, just as he produces the evidence of citizenship. If he refuse to do it, or cannot do it, then he must take the consequences.

Our opponents must not suppose that desertion can be made honorable by the decision of Judge Woodward. It will remain a crime and stain so long as the American people are worthy of a free country. We do not forget that Judge Woodward himself is a traitor in all that constitutes the essentials of treason. Hence the decision.

If HORACE GREELEY thinks treason should go unwhipped of justice, let him say so. If he thinks Davis ought to be released on parole, let him define what he means by that. If Davis is a prisoner of war, what hinders his arraignment before a court-martial? If he thinks the President does not want to try Davis, say that. If a housebreaker is caught in the act, who doubts his guilt? If he be guilty, prima facie, why not go through the forms of legal trial, and leave it with a jury to say if men may ransack other folk's houses with impunity?

A Honesdale paper announces the organization of a "Johnson-Clymer Club." That's hard upon both parties. We hope the issues of the campaign will be as clearly set forth everywhere.

Piety, like other virtues, may degenerate, and make men mad. The clergyman, named Lindsley, of Medina, N. Y., who a few weeks ago whipped his little three-year-old boy to death because he would not say his prayers, is a case in point.

Mr. Lindsley is a wretched bigot. That's all. Bigotry like his made the Book of Martyrs possible.

What ought to be done with Mr. Lindsley, who whipped a three-year-old boy to death because he refused to say his prayers?

Is it best to hang him? Do better than that. First ascertain if murder is a crime. Then fix its enormity. Then—well, then why not release him on parole? That is the fashion.

The soldiers in the central and southern part of the State are organizing clubs under the name of "The National Union Boys in Blue."

The soldiers in Tioga county are second to none in the State for loyalty and devotion to Republican principles. But they are likely to be second to all in the work of organization. Why not organize?

DESTRUCTIVE FIRES!

THE CITY OF PORTLAND IN ASHES—TWO THOUSAND BUILDINGS BURNED AND TWENTY THOUSAND FAMILIES SHELTERLESS. LOSS $10,000,000.

Portland, Maine, was nearly swept clean by a destructive fire, which broke out at five o'clock, July 4, and raged until the next evening. The track of the fire was a mile and a half long and eighty rods wide, swallowing up all the banks, hotels, churches, and newspaper offices, as well as the large storeshouses, Custom House and Post Office. The loss is $10,000,000, upon which there may be insurance for $4,000,000.

From our exchanges we make out the following table of losses by fire during the three days ending Saturday, July 7: Portland, $10,000,000. New York, 425,000. Dunkirk, 12,000. Bowling Green, Ky., 12,000. Nevada, 125,000. Indiana, 60,000. Newport, Ky., 10,000. Utica, 200,000. Philadelphia, 20,000. Brooklyn, 15,000.

Total, $10,921,000.

[For the Agitator.] Dictator: Bennett.

Notwithstanding the trouble of following up the Mexican muddle, and the European imbroglio, this sagacious dogger still finds time to vent his natural feelings regarding the action of an obstinate Congress, in language sufficiently strong to satisfy even the most rabid of his southern friends; and one would think that the members of the so-called conservative republican clique would be anxious to appreciate the distinguished and patriotic motives which inspire such an eloquent burst of no-party feeling.

In the Herald of June 30th, after commenting upon the probable effects of the National Convention to be held in August at Philadelphia, and of which he places Senators Doolittle, Dixon and Cowan among the leaders, he thus graphically pictures the appearance of Congress:

"When we look at the present Congress we behold the Republican party as it exists in its moral and political degeneracy. A more corrupt body than this Congress never disgraced any country. It is an immense, concentrated, detestable job from beginning to end. It is composed of men who made districts for the purpose of electing to Congress Generals, who killed only their own men; of knavish contractors, who purchased their seats in order to continue their robberies of the Treasury; of ravradical enough in 1861. So Mr. Cowan was elected.

But time, which is said to make all things even at the last, has reversed Mr. Cowan's position. He now, abhors radicalism. Indeed, he began to abhor everything radical before he had twice sniffed a usurber's breath in the Senate chamber. He is just as radical now as he was six years ago, of course. We only hope he may be permitted to lead the new party. If there is a man named among the signers to the two calls who can more expeditiously run any measure, or party, into the ground, than he, we are greatly mistaken.

Alexander Randall, another of the hybrids who were propagated
