march to the polls, shoulder to shoulder, as we often have in battling for an issue not more important than that now

Pennsylvania has a glorious history! From the time our forefathers pledged "their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred bonor," in casting off the yoke of British tyranny, through that seven years of gloom, privations and heroic fortitude, known as the American Rev olution; in the second short but bloody struggle for liberty in 1812; in the memorable and victorious Mexican campaign; and finally during the four years of desperate fighting, heroic endurance, and immense bloodshed, so terribly fresh in your memories, culminating in the subjugation of the most gigantic and stubborn rebellion known in history; -the sons of Pennsylvania did their duty.—
They fought in every prominent engagement from Bunker Hill to Petersburg. The Keystone boys are buried on every battlefield, from the burning spends of Floridate the state of sands of Florida to the green hills of our own Gettysburg.

As fortunate survivors of the late struggle, wherein three hundred thousand patriots fell, you have now an op-portunity of adding fresh laurels to those so worthily won, or having them withered, and crushed, so soon, by the triumph of your enemies. It is for you to decide. The eyes of the nation are upon you. Every loyal citizen; the be reaved mourners, whose relatives and friends fell by your side; the memories of your comrades, who sacrificed their or your comrades, who satrificed their sweet lives to save the Republic; all, all appeal to you, to do your duty.—While we were fighting in the field, our friends at home nobly confirmed their loyalty and sympathy for us, in the reelection of the "Soldiers' Friend"—Andie Curtin. These same patriots will yet for Georg. vote for Geary. It remains to be seen whether we—the soldiers—will unite our strength with theirs in inflicting on these Copperheads an ignominious de-feat; giving them such a scornful rebuke as to send them whining, so far into their holes, that the atmosphere will, for a time, be purified of their poisonous breath; or cast our ballot against a comrade-against those who stood by, and sympathized with us,-against the best interests of our State and nation, and against ourselves. It is the daily boast of the Copperhead politicians and press, that the soldiers will do this.—They talk of "Clymer and the boys in blue," &c. Such allusions should be spurned by every honorably discharged defender of his country, as an insult to his loyalty, to his intelligence, to his manliness. Place Gen. Geary in the Gubernatorial chair, (and I firmly believe we will do this,) and every loyal heart in the land will be gladdened, every lover of liberty will hail the announcement as another triumph over tyranny and oppression. Elect the Democratic (?) candidate, and every Copperhead in the country, every rebel, whether pardoned, "reconstructed" or rampant, will clap his hands with joy and sing hosannas to Hiester Cly-mer, Andrew Johnson and Jeff. Davis. EX-VETERAN.

The Hon. John Hickman Defines His Position.

Several citizens of Chester county Pa., having written a note to the Hon. John Hickman, asking his views on the great political question of the day, have received the following reply: "My answer is given in the following declarations, every one of which I sincerely believe to be true:

I. Mr. Johnson is openly and vindic-tively apostate to the party that placed him in power: as he assured the country he was an unconditional friend to freedom, and he desired to have traitors punished and their crime made odious. He has falsified all his stereotyped assertions, and consequently I look upon him as capable of any enormity-the

II. If he can carry out his plans-and must end in the complete subversion of free institutions.

III. The President is false-but Mr. Seward is infinitely below him in point of political depravity, and is the prime, moving cause of all our present troubles.

IV. The National Legislature would disgrace itself and the nation by admit-ting Senators and Representatives from the late-I may say present-rebellious States, without first providing for the public welfare in the future, and being thoroughly convinced of the loyalty of its new members.

V. The Government is placed in extreme peril by Mr. Johnson and the South, through the malign machinations of Mr. Seward; and to aid in carrying out their skilfully arranged policy would be madness, for it would be irretrievable ruin. VI. In what is attempted to be stig-matized by "Conservatives"—that is blood-dyed criminals and their wicked apologists-as "Radicalism," lies our only safety. The contest, this moment, is between the spirit of despotism and the spirit of freedom, and is as strongly marked and as distinct as in April 1861 I have not been disappointed in Mr. Johnson, for I never placed any confidence in him. Ever since I knew him personally, I have regarded him as a half-crazed, reckless and dissolute man; vain, arrogant and ignorant; and de-clined to support him. I had watched his course closely, and could not but des pise him. I am sorry that my estimate of his character has proven correct. The sun of that day has set forever when I could be cheated by one born and educated, or rather uneducated, under the destructive influence of that Heaven-defying institution, human slavery.

The only security for American citizens and voters, is in combined resistance to demagogues and tyrants. I no time to lose, if they would save them-selves and their posterity. Yours, truly, JOHN HICKMAN.

