"Not only in Kentucky, but throughout the Union and the world, Grant and Sherman will decline in estimation, while President Johnson and Gen. Lee will be recognized in all their purity, goodness and greatness."

The Louisville Journal unwittingly tells the significant truth when it says:
"The people of the South would rather not be represented at all in Congress, than represented by such of their people as could get into that body under the operations of the test oath. The rebel Gen. Forrest said in his

Memphis speech: There was no decision in the late war, and we must now go to the ballot

The Mobile Tribune, speaking of the New Orleans massacre, says: "It was well done. Even if five times, or five hundred times the sacrifice of life had been made to accomplish the purpose, it would still have been well done. The New Orleans riot is to be dupli-

Such will be the end of the same men, duplicated, here in Tennessee. They are already hastening their own destruction, by passing the bounds not only of patience, but of prudence and human forbearance. The people of Tennessee are a sober and peaceably disesed class, but it is dangerous to meddle with them too far.'

Pittsburg Soldiers' Convention.

The following platform of principles was adopted by the Soldiers' Convention which recently assembled at Pittsburg: "Resolved, That the action of the present Congress in passing the pending constitutional amendment is wise, prudent and just. It clearly defines American citizenship, and guarantees all his rights to every citizen. It places on a just and equal basis the right of representation, making the vote of a man in one State equally potent with the vote of another man in any State. It righteously excludes from places of honor and trust the chief conspirators, guiltiest rebels, whose perjured crimes have drenched the land in fraternal blood.— It puts into the very frame of our Government the inviolability of the national debt, and the nullity forever of all obligations contracted in support of the

"Resolved, That the right of the con-queror to legislate for the conquered has been recognized by the public law of all civilized nations; by the operation of that law for the conservation of the good of the whole country, Congress has the undoubted right to establish measures for the conduct of the revolted States, and to pass all acts of legislation that are necessary for the complete restora-

ABOMINABLE.-In the speech of Clymer at Uniontown, as reported for the Pittsburg Post, we find the following

"By the assassination of Abraham Lincoln, Andrew Johnson became President of the United States. If, under his administration, harmony should come again to the land, who will not see in the auspicious event the spirit of God moving over troubled waters."

Are we to understand that the spirit of which Mr. Clymer so profanely speaks strengthened the heart and guided the arm of that Democratic hero, J. Wilkes Booth, and enabled him to bring about that "auspicious event"? Certain it is, that to Booth Mr. Clymer and his party are indebted for their present momentary gleam of hope; and equally certain it is, that if the party who are now rallying around Andrew Johnson shall be successful, the assassin of Lincoln will be politically canonized as their greatest benefactor. Such is the depth to which an alliance with oppression and treason can sink men, who, if free, would be respectable. What are we to make of the language we have are we to make of the language we have quoted, but the beginning of an effort to rescue the memory of that assassin from an immortality of infamy, and give him a place among the honored agents of Heaven?—Gazette.

RUMORS of frauds to be attempted by the Copperjohnsons in the interest of Mr. Theodore P. Wright, their candidate for Congress, are prevalent. We cannot stop to ferret out the facts upon which these rumors are founded. It is too late to explore in that direction; so we embrace this opportunity to warn

1st-To place active and reliable men on guard as challengers, early in the day, with orders to remain there until the polls close. Any attempt to colonize must be resisted to the utmost. Strangers offering to vote should be promptly challenged, and questioned under oath as to their late residence, their business in the locality, and as to the length of their stay. If it appear that any such person is there for the purpose of voting, with no intention to remain as a resident of the district, and the Board shall be satisfied that he is not a bona fide resident, his vote should be at once rejected. 2d-Put none but active and reliable Republicans in charge of the tickets. See to it that no man is deceived by tickets upon which the name of Wrightor Clymer has been gummed or pasted. Very likely the Copperheads will be on hand with these gumbacks, and endeavor to substitute Clymer's name for the Government; that his attempt to GEARY's on the State ticket, and on fasten his scheme of reconstruction up- the ticket labeled. Be vigilant from morning till the regular Repuplican ticket, is a fraud, and any person circulating it shall be prosecuted. So, friends, as you would avert the usurpations threatened by Andrew Johnson, be on your guard against possible fraud at the hands of our unscrupulous opponents. Look out for lies and lying handbills. Look out for attempts to debauch the unsuspecting and dissipated with whiskey. Be on the alert. Work as you never worked before, for the salvation of the republic hangs upon our united efforts for GEARY and WILSON next Tuesday.

