This, they did under the pretext that a State had a constitutional right to secrede from the Union. The same thing had been attempted by S. Carolina in 1833; but, under the vigorits patriotic principles as proclaimed and the right to vote, it cannot, in conformfought for during the war, and declared ity with its own provisions, be amend-it to be the right and duty of Congress ed again until 1869. It is hoped, thereous administration of President Juckson, the effort signally. lailed, and the doctrine on which it was based was repudiated. But in 1856, when the Demnomination was enthusiastically enocratic party at Cincinnati nominated James Buchanan for President, they redorsed by a large and intelligent Con-James Buchanan for President, they re-vived the old State Rights dogma of se-vention of the soldiers and sailors of the cession, by readopting the Virginia and Kentucky resolutions of 1798 and 1799, as a part of their platform. And at the Charleston Convention, in 1850, altho' the party split into it wo parts, the one nominating Doaglass, and the other trons readopted these same resolutions. These resolutions do not hold the rela-tions of the States to the United States as constituting a government in the ordinary and proper sense of the term, as Governor of a Territory. As a vol-but declared them to be merely: a com-unteer soldier he is the pride of his com-us. Nothing but our base betrayal by pact, and that "as in all other cases of

I. Under this free Democratic charter for rebellion, the election of Abraham Lincoln was claimed by the rebel States as an "infraction" of the "compact," and they chose secession and civil war as the "mode," and the 'destruction task the State in the service in the late re-bellion as a Colonel, and fought it all the way through, having been promoted to the exalted rank of Major General. In fact, his career as a member of the Pennsylvania Legislature, and an influ-ential politician during the war, was one continuous, systematic effort to weaken the Government, encourage its enemies, and dampen the ardor of its defenders. He, and such as he, rejoiced at every disaster of our arms, and sank into melancholy on hearing of the defeat of our enemies. A Peace Democrat from the beginning, a Copperhead in all his actions; and if "going back" on our Government in time of danger, and "giving aid and comfort to its enemies," means treason, Hiester Clymer is certainly a very mean traitor. What is worse, with this shameful record staring him in the face, he and his political friends have the impudence to ask the soldiers to vote for hum. These fellows are trying hard to get into the good graees of those now, whom they denounced as "Lincoln hirelings" a few months ago. They evidently have as much "brass" as copper about them. Don't let them deceive you. They are your enemies. Hiester Clymer is your enedoes Jeff. Davis, who murdered and starved, or caused to be murdered and starved, hundreds and thousands of your comtades, in Andersonville and Salisbury.
