WHITNEYVILLE.—Making a flying unt to Whitneyville last week, we were agreea tly surprised to note the rapid march of improvement which marks the enterprise of its inhabilaute. We visited the cheese factory, and there isw the finest sight that has greeted our eyes for ELLY & day. This was upward of 400 rolden theeses, one as much like the other as twin peas. and weighing in the aggregate upward of 28,000 lounds. Mr. Avery, the superintendent, inform 14 us that they had sold out of the factory 22,000 bonds of cheese, and that the product for the hason would reach \$10,000. We have had occaton to speak of the quality of the cheese made there heretofore, and by trial on this occasion can speak of it as first class. It is delicious. We also visited the roll, cheese box and shinthe factory of Mr. A. H. Avery, and saw there tte teeming perfection of machinery in an imtotalessly and drops two rolls at once. This turns out 400 pounds of rolls each 24 hours. In the same building is machinery for making cheese toles, which is capable of turning out 100 finstied boxes per day. The shingle machine does capital work also. We noticed several new buildings going up,  $^{t \text{then}} g \text{ them a fine church building, enclosed, but}$ Lot yet finished entirely. This is a fine specimen of handscraft and good taste. The slips are of thesinut, varnished, and the walls of hard finish. It is an ornament to the place and an honor to te people.

Charleston will not turn out less than $20,000 with of cheese this year. This factory is mak- $^{11}$ g 400 pounds per day at present, and the other actories are making their proportion.

Messrs. Wilson and Nichols, who teid meetings in the south and east 'parts of the conty last week, found the school house closed sixingt them at the Block House. Upon this, Mr H. SHAFFER, who keeps a public house, ten-fired them the use of his hall, in which he arlanged seats and placed ample lights. Mr. SHAF-Ith deer not vote the Republican ticket, but thinks that the questions at issue will bear distustion. Mr. S. refused all compensation for ighting or the use of the hall.

Wellsboro, Pa., Aug. 7, 1866
Hon. Alex. W. Randall, Washington, D. C. HON. ALEX. W. RANDALL, Washington, D. C. Sir:—I have this day received your favor, enclosing a "Call" for a National Convention at Philadelphia on the 14th inst., with a request that if said "call" meets my approbation I will signify it by a brief letter, and give you authority to pub-

for Randall, as he was for McDowell:

lish the same.

I do not approve it, and I will frankly tell you the reasons why I do not, although I know full well that my frankness involves my removal as Post Master.

I have noticed, and you have noticed, that the men North and South, who propose to attend this 'Union' Convention, are nearly without exception, either pardoned rebels, or those who said openly here in the North, that the South could not be conquered by ferce of arms, and sought to not be conquered by ferce of arms, and sought to make good this prediction by their actual sympathy. I noticed too that every robel, every coffee-boiler, peace-sneak, deserter, bounty-jumper, bospital-bummer and grumbler; every man who got cashiered the service for cowardice or other misconduct; every Copperhead who calls the National Legislature a Rump Congress; and who calls the great party that crushed the Rebellion 'the Dis-Union party;"—all these are in favor of this Convention.

of this Convention.

I notice furthermore, that every man in the South or in the North who is in favor of making treason odious, and making traitors take buck seats; every man in the North who stood by the country through evil and through good report; every man who favors the Constitutional amendments prososed by Congress demanding only guaranties for future security and peace; and every man who values principle more than he does Bread and Butter as the price of principle, is utterly connected to vour convention.

utterly opposed to your convention.

This letter is not written for the newspapers.—
It is an honest statement of the difference between you and me, and if the holding of opinions antagonistic to yours on the reconstruction of the rebel States, disqualifies me from holding this Post Office, I shall make no complaint if removed.

Respectfully your ob't servant,

HUGH YOUNG.

Friend Cobb:—The Young Men's Republican Club gave a public session at the Court House on the evening of the 12th inst. The attendance was large, the court room being filled to its greatest sitting capacity. A marked and pleasing feature of the meeting, was the unusual attendance of ladies. After reading the minutes of the Club, and reports of committees, speeches were made by Hon. H. W. Williams and W. H. Smith, Esq., in which the leading political tonics of the day by Hon. H. W. Williams and W. H. Smith, Esq., in which the leading political topics of the day were plainly and pointedly discussed. The audience gave most excellent attention, and frequently applauded the speakers. The occasion was enlivened by several original songs—vocal and instrumental—by the musical committee. The music gave unbounded satisfaction. Mr. J. B. Shakespear very kindly obliged the committee by the use of his fine instrument.

This association is of a political-literary character, designed to shape the political sentiments of young men about attaining their majority, and who believe in the justness of the general course of Cougress, as opposed to "My Policy"; also, to introduce literary exercises, of a nature intended to produce mutual interest, profit and reform.