THE N. Y. HERALD ON THE PROS-PECTS IN PENNSYLVANIA.—The Her-ald of Monday says: "The Union Con-servatives have done, perhaps, as well in Maine as could have been expected under the circumstances, but we are under the circumstances; but we are satisfied they would have done much better had they nominated for Governor a man identified with the Union war party of the war, instead of a hide-bound party politician representing the peace-at-any-price platform of the Chicago Convention. The Democrats of Pennconvention. The Democrats of Pennsylvania, in nominating for Governor Hiester Clymer, a peace man during the war, against General Geary, one of the most distinguished soldiers of the war, did for the radicals the very best'thing that could be done. Nobody supposes that there is a ghost of a chance for Clymer against Geary, and no political philosopher has yet risen to show that while Clymer cannot say a himself that while Clymer cannot save himself he will strengthen the Conservative Congressional ticket in any part of that State. In short, he is a dead weight upon his party."

A farmer, more noted for the care he bestowed upon his fine stock than upon his mode of expression, wrote to the Secretary of an agricultural society in jackass. I'm sure of a premium."

The proposition to increase the salaries of Congressmen was moved by Niblack, of Indiana, a virulent Copperhead, and a majority of the "Democrats" of the House voted for it. But mark this fact: Of the Republicans present and voting, a majority voted against the proposition.

Will some of the noisiest of that party state this undeniable fact to their stupid followers? We guess not.

We publish a card from Dr. W. T. Humphrey in the local column, which effectually squelches the rumor that he was contemplating the betrayal of the Republicans of Tioga county, in voting for a Copper-Johnson U.S. Senator .-We have not believed this cruel rumor, but it was widely circulated and intended to do him some harm. ## BRAND THE LIE!

Every Copperhead speaker, and every paper of that stripe, in this State, is trumpeting the lie that Congress has voted $300 bounty to negro soldiers and but $100 to white soldiers. We have denounced this as a lie, "time and again," but a "white soldier" puts the facts so squarely before the public in the Philadelphia Press, that we extract the burden of his remarks, as follows:

"Previous to the passage of the acts of June 15th, 1864, (section 2,) and July 4th, 1864, (section 1,) but few, if any, of the colored troops were entitled to any bounty. These acts merely placed the colored soldier upon the same footing 'as other soldiers of the regular or volunteer forces of the United States of like arm of the service.' I quote the exact words of the law.

"The only discrimination that exists is in favor of the white soldier, who, by the act of July 28, 1866, is entitled to an EXTRA BOUNTY of one hundred dollars, which the colored soldier does not get. These Copperionnson orators and newspapers know, or ought to know, that these are the facts of the case. It is true that the colored man who served two years can get, and many of them have been paid, $100 bounty; so has the white man; but the white man, by the act of July 28, 1866, is entitled to ANOTHER $100, which the colored soldier cannot get as there were no colored troops in the service at the time for which this $100 ance to demagogues and tyrants. I extra bounty is to be paid. This bill would now warn them that they have was signed by President Johnson; and it is rather strange to see the friends o the President trying to bring discredit upon Congress for passing a bill which he himself approved, and which would not have become a law without his signature.

"Why is this extra bounty of $100 to the white troops not paid? The bill allowing it has passed both Houses of Congress, and been approved by the President. There is money enough in the Treasury to pay it; and if it is not paid, it is the fault alone of the President. dent and his officeholders. They are withholding the payment of this extra bounty for no other purpose than to influence the elections. Let the white soldiers hold them responsible for it."

SOLDIERS, if one of you can read the article on our first page addressed to you and not desire to meet and embrace the gallant writer, you are less susceptible than we. It is the invitation of a young man who enlisted in 1861, served as a private and non-commissioned officer for the entire war, having re-enlisted in 1864. He is one of nature's noblemen, a gentleman, modest to a fault, brave, faithful, and good. The production itself marks him as a young man of superior intellect; in fact, this young priregard to entering his animals for the premiums offered, and added, by way of posteript: "Also enter me for the best that "To Soldiers." tled "To Soldiers."

WITH THE FLAG."

If there is a Republican in Tioga county who overlooks the vital need of vigilance and action from this hour to the hour of closing the polls on the 9th day of October, we pity him.

We say to him, and to all, that no man living, no child living, will ever witness an election so fraught with destiny as that which the freemen of Pennsylvania will hold on the 9th day of October.

The issues are plain: We will state them briefly, and without surplusage.

Shall Congress make the laws, or shall Andrew Johnson make them? Shall loyal and tried men reconstruct the Union, or shall traitors do it? Shall the President obey the people, or shall the people obey the President?

