

Under the above caption the Indian apolis (Ind.) Journal prints the follow-ing translation from the Unsere Zeit; a German radical sheet of that city. It percus ridiculous twaddle sent from Fortress ly empinroe regarding Jeff. Davis that we that side seen:

hundr OFFICIAL BULLETIN .-- Official ri<sup>1</sup> bulletins regarding the health of the distinguished prisoner, Jefferson Davis, which were recently transmitted to his Majesty, Monsieur Veto, as per order: FIRST BULLETIN.

FIRST BULLETIN. Fortress Monroe, May 23-9 A. M. His Excellency, Ex-President Jeffer-son Davis, has just been pleased to a-wake and rise from his couch. Altho the distinguished captive had an unbro-ken rest for twelve hours, he yawned twice within five minutes after awakening, which causes me much uneasiness

SECOND BULLETIN-10 A. M. With much pleasure I have the honor to send you the caering intelligence that the distinguished prisoner sneezed at five minutes twenty-three seconds of at ive minutes twenty-three seconds of ten. This important occurrence justi-fies the best hopes. THIRD BULLETIN-10<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> A. M. I regret to inform you that my antici-pations were too hasty. When I ob-served the prisoner at breakfast, I no-tiond that he sould diverge of only one ticed that he could dispose of only one beefsteak, one spring chicken, one dish of asparagus, and one plateful of green peas.

FOUETH BULLETIN-12 M. Great excitement prevails in all parts of the fort. Notwithstanding the close attention which I constantly bestow upon the illustrious prisoner, I could not prevent his injuring himself in the upper joint of the left index finger, while fastening his breastpin. The loss of blood was terrible. According to my superficial calculation, he must have lost 51 drops.

FIFTH BULLETIN-4 P. M. FIFTH BULLETIN-4 F. m. The illustrious prisoner, after having his wound dressed, had a good rest of three hours. I do not think that it will superinduce death. To be prepared for the worst, I would recommend that 12 assistant surgeons be sent down.

SIXTH BULLETIN-5 P. M. The distinguished prisoner's condition causes me more and more anxiety. A half an hour ago he desired to read the Intelligencer, which contained your last speech and that of your Secretary of the Treasury. That his eyesight might not suffer, I prepared to read the speech to him. I had scarcely finished then the Ulartinue science (for the when the illustrious prisoner (for the when the illustrious prisoner (for the first time since long) epat out, in my opinion a very bad sign. I consider it absolutely necessary that the Surgeon General investigate the spittle, for which reason I shall transmit it, hermetically scaled, per next steamer. GEO. E. COPPERHEAD, Surgeon U. S. A.

It's DAn.—An old gentleman farmer who had two or three very pretty daugh-ters, was so very anxious of his charge that he would not permit them to keep the company of young men. However, they adopted the following expedient to enjoy the company of lovers, without the knowledge of their father. After the old man had retired to rest, the girls would hang a sheet out of the window, which was quite a distance from the ground, and the beaux would seize hold of the sheet, and with the assistance of his lady love, who tugged lustily at the his lady love, who tugged lustily at the sheet above, would thus gain an en-trance. But it so happened that one evening the girls hung out the sheet too early, and it was by some ill wind blown around the corner, and the old gentle-... man, spying the sheet. could not con-jecture the meaning of its being there. He took hold and endeavored to pull it down. The girls, supposing it to be one of their beaux, began to hoist, and did not discover their mistake until the head of the old man was level with the win dow sill, when one of them exclaimed. O Lord, it's dad !" and letting go their hold, souse came the old man on the hard stones and ground below, disloca-
