fossed by a Bull.- Pur village was is seene of a little excitement last Monday evetag, caused by a rumor that William Dickinson, dest son of Mr. John Dickinson, living a mile the village, had been toned by a vicious all, and severely if not fatally injured. Extravgant rumors prevailed, but the facts, we are glad state, did not warrant them.

Rappears that the young man went into the feid to drive home the cows, when he was attackum the rear by the bull, which, up to that monent, was supposed to be perfectly tractable.-The first notice given to William was a toss in the er, after which he remembers nothing up to the me he was carried into the house. His injuries rere severe, being in the nature of bruises chiefly, and a gash above the right temple. It was a nar-

HENRY ALLEN, Esq., of Mansfield, delivered a te oration, which was listened to with great atsation by a large nesembly. The rain in the stenoon drove the people to take shelter under springs and elsewhere, but everybody was in good humor.

The Morris Run brass band was present, and sided much to the enjoyment of the day. . After the eration, the Pusileers, a company of Fantasics, under the lead of a skillful captain, paraded and went through various comical evolutions, Tith which the crowd was highly delighted. This was followed by a chase for a greased pig.

ttack race, and climbing a greased pole, all of thich is reported to have passed off satisfactorily. But not the least creditable fact attendant upon it celebration, was the perfect sobriety and con-"quent good order which prevailed. . The Blosstagers may well be proud of it.

THE WEATHER.—We are in the midst 's heated term. For ten sudorific days and ights even the richest of our citizens have Moun what it is to wear dewy frontlets, while ach as have labored have been almost washed iter. Only the lean and lank have had the hear! in smile: the obese, panting, like the hart, for being streams in the midst of running streams. Febrevantenances suggestive of long prayers for 'a n and a breath of fresh air.

We do not rejoice in fat; yet have we suffered in common with all. Sitting there, jotting down these words for want of better, our eyes sting as l just out of a surf bath, and the perspiration emps down the pen into the ink, giving the latter it unpleasant pallor. We can't help but think it "ould be a capital time for repentant prodigals to write their stern "parients"; because, do. you fee, it is next to impossible for one to write with " letting tall great ewest-drops upon the paper end these briny deposits look precisely like tears -lenitential tears, it you please; for there canect be much difference between one drop of brack-

And then the dust. Not a drop of rain for ten days, say, and every footfall kicking up such a dust! It falls everywhere; on your just washed hands, and lo! mud! It sticks to your dewy

DR: PRATT, of the Corning Journal, celebrates the fifteenth year of that paper under his editorship, in a graphic review of the progress of the country during that period. When he spok charge of the Journal it was a "Silver Gray" organ, but the Doctor, being a "Woolly Head," soon trained its tone to radical utterances, in which it has abounded ever since. Only once the Doctor fell from grace-when he undertook to defend Thurlow Weed. But we forgive him, just as we forgive men who voted for Pierce and Buchenau. The Journal, under the Doctor's management. has become one of the best country papers in the North. Locally it is superior to most. Our wish for him is that he may live to make a daily edition and finally retire worth a million.

A POINT ON WHICH ALL PHYSICIANS AGREE. —Out of ten thousand, regular physicians you cannot find one who will not say that stimulants and invigorants are absolutely necessary in medi-cal practice. And yet in bygone years humand practitioners have hesitated to administer them, because the figurish ingenuity of wretches who make merchandize of human infirmities, had so polluted and deteriorated them that the remedy perplexity is happily done away with. Physicians how, because the first analytical chemists of the age have demonstrated the fact, that HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS are absolutely and entirely free from all perni-cious elements. Hence they have been introduced whereon the testimony of the wise, the intelli-gent and the philanthropic is rated at its just value, as the best protective against and cure for all diseases arising from impurity in the air or other unhealthy climate influences, that has ever been tested by experience. In cases of Dyspep. sia and Liver Complaint, we state, without qualification or reservation, that the Bitters are as nearly infullible as anything prepared by human