Demagogues may seek to cover up these issues by creating new ones. They will attempt to do this, doubtless. They will lie, as usual, and they will misrepresent without scruple, as usual. The Republicans of Tioga county will ote them down—as usual. But our duty as a journalist must be performed; and we utter the earnest tors, editors, and handbills. One would suppose that that party would be wary and hesitant about raising the old cry of "nigger" in Tioga county. But they think the people forgetful of the immediate past. They are mistaken. Only fools forget.

We see posted and circulated a caricawhite men at work to support him. The text of this unartistic lie is a tissue of lies. The Freedmen's Bureau, against titute men and women, without distincneys expended under its operation, have been expended in relieving the necessities of the whites. It has distributed women who used to own, and flog, and sell negroes before the war.

And remember this: The white and black men of this county are now paying taxes to pay the debt incurred in suppressing a rebellion concocted and carried on by the leaders of the so-called Democratic party. This cannot be denied. Every prominent leading rebel, with Jeff. Davis at their head, was, and is to-day, a Democrat of the Hiester Clymer and Theodore Wright school.

The scoundrels! They get up a conspiracy to overthrow the Government Republicans combine to put them down. and do put them down, but at a vast expense of blood and treasure. Then the conspirators taunt us with involving the country in debt!

As well may the thief and murderer taunt the Commissioners of Tioga county with expending public money to try and convict them and send them to the penitentiary! Can brass go farther? These fellows try our patience. But they must be endured. They were the allies of traitors in arms, and they are the allies of traitors disarmed. Treason is not dead. It does not sleep even. It is rampant wherever you find beled "State," enclosing the name of Southern rebels and Northern Copper-

> These advocates of Hiester Clymer and Theodore Wright were "Peace Democrats" during the war. They now appear, and strut the stage, as "War Democrats." What next?

Why, after the 9th of October, when Gen. Geary will be elected Governor of Pennsylvania and the 40th Congress shall be proved overwhelmingly radical Republican, we suppose these fellows will go about swearing that they are radical Republicans! Why not? From intense pro-slavery men they profess to have become abolitionists, and they actually employ a man who professes to have been an original anti-slavery man for a quarter of a century, to stump it in Tioga county! Last, year they were opposed to the abolition of slavery. This year they endorse the abolition of slavery. Next year they will claim to be radical Republicans, and in 1868 they will be in for negro suffrage swearing all the while that they never change.

Friends-the cry of "Negro" will not go through the graveyard of a dark night. Fears of negro equality will not disturb any man who is not already the inferior of the African in his own private judgment.

As for the rest-the Republican party perhead party through the ballot-box. lightest punishment they can expect.— Let us strike together, and render treason odious and traitors infamous.

The "demnition Bow-wows," as the classic Mantilini used to put it, are abroad in Tioga county. The Union is in danger again. The bluffers of the Boo-hoos are on one flank, and the bowwows on the other. Good people-if the Union is in danger, it is in danger from the plots of rebels and their Copperhead allies. The party which saved the Government from destruction at the hands of South- Mackey. ern traitors and Northern sympathizers, will again, this time with the ballot, rescue the nation from its great peril.

Republicans may rest entirely easy about Generals Grant, Sherman, Sheridan, and other noted Union Generals. Not one of these men are believers in diers' Convention at Cleveland, and not one of them will aid Andrew Johnson to put the Government into the hands of rebels and Copperheads. Remember this. The future will demonstrate the truth of this affirmation.

We notice that there is a "Conservawhich is devoted to the envisble task of

"DOWN WITH THE TRAITORS-UP tub. "Will you walk into my parlor? Commissioners' Sale of Seated and said the spider to the fly." We have read of Conservatives. We knew some of that sort of folks in 1861. They lived in Maryland, and acted as go-betweens between Washington and Richmond. Just stroke the hair the wrong way once, and you will find a Copperhead under every coat, labeled Conservative."

Alas for the Copperjohnsons! After all their boasting that they had not only the President but the army, in the person of Gen. Grant, and the navy, in the person of Admiral Farragut, it turns out that neither Gen. Grant nor Farragut endorse the President's policy.-Gen. Grant authorizes the correspondent of the Chicago Republican to say that he is no politician. That he does not endorse the President's policy; and that no man who was not loyal in 1861 should have his support. Among these objectionable traitors he classed Hiester Clymer, and declared that it was an insult to any loyal man to ask him to vote for such a man.

As the President delivered over the Constitution to every crowd which he addressed during his late tour, the queswords of warning against the lies and tion arises as to how he reclaimed it so as to make the delivery to the next misrepresentations of Copperhead oracrowd.

Or did he have a pocket full of constitutions to give away? . .

