

New Advertisements. J. Hilliard. J. Hilliard.

HUGH YOUNG has just got in a fine lot of frames for pictures, oval, square, octagon, and of every style. They are very rich.

THE SOLDIERS' BOUNTY bill having become a law, we direct attention to the advertisement of Captain John L. Mitchell, of this borough, in another column.

Mr. JOSEPH WILLIAMS, of this borough, is about establishing a drug store at Blossburg. Mr. W. is an obliging and enterprising business man, and has our best wishes for success in his new field of operation.

FOLEY has just received another lot of silver ware, among which we notice and admire the styles of castors, ditto of sugar bowls, and the beautiful little essentials to a breakfast and tea service. He has more of those unexcelled American wares.

PERSONAL.—Hon. STEPHEN F. WILSON reached home on Tuesday last, looking as fresh and vigorous as if he had been leaning against the North Pole, instead of sitting in the capital at Washington with the mercury among the nineties. Everybody was glad to welcome him home.

BUSINESS CHANGE.—Messrs. O. Bullard and A. A. Truman have associated themselves in the mercantile business, and may be found at an old stand on Main street, prepared to serve the trading public with late purchases.

THE MARKETS.—Flour has declined from two to three dollars per barrel in New York during the last two weeks. New York Extra is now selling at $5 50 and $5 50, at wholesale. Quality is selling at 40 and 65 cents, according to weight. Butter, 30 to 37.

NEW GRIST-MILL.—Messrs. Simeon Bacon and Jacob C. Bartle, of Delmar, are putting up a large flouring mill on Mitchell's creek, a branch of the Story Fork. The mill is 32 by 46 feet, and three stories high. When finished it will have three runs of stones. We congratulate the citizens of Delmar upon this valuable improvement.

CORRECTION.—In a special notice of W. R. Smith's Sons in our last issue, it reads, "go to a low concern," instead of a lie concern, as it is copied had it. Both are right, however—as it is generally understood that their prices are low, while they are alive in business. To prove this fact, call at the People's Store, Addison, N. Y.

TOGA WIDE AWAKE.—A correspondent at Tioga writes us the following cheering intelligence: "Tuesday evening, July 24, the citizens of this village and vicinity put up a fine flag staff, 125 feet high, and ran up a flag with the name of Major General JOHN W. GEARY inscribed thereon. As the flag reached its place, the crowd gave three rousing cheers for Gen. Geary, the next Governor of Pennsylvania. The flag is 25 feet in length. "The Tioga Cornet Band was present, and discoursed some appropriate music. "All honor to Tioga. Her Republicans are never weighed and found wanting."

Messrs. W. R. Smith's Sons, of Addison, N. Y., write us as follows: "We noticed in the August number of Harper's Monthly a funny article about the oddities encountered in print—some through mistakes of the printer, and some otherwise. Perhaps a few of which caused us to smile more widely than the error of your issue of August 1, where you caused us to say, 'go to a low concern,' &c., whereas we had much rather you would say 'go to a lie concern,' &c. Don't you ever see it? Yes, we owe you one. How will you take it?"

A BIT OF WISDOM.—Said a farmer to the other day: "Last fall, a man who owed a debt of not very large proportions, went to his creditor and declared his inability to meet the obligation. The creditor, not wishing to oppress the debtor, granted more time. The other day, continued our friend, 'I passed the premises of this debtor, and saw all the manure made by his stock last winter going to waste in the heap. He had not taken it away for fertilizing purposes. I thought this—that any man who could afford to let his stable manure go to waste, would never be ready to pay his debts.' "We suppose that the general teaching of this fact will not need a word of comment.

SERENADE.—The friends of Hon. S. F. Wilson, accompanied by the Wellboro Band, gave him an impromptu serenade at the Pennsylvania House last Thursday evening. The serenade was intended as an informal welcome home to a faithful public servant and valued fellow citizen. The band discoursed Hail Columbia and Yankee Doodle most eloquently, after which, in response to numerous calls from the crowd, Mr. Wilson appeared and responded in a neat and appropriate speech. He said that he valued the compliment as an endorsement of his course in Congress during a period of national trouble. As such it afforded him very great gratification. After a brief allusion to the living questions of the day, and promising to speak more at length at some future time, he bade his friends good night. The crowd gave three cheers for "Wilson," and dispersed to their homes.

