try and the world dishonored and dedetermined to save or perish with the graded.

The ordinary calumnies of the Copperheads and traitors were coined in the most frightful maledictions against you. I know of no scene in history where a legate to "my policy" convention. public character, for an act of inexcusable weakness, was at the same time so universally execrated by one party, and so indulgently and magnanimously treated by another. Any true man, equally unfortunate and equally forgiven and defended, would have turned to the great Republican Union party, and have said, "For this act of noble clemency, I am bound to you through life and unto death; that which you have done this day places me under obliga-tions from which I can never escape, and which I shall forever cherish. I feel that I have disgraced you and dis-honored myself, ; and by a life of grati-tude I will prove that, although unwor-thy of your confidence and unworthy of your vindication, I can at least do my best to atone for my offence."

But as you seem to be made of differ-ent metal from such a character, you have not only coolly forgotten the generous men who saved you from disgrace but are now engaged in the pleasant pas time of slandering them and proscrib-ing their friends. I will postpone a description of my own part in that sad dra-ma, preferring to wait for the other private revelations you promise to lay before the country. It is very certain that, if you have forgotten all shame, you cannot have forgotten my connection with yourself during that unhappy exwith yourself during that unhappy ex-perience. Probably no more graphic and instructive page could be added to the history of your Administration than a detailed account of that celebrated day. I have not been as careful in treasuring all the incidents as you have been in preserving the private letters of stitution! Copperheaddom and rebel-the gentlemen whom you intended to dom, rolled into one rollicking Gil Blas, betray; but where my own memory fails. I shall be able to eke out a complete narrative by turning to the copious and fascinating columns of those traitor and copperhead newspapers which are now defending your character and your conduct. J. W. FORNEY.

A Frank Reply.

The following letter from John S. Mann, Esq., of Coudersport, Potter co., Pa., is pointed and opportune. Ran-dall, chief of the Bread-and-Butter brigade at Washington, addressed Mr. Mann, supposing him to be still postmaster at Coudersport, a position which he occupied up to January last, when he took his seat as a Representative in the Legislature from his county. Not knowing that he had resigned, Randall sent him, as to all other officials, a printed circular, and Mr. Mann's reply is as follows: "COUDERSPORT, July 6, 1866. "Hon. A. W. Randall,

"Dear Sir: Your favor of June 25, enclosing a call for a National Union Convention, is received, with a request that if the call meets my approbation, I will signify it by a brief letter for publica-

"I presume I have as good a right to signify my dissent as approval of this call, and I therefore take the liberty of saying that I have no sympathy with it nor with the men whose names are signed to it. "In the spring of 1862 I spent some weeks in Washington, and every day was a listener to the great debate in the Senate on the right and duty of confiscating the property of traitors. The speeches of Messrs. Cowan, Doolittle and Browning on that occasion, were all of them calculated, if not intended, to throw obstacles in the way of the triumph of our arms; and when I returned home I told my friends those Senators would all land in the camp of the Copperheads before the contest was set-The endorsement of this call by the Copperhead members of Congress, shows that it is the bridge over which a betravers of their constituents are

CIRCULATION 1,650. FOR GOVERNOR

MAJ.-GEN. JOHN W. GEARY, OF CUMBERLAND COUNTY.

The Clinton Republican says that the rumor that L. A. Mackey, Esq., of that county, will take the field as an independent candidate against Mr. Wilson, seems unfounded. We should hope so. There can be no half-way work this fall.

A bottle of "Constitution Life Syrrator," are very much needed-at the record of the County is a good one, and Philadelphia Convention. Poor Constitution! Copperheaddom and rebelare about to undertake your case. There will be a post mortem, a "crowner's" inquest, and a verdict of "died of disgust."

COMING UP TO BREATHE.

It will be remembered that the Chicago Convention of 1864, after nominating McClellan and declaring the war a failure, adjourned to meet at the call of the Executive Committee. Usually, such Conventions adjourn sine die. This did not.

Therefore, when we saw by the papers that there was to be a grand rally of the Bread-and-Butter brigade at Philadelphia August 14, instant, we at once recognized the re-assembling of the Chicago Convention.

Evidently the Chicago monster is coming up to breathe. Upon the exposure of the Order of the Knights of the Golden Circle, and the surrender of Lee and Johnston, the monster sounded, as the whalemen say, and has never since 'revisited the glimpses of the moon." It will come up to breathe next Tuesday, in latitude 40 N. and longitude 60 E. from Washington.

When such monsters rise for breath they commonly blow, and proceed to kick the bucket in great and sanguinary agony.

There has been a slight ripple on the surface of the political sea for some weeks. The harpoon cast into the Chicago monster by the Union party in 18-64, evidently chafed it sorely. First came the general order No. 1, commanding the rank and file of the Breadand-Butter brigade-that is, the postmasters and other salaried officers of the Government-to show their hands .-The question briefly put was: "What is your market price?" signed the call for that Convention, 22 of the highest rank named served only were signed from two to ten months each. Two are not on record at all, and one was a drafed man. them.

The Soldiers' County Convention, which met in the Court House on the 27th ultimo, was one of the most intelligent and efficient assemblages upon which we have had the honor to attend. Twenty four districts were represented fully, which, taking into consideration the busy season of the year, may be conbusiness, order and decorum, it ranked first class and receives the warm commendation of our citizens.

By the proceedings, which we publish elsewhere, it will be seen that the action of the Pittsburg Soldiers' Convention was ratified unamiously, and steps to perfect a County organization up," another of "Constitution Water," | of Soldiers taken. as the PRESS is concerned, there is not the slight-est danger of the betrayal of 1864, in the Congressional canvass. We understood that both the gentlemen named were candidates for our namiation, and that neither would lend themselves to any disorganizing scheme. No patched ticket can command twenty votes outside of the Copperhead party in Centre, on Congress or anything else. Mr. Wilson's votes and public course are endorsed, and he will be supported with cheerful-ness and energy by us. We regard his re-nomi-nation and election as fixed facts."

We knew our friend of the Bellefonte

Press well enough to know that he would not be a party to any disorganizing schemes. Having been assured that Mr. Armstrong would not be a candidate, and not having seen anything in the Lock Haven paper about Mr. Mackey's candidacy, it occurred to us that these rumors might herald the schemes of disorganizers. HON S. F. WILSON .- The Bellefonte

His reelection is a mat-ter of certainty, and the tories who speak of a division in our ranks on defanct Johnsonism feel it in their bones and believe it in their rotten and treasonable hearts."

Still, it is best for all parties that this third party plot be worked out fully. Let us have a "Johnson Republican" candidate by all means. Perhaps the Democracy will vote for him. The West Branch Bulletin, in noting the fact that Messrs. Armstrong, of Lycoming County, and Mackey of Clinton County, have been spoken of as a candidate, for Congress, says : " So far as this county is concerned, there are Republican party, who make any opposition to Mr. WILSON. He has made a record which has