The Maine election has convinced Bennett, of the New York Herald, that Johnson is wrong and Congress right. In his Wednesday and Thursday issues ture of a negro taking his ease, and of last week he says that the defeat of the President in Maine shows conclusively that not a Northern State will endorse, "my policy," that the Fortieth Congress will be more radical than the present one, and that Johnson's insane to the present one, and that Johnson's insane to the present one are the present one and that Johnson's insane to the present one are the present one and that Johnson's insane to the present one are the present speeches have, in concert with the massacres in Memphis and New Orleans, utterly routed the Copper-Johnsons .-Bennett is right this time.

> Montgomery Blair and Henry J. Raymond threaten war on the part of the South unless Johnson's policy shall prevail. These fellows must be given to understand that what they cannot get by favor they must not hope to conquer by arms. The South will never wage war against the North, unless, as before, Northern traitors egg them on. The South will have to strike the first blow if there is to be war.

The rebel Gen. Forrest, the hero of the Fort Pillow slaughter of Union prisoners of war, sent a telegram of congratulation to the Johnson Soldiers' Convention at Cleveland. The Convention, which consists of Brigadier Generals and Colonels, chiefly, sent a message of thanks to the gallant and heroic assassin. Comment is unnecessary.

Among the brood of lies set afloat by the Copperheads this fall, was one declaring that Gen. Grant and Admiral Farragut endorsed President Johnson's policy.

We are glad to be able to state that neither of those gentlemen endorse Andrew Johnson's policy of reconstruction. Even the reporter of the N. Y. Herald says in one of his late letters land. own funeral. The man who is not disgusted with Mr. Johnson's speeches, must be a very low sort of a blackguard.

The pleasures of the unreconstructed are various. In Louisiana they consist in massacreing unarmed Union men .-In Memphis, ditto. In Missouri, the rebels of Platte city attacked a Republican Convention which assembled on the 15th instant, killing four and wounding many more. The rebels then drove every Union man out of the city, and swear that none of them shall live there.

These jolly rebels are all Andrew Johnson men. They delight in carrying out "my policy" to its legitimate results. We hope that Gov. Fletcher will issue letters of marque to the Union men of Missouri and give these rebel outlaws over to their tender mercies.

The New Jersey Legislature convened last week and ratified the Constitutional amendment published in this paper under the head of "Reconstruction" frighten any man who is not afraid to last week. It also elected a Radical U. S. Senator in the place of Stockton, unseated. Good.

The Blair meeting at Mansfield on Tuesday of last week was rather better than that in this place the day before must punish these leaders of the Cop- Fall Brook was represented in force, yet the universal verdict is, that two-thirds Deprivation of place and power is the of the balance of the crowd were Republicans. Mr. Blair will not put down his tour in Tioga among his pleasant notings.

Dunham, of the Williamsport moral and literary paper, is on the anxious sent. In his last number there is not a word about Wilson, and not more than Copperhead party are out in force; the 990 lies. Add to this the fact that he has hauled down Geary's name, in obedience to the command of his Copperhead keepers, and he presents himself before the public as a political orphan with a very bad cold in the head. Alas for D. S. D! Put not your faith in

The Erie Dispatch says: "An old lady managed to be introduced to General Grant at the depot at this place, and greeted him with tears and affection .-I am so glad to see you,' said she, 'for had four boys in the war. Two were killed, and two badly wounded. I am Andrew Johnson's policy. Not one of glad to see you, even though you are them attended the late Johnson-Sol- now in bad company.' This is a fact." THE PICTORIAL BOOK OF ANECDOTES AND INCIDENTS OF THE REBELLION. Heroic, Patriotic, Romantic, Humorous and Trag-

This is a certain portion of the war that will never go into the regular histories, and will not get embodied in romance or poetry, which is a very real part of it, and will, if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict than many dry reports or careful narratives of events, and this pert may be called the gossip, the fun, the pathos of the war.

These illustrate the character of the leaders, the humor of the soldiers, the devotion of women, the bravery of men, the pluck of our heros, the romance and hardships of the service. From the beginning of the war the author has been en-gaged in collecting all the anecdotes connected with or illustrative of it, and has grouped and lassified them under appropriate hands, and in The volume is profusely illustrated with over 300 engravings by the first artists, which are really beautiful; worthy of examination as specimens of the art. Many of them are set into the body of the text, after the popular style of Lossings Pictorial Field Book of the Revolution. The ok's contents include reminiscences of camp, picket, spy, scout, bivounc, siege and battlefield adventures; thrilling feats of bravery, wit, droll-ery, comical and ludicrous, adventures, etc., etc. Amusement as well as instruction may be found in every page, as graphic detail, brilliant wit, and authentic history, are skilfully interwoven in this work of literary art.

This work sells itself. The people are tired of dry details and partizan works, and want somehumorous, romantic and startling. We have agents clearing over $200 per month. Send for circulars, and see our terms and proof of the above assertion. Address NATIONAL PUBLISHING CO. 507 Minor St., Philadelphia, Pa.