MINISTERS' AND LAYMEN'S ASSOCIATION.—The Troy District M. E. Association, which held its meeting in this village July 31 and August 1, proved a most agreeable and interesting convention. Owing to business and other engagements we did not have the pleasure of being present at all the sessions, much to our regret. The Association presented an unusual array of talent. Dr. Loxe, one of the ablest of divines and denominational editors, preached upon the subject of missions Tuesday evening, to a crowded house. He is one of the most effective speakers in the country, and as respects the theme of his discourse probably no man can better speak by the book. His style is simple and direct, avoiding the ornate and showy, and evidencing thorough mental culture. The Wednesday morning exercises were decidedly interesting. They consisted of essays, sermons, and sketches, each clergyman being limited to fifteen minutes. The criticisms upon these efforts were close-touching logic, manner, rhetoric, grammar, and doctrine. Some of them were rather merciless, but without bitterness. We were seldom absent two hours more pleasantly and profitably.

Wednesday evening the Centenary Meeting was held, and Dr. Lindsay, of Deneseo College, a ripe scholar, addressed a full house. Had this Association assembled two weeks later, the average attendance would have been doubled. It convened during the busy time of the year, when farmers and others find it difficult to leave their business. Still it was a success, and we hope the members may feel so encouraged that we may have the pleasure of reporting their proceedings more at length another year.

PERSONAL.—Rev. A. A. MARPLE, for many years Rector of St. Paul's in this borough, is on a brief visit to his numerous friends. He preached to a large congregation at the Episcopal Church, Sunday morning and evening. Mr. MARPLE will preach next Sunday morning at the same place, and at Tioga in the evening.

BIG DAY'S WORK! Probably as big, if not the biggest day's work ever done in a saw-mill, was done in Bennett & Newhall's steam mill, Charleston, last Thursday. On that day those five lumbermen turned out 27,172 feet of pine lumber, chiefly boards, with a single circular saw, in eleven hours. The work done at their mill averages 17,512 feet per day. Will somebody beat it?

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.—We are requested to give notice that Bishop Lee, acting for Bishop Stevens, will visit the following named places in this county at the times given: Tioga, Tuesday, August 21, evening. Lawrenceville, Wednesday, August 22, evening. Wellboro, Thursday, August 23, evening. Fall Brook, Friday, August 24, evening. Blossburg, Saturday, August 25, evening. Mansfield, Sunday, August 26, A. M. Blossburg, Sunday, August 26, P. M.

SILICATE.—Our recluse friend, SILEX FLINT, sends us greeting from his hermitage in the Caves of Silence, the following: "I have observed that the man who flings dirty water against the wind, invariably bespatters himself. "Public opinion is of many grades. Among thieves, public sentiment applauds skillful robbery, adroit swindling, and embezzlement. Among men who rejoice in obscene filth, public opinion applauds filthy conversation and all kinds of grossness. "I have observed, however, that the glory and prosperity of a country is won by the virtuous and upright, who constitute the bulk of its citizens and uphold the State by their good habits. "A vicious nature declares itself in the lines, and contour, and expression of the countenance; in the affected deportment; in the swaggering gait. "Bad men are intensely self-conscious. Being transparent to themselves, they dread inspection. They walk everywhere confronted by the reflection of their evil thoughts and distorted passions. "The spring of sin is paradise in a mud hole. "The man of vile instincts wallows in filth, and says, exultingly, 'I have found wit, humor, eloquence and logic herein.' "The spirit of the ungodly man regards gold, and silver, and precious stones as dress, and public virtue as pure gold. "Furthermore, when the whirling coach wheel beatters the wretched man, he waits patiently for it to dry, and then brushes it off."