Look to your polling lists, Republicans. If any man living far from the polls shall not have voted by 3 o'clock, send for him at once. Let no Republican be left at home next Tuesday.

Will our friends see to it that the polls are opened promptly at eight o'clock in be morning of next Tuesday! Many times men come early to the polls in or der to vote and return to their work.-By no means keep such men waiting. Open early.

Remember this Stephen F. Wilson voted for the bill graing soldiers $300 bounty.

Remember that he voted against reducing that bounty to $100. A member that Andrew Johnson approved be bill to increase the pay of Congression while Mr. Wilson voted against it.

When Gen. Geary was fighting the battles of our common country, Hiester Clymer was voting against organizing increasing the pay of the soldiers; against giving soldiers the right to vote. Which do you want for Governor? Geary, or Clymer?

If you think that rebels ought not to sit as jurymen on their own trial, vote for Stephen F. Wilson for Congress. But if you think that men who fought for four years to destroy the Government ought to control legislation, vote for Wright.

If you think the President is superior to the people, who created him, vote the Copperhead ticket.

But if you think that Presidents are the servants of the people, vote for Geary, Wilson, and the Republican ticket.

Every man who votes next Tuesday will do one of two things: If he believes that traitors should be punished, and be assigned back seats in the work of reconstruction, he will vote for Geary, Wilson, and the entire Re-

But if he believes treason to be a trifling crime, and that the men who for four years vainly tried to destroy the government, ought to help to make the laws, and sit as jurymen on their own trial, he must vote for Hiester Clymer, Theodore Wright, and the whole Copperjohnson ticket.

REPUBLICANS

Next Tuesday you will go to the polls and deposit the most important vote you ever east; the most important vote you ever will be privileged to cast, in our candid judgment.

Think of it: Andrew Johnson says in so many words that the present Congress is illegal—is not the Congress of the United States, but of only twentyfive States every act has been illegal. Because legality cannot issue out of illegality. If the present Congress be illegal then every Congress which sat during the war was illegal; for only a portion of the States were represented in the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth Congresses. It follows, therefore, that if these Congresses were illegal, their acts were illegal, and the laws passed by them are rebels and sneaking Copperheads. null and void.

So, if Andrew Johnson he correct, there is not a dollar of Government paper afloat, whether it be greenback, bond, interest-bearing note, or national bank paper, which is worth one penny. This would involve the repudiation of Republicans in every election district: the nation. And with the death of national credit, universal and wide-spread ruin would come to this country.

Make the 40th Congress as earnestly and radically Republican as the present about the illegality of a Congress composed of loyal men. Andrew Johnson must be taught, and the people must teach him, that he is not competent to impeach the Congress of the U. States.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND honorably discharged Union soldiers, with their battle-flags, assembled in Convention at Pittsburg on the 24th ultimo. It was the grandest Convention ever assembled in any country. There were no deserters, skedaddlers, nor camp followers, and no endorsers of the policy of Andrew Johnson. To Mr. Johnson's decarmy of the United States to make him Dictator, these fifteen thousand men returned an indignant denial. Mr. L. E. Dudley, a private soldier, was made temporary Chairman, and Gen Cox was reported for permanent Chairman. Altogether it was a Convention to be proud of, and must teach Andrew Johason that he can have few friends and supporters among the "boys in blue" save these who have received promotion in payment for their apostacy, and the small host of deserters and camp followers.

Take care of your tickets. Make ample arrangements to have the tickets cut, folded and arranged for the voter. There will be three ballots, under the head of "State," "Judiciary," and "County." Let none but true-blue men handle the tickets. Be vigilant and watchful.

The crowd of converts to the Congressional plan of reconstruction is becoming large. Raymond, of the N. Y.
